2. General Definitions

2.1 Student - Full-Time, Part-Time [rev. Sept. 2020]

At St. Lawrence College, a student is someone enrolled in a course.

Full-Time Student

- a) Is enrolled in an approved program leading to a credential, granted by the College's Board of Governors;
- b) Is enrolled in a college program of instruction for at least 70 percent of the credits or 66 2/3 percent of the courses required for the program of instruction in a given semester or reporting period. A student granted advanced standing, transfer credit or an exemption from a course is not considered to be enrolled in the course;
- c) Has paid fees or made arrangements for their payment.

Part-Time Student

- (a) Is enrolled in one or more courses and in less than 70 percent of the credits and in less than 66 2/3 percent of the courses required for a full-time program of instruction in a given semester or reporting period; and
- (b) Has paid fees or made arrangements for their payment.

2.2 Students with a Disability [rev. Sept. 2020]

St. Lawrence College will accommodate students with temporary or permanent disabilities as defined in Section 10 (1) of the Ontario Human Rights Code, 1990. Accommodations will be based on the functional limitations associated with a disability which interfere with academic functioning. Students who receive accommodations must still meet the essential course and program requirements in order to be successful. St. Lawrence College will accommodate to the point of undue hardship. Accommodations do not guarantee a level of achievement or alter the College's academic integrity policies.

Students enrolled in a full-time program may be eligible for an approved reduced course load due to their individual disability-related needs. Students who meet disability-related criteria are eligible to take a course load equivalent to at least 40% of the normal course credits or load (calculated on number of courses) for each semester of their program.

In such cases, St. Lawrence College grants eligible students the same rights, benefits, and responsibilities as students with full-time status, independent of academic standing, and regarded in all ways that are within the jurisdiction of the College.

2.3 Program [rev. Sept. 2020]

A series of learning experiences designed to permit an individual to achieve a defined level of competence. Recognition is granted through the awarding of a range of credentials. (see section 1.0) Ministry approved credentials include the following: Ontario College Certificate, Ontario College Diploma, Ontario College Advanced Diploma, Ontario College Graduate Certificate, and Applied Degrees. Credentials locally approved by the College's Board of Governors include a: St. Lawrence College Certificate, a Statement of Achievement, and an Acknowledgement of Participation and Microcredentials. Credentials awarded through joint collaborative programming partnerships adhere to the policy guidelines of the issuing institution. All credentials adhere to Ministry guidelines and reflect the scope of the curriculum outcomes as well as the breadth and depth of the program.

2.4 Course [rev. Sept. 2020]

An educational unit dealing with a particular subject that meets specified learning outcomes.

2.4.1 Credit Course

A course in which a letter grade or an administrative grade is awarded. Grades recognize the achievement of a part of or the total requirements for a course or learning module.

2.4.2 Non-credit/Non-Graded Course

A course in which no grades are assigned, as in general interest courses. Non-credit courses generally contribute to personal or occupational development and typically are not applicable to a College credential.

2.4.3 Non-credit/Graded Course

A non-credit course in which grades are assigned. Non-credit courses generally contribute to personal or occupational development and typically are not applicable to a College credential.

2.4.4 Audited Course

A course for which a student applies to audit the course (no examinations or assignments) and that will be denoted on the academic record by AU. The request to audit a course must be declared at the time of registration. Fees for auditing courses are generally double the regular fee.

2.4.5 Course Pre-Requisite

A course pre-requisite is a course or other requirement (such as First Aid, CPR, WHMIS or other certifications), that must be fulfilled prior to enrollment in another course.

2.4.6 Course Co-Requisite

A course that must be completed concurrently while enrolled in another course. If a student is unsuccessful in passing one of the co-requisite courses, he/she will be assigned the grade earned for each course, but the courses must both be repeated. For example, Course A and Course B are co-requisites taken at the same time. Student fails Course A and passes Course B. The student must repeat both Course A and Course B concurrently and successfully pass both courses.

2.4.7 Dual Credit

The PASS (Partnering to Achieve Student Success) program is funded under the School College Work Initiative and provides secondary school students the opportunity to register in St. Lawrence College level courses through their high school guidance department. Upon successful completion of a dual credit course, a student will be granted a college credit and a high school credit.

3. Admission

The Admission Policy of St. Lawrence College has been established to conform to the intentions and directions of the Ministry of Colleges and Universities, set out in the Minister's Binding Policy directive admission criteria, effective April 1, 2003. The criteria are outlined in section II (I) of O. Reg. 34/03 under the Ontario Colleges of Applied Arts & Technology Act 2002. These procedures are maintained by the Registrar.

3.1 General Admission Policy [rev. Sept. 2020]

The admission policy of St. Lawrence College requires the following:

- (a) The acceptance of all who are qualified within established program limits;
- (b) The use of a ranking procedure where the number of qualified applicants exceeds that limit,
- (c) A clear statement to all unsuccessful applicants as to why they were not admitted.
Further, changes to admission requirements require Academic Council endorsement and College Executive Team approval, and,
- (d) Changes in admission requirements which are of greater stringency become effective only in the academic year after their publication on the College web site.

3.2 Admission Requirement [rev. Sept. 2021]

To be eligible to apply for admission to college programs, an applicant must meet the following requirements:

- 1) Must be the holder of an Ontario Secondary School Diploma or its equivalent; or
- 2) Must be 19 years of age or older on or before the commencement of the program in which the applicant intends to enroll (mature student);
- 3) Does not meet the criteria set out in clauses (1) or (2) but is the holder of an admission requirement established by the Board of Governors for a specific program of instruction.

