

An informational interview is a powerful networking and career exploration tool. It's a conversation with a professional in your field of interest to learn more about their job, industry and gain valuable insights.

Remember that Informational interviews are not about seeking a job directly but rather about gathering information and building valuable connections in your chosen field or industry.

FINDING SOMEONE TO INTERVIEW

- Leverage Your Personal Network: Reach out to your friends, family, professors, advisors, classmates, and peers for potential connections in your desired industry.
- Utilize Online Platforms: Explore platforms like Currents SLC (Alumni Network) and LinkedIn to connect with professionals who align with your career aspirations.

CRAFTING THE REQUEST

- Introduction: Introduce yourself briefly and mention any mutual connections or interests.
- State Your Purpose: Explain your intent, emphasizing your eagerness to learn from their expertise and experience.
- Request for an Interview: Politely request a 20 - 30 minute informational interview, offering flexibility in terms of meeting format (in person, phone or video call) and availability.
- Express Gratitude: Convey your appreciation in advance for their time and insights.
- Follow Up: If you don't receive a response within a reasonable time, send a polite follow up.

HOW TO PREPARE

- Identify Your Goals: Are you seeking advice, industry insights, job search tips or networking opportunities? Having clear goals will help you determine what questions to ask.
- Research: Learn as much as you can about your interviewee. Start with LinkedIn, Google, the company's website, or other relevant social media platforms.
- Prepare Questions: Craft 5 - 7 thoughtful and relevant questions that align with your goals.

SAMPLE QUESTIONS TO ASK

- Can you tell me about your career journey and how you got to your current role?
- What does a typical day or week in your job look like?
- What skills and qualities do you believe are the most important for success in this field/role?
- What do you enjoy most about your work?
- What are the biggest challenges you're faced with?
- Are there any industry trends or developments I should be aware of?
- Can you recommend any books, courses, or resources that would be beneficial for someone pursuing this career?
- What do you see as the next step in your career?
- What advice would you give to someone starting out in this industry?
- Do you have any additional contacts or colleagues you'd recommend I speak with for further insights into this career path?

DURING THE INTERVIEW

- Actively Listen: Pay close attention to the interviewee's responses, ask follow-up questions.
- Respect Their Time: Keep the interview within the agreed timeframe.

FOLLOW UP & MAINTAIN THE CONNECTION

Send a thank you email expressing your gratitude for their time and insights. You can briefly summarize key takeaways from the conversation and express your interest in staying in touch.
