CONVOCATION 2026 HONORARY DIPLOMA RECIPIENT – 10<sub>AM</sub> CEREMONY

---

Gail Kaneb

President, Breakthrough Strategies and co-founder of the Tom & Gail Kaneb Family Foundation

What does this award mean to you personally?

Making a difference in the lives of those around me has always been a core motivation for me. To be recognized for that impact is both humbling and deeply gratifying.

It's also especially meaningful to be included among such an accomplished group of past and current recipients. That sense of shared purpose and contribution makes the honour even more special.

How have your interactions with St. Lawrence College influenced your path and the work that led to this award?

St. Lawrence College plays a vital role in our community by providing accessible, practical education to a wide range of students—recent high school graduates, university graduates seeking career-focused skills, and adults pursuing new directions. That access strengthens both individuals and the community as a whole.

My husband Tom and I have always believed in supporting that mission. Over the years, we've been proud to contribute and advocate for the college, most recently through support for the nursing and paramedic labs—investments that will have a direct and lasting impact on community health and well-being.

What wisdom would you share with SLC graduates based on your own experiences in your education and career?

Stay flexible and invest in the relationships you build along the way. Most importantly, show up. My career has taken many unexpected turns—I've had six different careers, starting with a role in computer sales at IBM, then entrepreneurship, consulting, later leadership and organizational development, and now venture capitalist and philanthropist. At times, especially when working part-time while raising a family, I felt like I was falling behind—but in reality, I was building skills and perspectives that became invaluable later.

Getting involved—especially through volunteer and board work—opened doors I couldn't predict. People notice what you bring, and those relationships often lead to new opportunities. Every stage, even the uncertain ones, teaches you something useful. So, stay open, keep contributing, and trust that your path is unfolding in ways that will make sense over time.

Chief Abram Benedict,

Ontario Regional Chief (ORC) for the Chiefs of Ontario

What does this award mean to you personally?

Accepting this award is a profound honour. St. Lawrence College has long been a trusted partner to my community of Akwesasne, and receiving this recognition from an institution beyond my own community carries deep meaning. To me, this honour represents a bridge — a reflection of the shared journey in education, partnership, and mutual respect that has grown between Akwesasne and the College over many years.

How have your interactions with St. Lawrence College influenced your path and the work that led to this award?

My relationship with St. Lawrence College has shaped me in many ways. As the former Grand Chief of Akwesasne and as a past member of the College's Board, I had the privilege of working closely with SLC. Those experiences informed my leadership, broadened my understanding of community driven education, and strengthened my commitment to improving opportunities not only for Akwesasne, but for the entire Cornwall-Akwesasne region. Our collaboration has always been rooted in the belief that when we lift one community, we lift all communities.

What wisdom would you share with SLC graduates based on your own experiences in your education and career?

To the graduates: be kind. The world can be tough, but kindness will carry you farther than you expect. Embrace lifelong learning — it will keep you grounded, curious, and adaptable. Build genuine partnerships, because nothing meaningful is ever achieved alone. And above all, stay true to your values and keep moving forward. Don't ever stop.