In practice this means that the holder of an Ontario Secondary School Diploma is eligible for admission regardless of age.

English language assessment is recommended for applicants without Grade 12 English

In addition, many programs have program specific admission requirements. These may include specific secondary school courses, portfolios, etc. As requirements vary from program to program, an applicant should refer to the specific admission requirements for each program located on the College web site.

3.3 Admission Priorities [rev. Sept. 2020]

Admission of qualified applicants will be in accordance with provincial policy and College priorities as established by the Board of Governors.

- (a) Subject to the above, equal consideration will be given to all complete and qualified applications received by February 1 for all programs.
- (b) Applications received or completed after the equal consideration date shall be considered if spaces are available in the program.
- (c) Where further differentiation among qualified candidates for a particular program is necessary, it will be based on the College's assessment of each candidate's relative probability of success in the program. The College believes that the most valid single predictor of future academic performance is a candidate's past academic performance. The assessment and subsequent order of acceptance will be based on one or more of the following as approved by Academic Council;

- a. Demonstrated academic achievement in a majority of designated prerequisite subject areas
- b. Academic achievement generally.
- c. Graduates of the St. Lawrence College Academic Career Entrance (ACE) Certificate program and applicants who have completed a full-time semester of the Arts and Science program, or the Pre-Health Sciences Pathway to Certificates and Diplomas, or Pre-Health Sciences Pathway to Advanced Diplomas and Degrees programs with a minimum GPA of 3.0 will be awarded an additional 10 % in their admission assessment when applying to any post-secondary diploma program at St. Lawrence College (program specific requirements still apply). Applicants awarded the additional 10% must successfully complete the two-semester program, and be granted the respective certificate, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 or their admissibility for the program will be re-evaluated without the additional 10%; the offer of admission may be revoked if the applicant is no longer competitive.
- d. Grade 10 math in India will be considered equivalent to grade 11 C/U level math.

Applicants will be admitted in the following order of preference:

1. Permanent Ontario residents
2. Permanent residents from other Canadian provinces and territories
3. Applicants from other countries

3.4 Facilitated Admission for Indigenous Students [rev. Sept. 2020]

This pathway for Indigenous applicants will consider applications to highly competitive programs placing less weight on academic performance. Applicants in this category must meet the minimum entrance requirements for the program they are applying to, however, they are not required to meet the competitive average for the admission year.

Up to 5 percent of admission spaces will be offered to Indigenous applicants through this admission pathway.

For more information, including the application process please see www.stlawrencecollege.ca/Indigenous

3.5 Admission to Part-Time Studies in a Full-time Program [rev. Sept. 2020]

- 3.51 Applicants who wish to study part-time in a full-time program are required to meet the College's and the respective program's admission requirements as outlined in 3.1 and 3.2 above. Not all programs are available for study on a part-time basis.
- 3.52 Admission to Part-time studies as a pathway to a credential or Full-time Studies
Persons who are at least 19 years old and who do not meet the College's or the program's admission requirements will be permitted to take up to two courses per semester from the following programs:
 - General Arts and Science, One-year certificate program
 - Business Fundamentals, One-year certificate program

After successful completion of six courses with an overall minimum GPA of 1.51, including a minimum of 1 communication course and 1 math course with minimum grades of C-, students can apply to be recognized as registered students in the respective program and may study part-time or full-time subject to course availability.

3.6 English Language Proficiency Policy [rev. Sept. 2020]

All applicants must be fluent enough in English to understand instructors and the technical language used in their subject area. Therefore, for applicants whose first language is not English or whose previous education has been conducted in another language, demonstrated proficiency in English is required. This can be done by undertaking and submitting the results of a recognized assessment for the program to which application is being made. Please note that scores for the standardized English language tests are only valid for a 24-month period from the date of testing. Conditional acceptance for admission to designated St. Lawrence College Programs to students for whom English is not a first language may be granted to eligible students. To be eligible for this conditional acceptance students will have satisfied all other admission requirements, and will be reasonably able to achieve language proficiency, within one calendar year. Please see the College's website for a current list of proficiency assessments recognized for admission to St. Lawrence College programs.

3.7 Re-admission [rev. Sept. 2020]

A student at St. Lawrence College who interrupts their studies or has not graduated within 200% of the normal program duration (see Section 10.1) or whom the College has withdrawn is subject to the current admission requirements for the program in question and the order of priority of admission applicable to the program.

Note: In circumstances where previous college academic progress or conduct has been unacceptable, a further admissions review may be required. In such a review, an applicant must be able to demonstrate evidence of the ability to perform at an acceptable standard in the program in question.

See Appendix B of Progression Policy for program specific re-admission policies where applicable.

3.8 Admission Appeal Procedure [rev. Sept. 2020]

Applicants denied admission to the College can receive the specific reason for the denial by submitting a request in writing to the Associate Registrar. The Associate Registrar, or appropriate designate, will investigate the circumstances and provide a detailed written summary of the reasons for the denial of admission within a reasonable time frame, in consultation with the relevant Dean or Associate Dean or designate, as required.

