ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF LAND

St. Lawrence College is situated on the traditional lands of the Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee peoples. May we always be grateful to live and learn on these lands.

HONOUR SONG STORY

Helena Neveu

I want to acknowledge all the students and their achievements. This honour song is about the gifts that you have achieved from the land and also about the Giveaway. I want you to feel pride today and to let you know there's a lot of love surrounding you and in all the teachings. I want to give this song to you as a Giveaway. The Giveaway is a gift that we're given, and I am very honored to be part of your achievements and graduation ceremony. This song is called the All my People song. It's for all the people equally in the circle, represented by the drum. One time there was a girl who had a dream that a hand drum had fallen from the sky. It landed on a beautiful blanket and the girl was told to gather all the people together and that this drum would bring harmony. And so, she did what the dream told her and started singing this song. This is the Giveaway for you.

MUSICAL INTERLUDE

Seasons of Love – Rent, the Broadway Musical

Performed by: Maggie Alguire, Mikayla Bondy, Sara-Claude Dion-Dupont, Anna Doyle, Sarah Duff, Marlee Griffiths, Anastacia Harris, Madeleine Kennedy, Jess Nicholas, Mallory Mason, Bethany Papadopoulos, Will Parry, Thomas Pritchard, Nicholas Sajonas, Sean Rakowski, Maddy Thaller, Kiera Watson

Five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes
Five hundred twenty-five thousand moments so dear
Five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes
How do you measure? Measure a year?
In daylights,
In sunsets,
In midnights,
In cups of coffee,
In inches, in miles, in laughter, in strife
In five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes
How do you measure a year in a life?
How about love?
How about love?
How about love?
Measure in love...
Seasons of love...
Seasons of love...
Five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes
Five hundred twenty-five thousand journeys to plan
Five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes
How do you measure a life of a woman or a man?
In truths that she learned
Or in times that she cried
In bridges he burned
Or the way that she died
Its time now to sing out though
The story never ends
Let's celebrate remember a year in a life
Of friends
Remember the love...
(Oh you gotta remember the love)
Remember the love...
(Oh yeah, it's a gift from up above)
Remember the love...
(Sing out, give out, measure your life
In looooooove...!)
Seasons of love...
Seasons of love...

CLASS OF 2020 HONORARY DIPLOMA RECIPIENT

JIMMY HASSAN – CEO OF CANADIAN COLOURS / PIZZA PIZZA FRANCHISEE / COMMUNITY SUPPORTER

Jimmy is a significant supporter of numerous charitable organizations in the Kingston community. In addition to this support, he can often be found serving pizza to picketers, kids at ice rinks, or anywhere else he feels people may benefit. Jimmy immigrated to Canada 22 years ago and is truly a Canadian success story. He worked hard to build a career and today is a leader in his community.

What does this award mean to you personally?

To me, this award is more than just a celebration of my achievements; it is recognition of my struggles and hard work. Just as earning a diploma or degree takes years of effort, this award takes that same time and dedication. This award also celebrates the impact my work has made on the people I've helped and the smiles I've brought. My projects have encouraged the betterment of the community and inspired so many people. This award goes to those brilliant minds that are picking up where I leave off too.

It's not just my own contributions that got these results though. Nothing was achieved alone. My ventures that led to this moment were supported by my wife who is always by my side to motivate me, they were aided by my kids who had creative ideas to share and who helped articulate my thoughts, they were aided by my friends who pitched in financially or with ideas and help, and they were aided by my family overseas who inspired me to go out into the world and come here to even do what I have done in the first place.

How have SLC students or the college in general intersected with your work or community?

I've always seen SLC as an extraordinary college. It does everything right; instilling values into students, building community, and developing skills for success. As such, I've always supported the College and have been more than happy to collaborate with them. Before the pandemic I had a project going with them that had to be reevaluated and now, I'm having SLC as a dignitary at my next diversity dinner.

SLC, its staff, and students, have also supported me and my work. I've received a lot of kind and uplifting words from the people there, and being in my business' area, I've had the pleasure of getting to know many of them very well through serving them. They support my business this way, and we form connections for future collaborations. Finally, I've been told I am an inspiration to the international students, as an immigrant, to encourage them to become the best they can be.

What path have you followed that sees you here today? What were some ingredients of your success?

My path is one first of determination. I would not be anywhere without the determination to reach beyond what my walls in Pakistan had for me. I knew there was more I could achieve and so I was determined to achieve it. However, setting off on my journey itself was tough. It was about sacrifice because I knew I'd rarely see my family and friends, walk my childhood home, or be able to hug my mother. With courage, support, and that same determination though, I left my home and eventually came to Canada via the United States.

Initially, it was hard. Not only did I not know the language or have money, but my little education was irrelevant in North America for finding work. I took that nothing however, and made something of it instead. I remained determined but also creative. With some critical thinking, I was able to find a workaround that put me on more equal footing, and with hard work, in time I became just like someone born here.

Who has been your biggest inspiration, and why?

I want to credit two people. First is my mom. She was the first person to encourage me in my life and in fact, she was the one who pushed me to leave Pakistan. She saw that I had ambitions that just weren't possible to achieve in our living situation and with our economic status. She knew it would be hard to let her son go, but she encouraged me to do what brought me joy and pursue what would make me happy. She was a strong woman to do that and provide for me, and I look up to her for that. I wouldn't have the courage to do all this without her. Next, I want to thank my wife, of course. She's always been here by my side and I'm so glad to have married an amazing and strong woman like her. I know that all the rushing around and work can be stressful and annoying, but she sticks to it with me because she knows both that it's for the better of the community and that it's my dream to do this. She always encourages me to do what makes me happy as well and has an active role in it all. With her support, as with the rest of my family, I feel I can do anything.

What words of inspiration/wisdom can you share with SLC graduates?

Recognize that in order to succeed you must be willing to fail. Treat every set back, every challenge, and every failure as an opportunity for growth and recognize that it is a necessary part of progress. You cannot understand what success means unless you have experienced failure. You must then channel that frustration and convert it into positive energy and let that flow out towards everyone that you connect with by being a positive force at every step. Establish a vision by asking yourself tough questions about who you want to become, and that answer doesn't have to come over night, it will continue to shift and change as you move through life.

Set short term goals and go after them. Rely on the positive voices in your life and surround yourself with positive energy because that is what has helped me to get to where I am today. If I listened to all the negativity, I would never have taken a single step forward. I am testament that it doesn't matter where you come from or how difficult your path has been or will be. If you work to elevate yourself by serving others, you will be rewarded in ways you'll never have expected. Like receiving an honorary diploma from an esteemed institution like SLC, it is a dream come true, and I never imagined that I would be standing here one day.
