CONVOCATION 2025 HONORARY DIPLOMA RECIPIENT

Brett Christopher, Managing Director Thousand Islands Playhouse

What does this award mean to you personally?

I am so grateful for this honour as it affirms the work that the Thousand Islands Playhouse has done, under my leadership, to focus on community and inclusivity. My own academic path has certainly been non-traditional, and so to receive a diploma from an institution that I hold in such high esteem is all the more meaningful.

How have your interactions with St. Lawrence College influenced your path and the work that led to this award?

Through my work in the performing arts in the region, I have been very privileged to work with students in a variety of departments, ranging from marketing to musical theatre performance. These instances have inspired me to dig deeper into my own creative work and to seek further opportunities to support the growth of the students in their chosen fields. Most recently, I have worked alongside the Musical Theatre program in Brockville to support their learning, help build their productions and find ways to help ease the transition that the graduates will experience as they enter the highly competitive live performing arts industry.

What wisdom would you share with SLC graduates based on your own experiences in your education and career?

When I entered post-secondary education, I did so out of duty. Duty to my upbringing, my friends, my teachers, everything but a duty to myself and my own interests. It was rocky and it hurt. When I finally uncovered my passion for Theatre, the path found me. Changing your trajectory is not giving up, it is the most courageous thing that you might do, particularly in the face of others' expectations. Pursue a variety of endeavours, of possible outcomes, of interests and desires, and then listen to that gentle voice inside your heart when it whispers: 'this, this is what you were meant for.'