When the written explanation is not satisfactory to the applicant the following process is available:

- Submit a written request to the Registrar for review.
- The Registrar will convene and chair a meeting of the Admission Review Committee.
- The Committee will include the Dean or Associate Dean for the program to which admission was denied and others as required.
- The Registrar will notify the applicant requesting the review of the date, time and location of the meeting.
- The applicant may present arguments to support their request in writing or in person.
- Based on the results of the review, the Registrar will communicate a decision to the applicant, including pertinent supporting rationale.

Note: The decision of the Admission Review Committee is final and binding.

3.9 Advanced Standing/Recognizing Relevant Learning [rev. Sept. 2020]

It is recognized that competence may be acquired in a variety of ways including formal programming and through practical experience. St. Lawrence is committed to recognizing relevant learning regardless of how it is accomplished. Requirements of many programs can be achieved through Transfer of Credit, Exemptions and/or PLAR subject to the Residency Requirement.

3.10 Residency Requirement [rev. Sept. 2020]

Students must complete at least twenty-five (25) percent of the credits required in a program of study registered as a student at St. Lawrence College. Some programs may have other residency restrictions related to accreditation, licensing or credentials. Program details can be found at <http://www.stlawrencecollege.ca/programs-and-courses/>

3.11 Transfer of Credit (External) [rev. Sept. 2021]

Course credits from publicly funded colleges and universities in Ontario may be eligible for transfer towards a program of study at St. Lawrence College. All other institutions will be considered on a case-by-case basis, unless an articulation agreement exists. For transfer credits to college degree programs the credits must be from institutions acceptable to the Postsecondary Education Quality Assessment Board (PEQAB).

Students must make application for external transfer credits within the first 10 school days of the start of the academic semester, and are responsible to acquire and supply all supporting documents. The following documentation must be provided with the Transfer Credit Request at the time of submission:

- Official transcripts.
- Course outlines – Course outlines containing the course code, year/semester they were taken and have learning outcomes attached.
- International credential evaluation (WES or ICAS) for courses from non-Canadian institutions.

The Application for Transfer Credit is expected to be submitted upon acceptance to the program.

- The deadline for application is the 10th day of classes after semester start. If the student applies by the 10-day deadline, and the credit is approved, the course being replaced will be removed from their transcript.
- If the student applies after the deadline, but before the academic penalty deadline (usually two-thirds of the way through the course), then a “W” grade will be applicable for the course being replaced.
- If the student applies after the academic penalty deadline (usually two-thirds of the way through the course), then an “F” grade would be applicable. The transfer credit can still be used to satisfy graduation requirements.

Credits transferred to a program at St. Lawrence College contribute to the requirements for graduation and appear on the academic record as “T”. “T” grades do not count towards a student’s GPA.

For an external course to be transferred, it must:

- Satisfy 80% of the learning outcomes of the St. Lawrence College course, which will be determined by a subject matter expert.
- Have been completed within the last five (5) years unless otherwise approved.
- Have a passing grade for college courses.

For General Education courses 80% similarity is not required.

All courses evaluated as equivalent will be granted in future on the basis of the other institution’s transcript and re-evaluated every five (5) years and/or with any significant program/course changes.

Applications for transfer credit into a College Degree Program will be assessed in accordance with PEQAB standards and guidelines. Applications for transfer credits to a college degree program will be assessed for the proportion of affinity with and/or applicability to the specialist content of the program and other curricular requirements. Transfer credits must be equivalent to a degree level credit.

For St. Lawrence College Degree Programs the minimum acceptable grade or level of achievement to qualify for transfer credit is a pass for core courses and non-core/breadth courses in college degree programs.

Performance designations other than letter or percentage (number) grades are not acceptable for transfer credit, unless the equivalent course is graded the same. Transfer credits will not be granted for high school courses unless the course is dual-credit. Courses from a Ministry-approved program in good standing, offered by a registered private career college, are eligible to be submitted for transfer credit evaluation. Evaluations are made on an individual basis by each program of study. No partial credits will be granted for transfer credit requests and credits cannot be used towards more than one course in the same program once accepted as equivalent.

Note: The decision made on a submitted transfer credit request is not subject to an appeal.

Note: Students in the Laurentian collaborative programs, Bachelor of Science in Nursing and Bachelor of Business Administration follow Laurentian University's Transfer Credit Policy.

Note: Students in the Honours Bachelor of Behavioural Psychology (HBBP) program who have completed two Ontario College General Education courses (or the equivalent) and earned a minimum grade of 60% in each course will be awarded a credit equivalency of one introductory Liberal Studies Elective. Students may earn a maximum of two Liberal Studies Elective credits through the General Education-to-Liberal Studies transfer. Credits only satisfy the requirements of the Degree Breadth Policy at the introductory level in each of the designated fields of study and will not be given credit consideration towards core degree programs of study.

3.12 Transfer of Credit (Internal) [rev. Sept. 2021]

The College recognizes that courses delivered within the College in different programs may lead to the same learning outcomes. With the College assigning an equivalency status to courses, this allows students to receive a transfer of credit (internal) for identical or equivalent College courses when entering another program of study. Courses in the College will be deemed equivalent to other courses on the basis that they require the student to achieve the same or equivalent course learning outcomes.

Normally, internal transfer credits will be awarded to a student, registered in a program, who has successfully completed an identical or equivalent course (or courses) in the College within the past five (5) years. In cases of identical course codes, grades provided for courses will be automatically forwarded to the student's current program of study. Grades brought forward will be included in the term and cumulative Grade Point Averages.

Students must make application for internal transfer credits within the first 10 school days of the start of the academic semester.

3.13 Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR) [rev. Sept. 2021]

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition is a process of evaluating the college level learning, knowledge and skills of adults acquired through life experience such as self-directed study, paid employment, voluntary work, professional development, travel and other learning experiences. In order for this learning to be credited, it must be described or demonstrated; assessed as to its nature, extent, and depth; and deemed equivalent and current when compared to course or program learning outcomes.

PLAR is to be distinguished from the transfer of academic credits by focussing on the evaluation of experiential learning rather than on the determination of equivalency of formal educational courses and/or programs.

To be eligible for PLAR, candidates must be 19 years of age or older, or have an Ontario Secondary School Diploma or equivalent. Students who have failed a course previously or have been unsuccessful in a PLAR challenge will not be permitted a PLAR challenge in the same course for a period of one year (12 months).

Following formal acceptance as a PLAR candidate, the candidate's prior learning is assessed by academic staff who have subject matter expertise in the area. If the learning is deemed equivalent to all course learning outcomes, credit with grade values are awarded if those courses would typically result in a grade value. Unsuccessful PLAR attempts are not recorded on the student's transcript.

Normally, College courses will be available for candidates to earn credit through PLAR. In some exceptional cases, such as capstone courses or courses that are subject to external standards, programs may designate a course as one that is not eligible for PLAR. Students can only challenge a co-op or work placement course with their prior related work experience. Work experience acquired concurrently with the co-op or work placement semester cannot be used to challenge the same.

PLAR candidates will be bound by the College's residency policy which states that, for any credential, a minimum of twenty-five percent (25%) of the hours of the program of study must be taken and successfully completed at the College. Candidates who receive credit for courses through PLAR must go through the regular admission process, in order to gain entrance into a College program.

Students who are enrolled in a course may not submit an application for PLAR credit for the same course. If they have already enrolled in the course, they may only challenge the course after withdrawing from that course.

Fees charged for the PLAR assessment will be based on Ministry guidelines. Fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Students who wish to challenge the General Education electives based on prior learning may challenge the theme areas. The Prior Learning Assessment Office and subject resource specialist will assess applications for credit and, where credit is recognized, assign it to the appropriate theme outlined below, and enter it on the student's transcript:

- Arts in Society
- Civic Life
- Social and Cultural Understanding
- Personal Understanding
- Science and Technology

Challenge procedures may include written, oral, or performance assessment, the development of products, or combinations of any of these. The type of challenge assessment is determined by the nature of the learning being evaluated.

Candidates have the right to appeal the PLAR assessment. For specific information on the appeals process please refer to the Academic Appeals Policy (Policy 832).

3.14 Previous Education at St. Lawrence College [rev. Sept. 2020]

Students who transfer from one St. Lawrence program to another program can be given credit in all courses common to both programs.

3.15 Internal Transfer Applications [rev. Sept. 2021]

Any student who wishes to transfer from one St. Lawrence College postsecondary program into level/semester 1 of another St. Lawrence College program must submit a new application to Ontario Colleges (www.ontariocolleges.ca) or update their current application (if applicable).

Students wishing to transfer into a program beyond level/semester 1 and who have completed a successful full time semester at St. Lawrence College must complete a St. Lawrence College Application for Full-Time Advanced Level Entry form.

Transfers within program clusters (common first level/semester or common first year) are administered by the applicable Academic School (Kingston Campus) or Student Services Office (Brockville and Cornwall Campuses).

In all cases listed above, the normal admission requirements and order of priority apply to admission into the new program.

Intercampus Transfer Applications: Any student who wishes to transfer from one St. Lawrence College campus to another campus in the BScN program, must submit written rationale to the Registrar (registrar@sl.on.ca). Transfers will only occur if the receiving Campus has the resources to accommodate an additional student, i.e. classroom, laboratory and clinical placement. Applications for transfer are only for September of the following year. The deadline to apply for a transfer is May 1 of the preceding academic year.

The coordinators from each campus will inform the registrar of the number of seats available for the following September. The Registrar is responsible for the approval of the transfer as per the Registrar's office policies. The Registrar's office will then advise the Coordinator of the sending and receiving campus if the transfer is approved. The Coordinator of the sending campus will provide the receiving campus Coordinator with the student's academic file and inform Faculty of the student's transfer.

4. Fees

4.1 Tuition and Ancillary Fees [rev. Sept. 2020]

The Tuition and Fee Schedules are approved by the Board of Governors on an annual basis and are in effect from September 1 to August 31. The complete fee schedule can be found on the St. Lawrence College website under Pay For College.

4.2 Money Owing to the College [rev. Sept. 2020]

Before students are recommended for a credential or promotion, or issued reports or transcripts all money owing to the College must be paid in full. This includes but is not limited to outstanding tuition, compulsory and non-compulsory ancillary fees, and library fines.

4.3 Withdrawals/Refunds [rev. Sept. 2020]

- 4.3.1. For students studying in a full-time program, withdrawal and refund requests prior to the start of the term must be in writing to the Registrar's Office. The tuition deposit is non-refundable. After the start of the term, withdrawal and refund requests are initiated in writing through the Academic Office/Student Services.

A full refund less the non-refundable tuition deposit is granted if a written request is received within 10 working days from the start of the term. No refund is given to students who withdraw after the first 10 working days of the start of a term. Penalty fees are not refundable. Students are liable for payment of outstanding fees if they withdraw after the 10 day period. Failure to attend classes does not constitute an official withdrawal.

- 4.3.2. For students studying part-time, withdrawals are also subject to a non-refundable fee. The withdrawal fees and charges applicable to part-time studies, including Continuing Education, Ontario Learn, and part-time studies in a fulltime program, are published on the College's website.
- 4.3.3. Corporate and contract training refunds will be negotiated as part of the contract.

5. Curriculum

5.1 Course Outlines [rev. Sept. 2021]

At the beginning of each course, St. Lawrence College students are provided with a current course outline. The course outline is consistent for all offerings of the course across the College for the given academic year. The course outline forms the basis for a contract between students, faculty, and the College.

The course outline provides a framework of understanding for the course structure, learning outcomes, learning experiences, required resources, assignment requirements, and the evaluation methods that will be used to measure student achievement relative to the required course learning outcomes. When a course is a required core course within a larger program, the document also communicates the program standards, or learning outcomes, established for the program of study. Course Outlines are supported by Learning Plans.

Note: Course outlines are the property of St. Lawrence College.

Learning Plans

At the beginning of each course, St. Lawrence College students are provided with a learning plan specific to the course section in which they are enrolled. The learning plan supports the course outline by aligning the modules/units of study and related learning experiences and assessments to specific dates relevant to the timing of the particular section of the course. Learning plans are intended to support preparation for learning, effective time management, and successful completion of assessments. (Refer to AC845 Learning Plan.)

5.2 Online Student Experience [rev. Sept. 2021]

Every full-time Ontario College Certificate, Diploma and Advanced Diploma program at St. Lawrence College has been designed to provide students with an online learning experience as preparation for the world of work or further online studies. This is normally a fully online course and any exception must be approved by the Sr. Vice President Academic. The online course can be a vocational course or a General Education course. If a student has a transfer credit for the identified online course there is no requirement to complete an additional course. If a student wants access to an online course offered by the College, but not identified by their program of study as applicable to that student, students can only register, space permitting, two weeks after registration opens for students who are scheduled to take an online course in that semester.

6. Library

6.1 Circulation Policies [rev. Sept. 2020]

The library is open to everyone and all may make use of library collections during operating hours. Borrowing rules exist to ensure access to and sharing of library collections. This includes the designation of specific loan periods, the restriction on circulation of certain library materials, and the definition of borrowing privileges. Information about the borrowing activities of library users, including materials used, is not released to any person, institution or agency, except where required by law.

All faculty, staff, students, alumni, and community members are granted borrowing privileges upon presentation of valid photo identification. Valid identification includes a St. Lawrence College Student or Staff ID Card, St. Lawrence College Library Card, or Government Photo ID.

All library users assume responsibility for the items they choose to borrow. Penalties, including the levying of fines, the assessment of charges for the replacement of library materials, suspension of borrowing privileges, and/or a hold placed on a student's college account, may be applied. Inquiries regarding any penalty should be directed to the Library Service Desk. Borrowers, who feel a fine and/or charge was applied unfairly, have a right to appeal. Appeals must be made in writing to library management or designate.

6.2 Overdue Materials and Fines [rev. Sept. 2020]

Students, faculty, staff, and all other library users are responsible for returning materials on time and in good condition.

- Due dates are clearly indicated at the time of loan and can be reviewed online or by contacting the library.
- Overdue notices are emailed to college email accounts.
- Fines are charged as soon as items are overdue.
- Fine rates vary by item type and are posted on the Library Website.

Borrowing privileges are suspended for any of the following reasons:

- Fines/bills owing accrue to $15.00 and over.
- Failure to return an overdue item.
- Repeated violation of borrowing rules may lead to suspension of privileges.

Transcripts and graduation confirmation may be withheld if items are not returned or if fines owing exceed $30.00.

Destruction, damage, theft, disposal or holding/hiding of library resources, including deliberate non-return of library items, is considered a form of academic misconduct and may be handled according to the Academic Integrity Policy (AC831).

6.3 Lost and Damaged Materials [rev. Sept. 2020]

Students, faculty, staff, and all other library users are responsible for lost and damaged library materials. Costs are designed to encourage respect for college property and to replenish the library collection for other borrowers.

- Lost or damaged materials must be reported to the library.

- Items are assumed lost after being overdue for one month.
- The borrower is billed the replacement value for each lost or damaged item.
- Replacement costs vary by item type and are posted on the Library Website.
- If the item is returned, the borrower will be charged the lesser of either the overdue fine or the replacement cost.
- Replacement charges will be refunded if a lost item is returned within one year.

6.4 Copyright [rev. Sept. 2020]

Students must comply with copyright law and publisher licensing terms for print and online materials. Copyright means the sole right to produce or reproduce a Work or substantial part thereof in any material form (print or digital) or to perform the work or substantial part thereof in public. The St. Lawrence College Fair Dealing Policy AC860 provides guidelines for permitted uses, including copying and communicating copyright-protected works, by students and employees in post-secondary educational institutions. Details of this policy and permitted uses are posted at all college photocopiers and printers, in the library, and on the Library Website.

The Library provides education and guidance on copyright to students and employees.

Copyright infringement and failure to comply with laws regarding copyright, trademark and licensing agreements are considered forms of academic misconduct and may be handled according to the Academic Integrity Policy (AC831).

6.5 Library Use [dev. Sept. 2020]

Students must comply with library staff directions, posted signage, and posted rules relating to the use of the library. This includes use of library furniture and equipment, noise levels, room booking rules and library services. Deliberate non-compliance with posted rules and signage may be handled according to the Student Code of Conduct (AC830).

7. Grading

7.1 Assessment/Evaluation and Student Achievement [rev. Sept. 2021]

The purpose of assessing and evaluating student performance is twofold:

- (a) To measure knowledge, skills, or abilities against defined competencies or learning outcomes.
- (b) To enable data-driven decision-making for advancing learning

Assessment/evaluation is an ongoing process and includes components for, as, and of learning. Assessment involves systematically gathering, analyzing, and interpreting evidence to determine how well performance matches explicitly stated expectations and standards. In support of a comprehensive approach to assessment, a minimum of three different assessment strategies are implemented for each course. Students earn a passing grade by demonstrating the performance of the learning outcomes to the required standard, as explicitly stated in the course outline

Faculty post grades on the Learning Management System (Blackboard).

The final evaluation, or grade, is the record of each student's performance within a specific course.

Corrections for grades must be brought to the attention of the applicable faculty. There is an appeal process that may be used to resolve disputes about academic issues (refer to AC832 Academic Appeals Policy).

7.2 Grading Policy [rev. Sept. 2020]

The college is accountable for evaluating student achievement based on established standards and for communicating these results. The assigning of college defined grades formalizes a student's status within a course and/or program and provides a basis for decisions regarding recognition of excellence, promotion, academic probation and withdrawal.

1. Evaluation of student performance is an academic activity, which culminates in the assigning of grades. Grades are earned by students and represent a measure of achievement in reference to the standards established for programs and courses.
2. The College-wide grading system described in this document is to be applied in all credit courses.
3. Students' final grades are not official until recorded and released by the Registrar.
4. Once released by the Registrar, the final grades are part of the students permanent record and cannot be removed outside of a successful academic appeal as outlined in AC832 Academic Appeals Policy.

Each faculty member will distribute the course outline complete with evaluation criteria and learning outcomes. Such material is usually distributed during the first week of classes. The student's final grade in the course will be determined by the total performance evaluation of the student and a final grade will be entered on the student's record.

7.2.1 Student Assessment Feedback [rev. Sept. 2020]

Providing effective feedback on tests, assignments, and other evaluative tools is an integral part of student learning and is essential to the learning process. This policy provides the framework for effective feedback to students that is timely, continuous, focused, relevant to the assessment criteria for the task, developmental, and personal to each student.

7.2.2 Student Reassessment [dev. Sept. 2020]

Students are expected to meet the originally scheduled course requirements for writing tests and examinations as scheduled and submitting assignments by the due date. Opportunity for reassessment is not a right and in many cases is not possible.

Course appendix/learning plans, which are provided to students at the beginning of the term, will indicate if reassessment is a normal option for that course.

Reassessment, due to exceptional circumstances, will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and is at the discretion of the professor.

7.3 Grading/Assessment Description [rev. Sept. 2022]

Grade Description and Definition of Terms

Effective September 1, 2005 the following percentages and grade point equivalents are used:

Official Grades	Grade Points	Equivalent Percentages
A+	4.00	90 %– 100%
A	3.90	85% – 89%
A-	3.70	80% – 84%
B+	3.30	77% – 79%
B	3.00	73% - 76%
B-	2.70	70% - 72%
C+	2.30	67% - 69%
C	2.00	63% - 66%
C-	1.70	60% - 62%
D+	1.30	57% - 59%
D	1.00	53% - 56%
D-	0.70	50% - 52%
F	0	0% - 49%

Other Administrative grades and descriptions (no grade points or equivalent percentage assigned):

AU (Audit)

Recorded on the student record to designate those courses for which the student has applied to audit.

EX (Exemption)

Awarded to a student in recognition that the course requirement is waived through academic assessment on a test or assessment of past academic experiences. Exemptions awarded for courses required for a program contribute to the requirements for graduation from the program.

G/NG (Requirements Met/Requirements Not Met)

This designation is used for postsecondary courses in which student learning is evaluated against the outcomes of a course or learning module where it is inappropriate to differentiate further (no numeric grade). In these circumstances, “G” signifies successful completion, whereas “NG” signifies that students have been unsuccessful.

N (No Credit)

Recorded on the student record for courses in which no evaluation occurs and no grades are assigned. This is often used in continuing education noncredit courses.

T (Transfer)

W (Withdrawn)

Assigned to a student who withdraws formally from a course within the prescribed deadline (usually two thirds of the way through the course). If a placement is terminated and results in a failure, the student will receive the failing grade (F) and will not be permitted to withdraw from the course.

I (Incomplete)

Assigned with conditions attached for a student still completing the course. Some circumstances which may result in an “I” grade being awarded include, for example, illness, bereavement, or other extenuating personal circumstances. The “I” grade will not be used to provide a time extension for a student who has completed all course elements with a failing status, has not attended class or for graduating students. The faculty member, in discussion with the student, will establish the conditions that must be met by the student in order for the “I” grade to be converted to a passing grade. A realistic date for the completion of the conditions will be established by the faculty and student and approved by the Associate Dean or Dean as per process. The maximum completion date of the conditions attached is not to exceed 30 days. A request must be made to the Registrar’s Office for an exception to the 30 day maximum. The student will receive written notification of the “I” grade, its attached conditions, and agreed completion date from the faculty member.

Successful completion of the conditions, within the specified time period, will result in the awarding of an official grade. If a new grade is not submitted to the Registrar’s Office by the end of the specified time period, an “F” grade will be posted. A student who has an “I” grade in a course that is pre-requisite to a course in the succeeding term will not be permitted to register in that course. An I grade may be used to provide an extension to a student who is passing and in good standing at the end of the term.

R (Provisional Credit):

Assigned In situations where a student had been successful up until the point of disengagement, but clearly had difficulty based on a situation beyond their control and was unable to meet the minimum learning outcomes for the course. The R grade will remain on the transcript as a permanent grade provision. The R grade will not count against the student’s GPA and allows them to proceed in their program; however; they will need to repeat the course or part of the course in order to fulfill the requirements of the program. The R is not for circumstances where the student was not performing well before the interruption, had not been attending class or had not been in otherwise good standing. An example of where an R grade may be applied would be for a student in good standing who was unable to complete or participate in specific learning, modules or work required to demonstrate competency of specific learning outcomes due to exceptional circumstances but still need to participate in an active learning environment to gain and demonstrate the competencies.

Aegrotat Standing (AG):

Aegrotat standing applies to students whose performance over a significant proportion of the course has been more than satisfactory, but where, because of compelling personal reasons such as documented illness, or exceptional circumstances beyond the students control, the student is unable to complete the course. Aegrotat standing is recommended by the Program Coordinator, approved by the Dean or Associate Dean and submitted to the Registrar's Office. The AG grade will remain on the transcript as a permanent grade provision. The AG grade will not affect the student's grade point and allows them to proceed in their program. The AG is not for circumstances where the student had not been performing well, had not been attending class or had not been in otherwise good standing. An AG may be applied in a situation where a student has become terminally ill but has remained in good standing to that point and demonstrated appropriate competency in meeting the required course outcomes.

IP (In Progress)

Assigned with conditions attached for a student still completing the course. Some circumstances which may result in an "IP" grade being awarded include, a course with a planned continuum from a previous term (courses which run for the whole academic year but final grading does not occur in the first enrollment term) or for pre determined courses where students work at their own pace and may continue their studies in further terms.

7.4 Repeated Courses [rev. Sept. 2022]

All attempts at a course will appear on the student's transcript. The term GPA calculations will include all attempts in the calculation. The Degree GPA will only include the highest grade achieved in the calculation. The Degree GPA will not change after a credential has been conferred if courses are repeated.

7.5 Grade Point Average (GPA) [rev. Sept. 2022]

The Grade Point Average (GPA) is a weighted average. Each course is assigned credits; the number of grade points per course is determined by multiplying the credits by the numeric grade point value of the official grade earned for that course. The grade point total is then divided by the attempted credits. The resultant quotient is the grade point average.

7.6 How GPA is calculated [rev. Sept. 2022]

Each letter grade is assigned a numeric grade point value.

Letter Grades to Grade Points

Numeric Grade	Official Grade	Grade Points
90%-100%	A+	4.00
85%-89%	A	3.90
80%-84%	A-	3.70
77%-79%	B+	3.30
73%-76%	B	3.00
70%-72%	B-	2.70
67%-69%	C+	2.30
63%-66%	C	2.00
60%-62%	C-	1.70
57%-59%	D+	1.30
53%-56%	D	1.00
50%-52%	D-	0.70
0%-49%	F	0.00

Example:

Course(s) Enrolled in	Letter Grade Earned	Grade point Value	Credits	Total Points
ACCT 1	A-	3.7	3	11.1
ECON 1	A	3.9	3	11.7
COMM 10	G	0	0	0
COMP 1	A+	4	2	8
MATH 35	F	0	4	0
MARK 201	B+	3.30	3	9.9
COMM 20	A-	3.7	3	11.1
Totals			18	51.8

Total points are divided by the total credits – $51.8/18 = 2.87$

GPA Graduation with Distinction = GPA must be 3.50 or higher.

Course credits are included in the total credits when an “F” grade is assigned, but total points are 0. An “F” grade lowers the GPA.

Course credits are not included in the total credits when a “G”, “T”, “EX”, “N”, “AG”, “R”, or “IP” administrative grade is assigned. These grades do not affect the GPA.

Note: Only the highest grade achieved in a repeated course is included in the program GPA calculation, while all attempts at the course will appear on the student’s transcript and be included in the term and cumulative GPA calculations

7.7 Recognition of Special Achievement [rev. Sept. 2020]

Governor General’s Academic Medal

Recognizes ONE graduate, across the three campuses, who has achieved the highest grade point average in any diploma program. In the event of a tie, the college will ensure selection is in line with the Canadian Governor General’s Academic Medal Directives.

This status is designated to a degree graduate who has performed at a high academic achievement level with a minimum percentage of 80.

Graduation with Distinction

Graduation with Distinction recognizes superior educational performance and achievement by students in Ontario College Certificate programs, Ontario College Diploma programs, Ontario College Advanced Diploma programs, Ontario Graduate Certificate programs, Ontario Applied Degree programs and St. Lawrence College Certificate programs. To be eligible for such recognition, the student must have successfully completed an approved program of studies and have achieved a grade point average of 3.50 of the required courses.

Graduation with Merit

Graduation with Merit recognizes superior educational performance and achievement by students receiving Statements of Achievement. To be eligible for such recognition, the student must have successfully completed an approved program of study and have achieved a grade point average of 3.50 of the required courses.

President's List

The President's List recognizes graduates who have rendered valuable and distinguished service to the college community. Eligibility is based on academic excellence including graduating with distinction, along with interest and activities involving leadership, citizenship and community service.

Dean's List

Students enrolled in an SLC certificate, diploma, advanced diploma, graduate certificate or degree program (this does not include Laurentian University degrees) who obtain a GPA of 3.50 or higher for an academic year (September-August) will be placed on the Dean's List and will have this noted on their transcripts. To be eligible for the Dean's List the following conditions must be met:

- a) Students must have registered full-time in a diploma or degree program for at least two academic terms during the academic year.
- b) The GPA for the entire academic year will be calculated on a weighted basis, shall include all courses studied and must be 3.50 or higher.

Ontario College Athletic Association (OCAA) All-Academic Award

Presented to a full-time varsity student-athlete who has achieved a grade point average of 3.5 in the required courses.

Canadian College Athletic Association (CCAA) All- Academic Canadian Award

Presented to a full-time varsity student-athlete that has been named to their respective member conference all-star team (1st or 2nd) in a CCAA Sport and achieved a grade point average of 3.5 in the required courses.

8. Ethical Research with Human Subjects [rev. Sept. 2017]

All research involving human subjects requires ethics review and official approval from the College's Research Ethics Board (REB) prior to commencement of the research.

Typical research scenarios calling for REB approval include the following: surveying of staff or students for a course project with low risk (the REB delegates authority for approval to course instructors who must keep a record of their decision-making) ; off-campus surveys by St. Lawrence staff or students; on-campus surveys by external researchers; tests of bodily fluids, cells, or physical endurance tests; formal studies including examinations of humans or requests of humans involving college students, personnel, or facilities in any way; and examinations of student data for purposes other than typical college business or quality assurance.

Typical scenarios not requiring REB approval include investigations not involving human subjects, or performance of standard college business such as course examinations, or quality assurance such as studies of student performance rates.

There are many other research scenarios involving human subjects that arise and for which students and staff are encouraged to seek further guidance for appropriate direction.

See Appendix 2 Ethical Research Involving Humans

See Appendix 3: Research Integrity Policy

9. Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards

9.1 Policy [rev. Sept. 2020]

It is the policy of St. Lawrence College to encourage and recognize the distinguished educational achievement of individual college students and significant contributions made by the students to campus and community life.

Bursaries and Scholarships that are monetary in nature are the responsibility of the Alumni and Development Office. Disbursement is facilitated by Financial Aid on behalf of the College.

The College actively encourages private donors and organizations to participate by establishing and maintaining an ongoing program of monetary and non-monetary support for scholarships, bursaries and awards.

9.2 Scholarship [rev. Sept. 2020]

A scholarship is a specific gift of money to help a person pursue their studies. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic performance. Many donor-sponsored scholarships require an application.

9.3 Bursaries [rev. Sept. 2020]

A bursary is a specific gift of money or other aid to help a person pursue their studies. Most bursaries require an application and they are awarded on the basis of financial need and the applicant's ability to meet the criteria of the award.

The two types of bursaries are as follows:

- 1) Donor-supported bursaries, which are specific in qualifying requirements and amounts and are administered through the Alumni and Development Office; and,

- 2) College-supported bursaries which are the result of government programs designed to meet specific needs and audiences and are administered through Financial Aid, Student Services.

9.4 Awards [rev. Sept. 2020]

Awards are specific gifts, tokens, medals, amounts of money, or other formal recognition awarded to a College student to recognize academic performance, contribution to College or community life, and other achievements that, in the opinion of the College, are worthy of recognition.

The two types of Awards are as follows:

- 1) Donor-supported awards that are primarily monetary in nature and recognize a combination of financial need, academic excellence or other achievements or circumstances identified by the Donor, and may require an application;
- 2) College awards in recognition of academic performance, contribution to College and other achievements that, in the opinion of the College, are worthy of recognition.

9.5 Refusal of Award [rev. Sept. 2020]

Individual students can refuse any award. The refusal must be in writing and submitted to the Alumni and Development Office. In such cases, the College will recognize the next best qualified person unless the terms of the award specifically do not allow this.

10. Graduation and Convocation

10.1 Requirements for Graduation [rev. Sept. 2020]

The recommendation for graduation is determined by the Registrar, on the advice of the Dean or Associate Dean, based on completion of the program. Credentials are awarded in recognition of the attainment of clearly established levels of competence. These levels are defined in terms of program objectives and performance standards (learning outcomes). It is the student's responsibility to be aware of all graduation requirements for the program from which they expect to graduate.

To graduate from a program, the following conditions must be satisfied:

- a) Students are usually required to complete their program within 200% of the normal program duration. For example, a two (2) year program would have a maximum completion timeframe of four (4) years. Failure to complete the program within the timeframe would require the student to have their courses evaluated for currency and would be subject to the curriculum in place at the time of review. The completion timeframe for students who have an approved reduced course load through the Tuition Fee Subsidy Program for Students with Disabilities (TFSPD) is determined on a case-by-case basis by the Program Coordinator in consultation with Student Wellness and Accessibility Services.
- b) Students must meet the Residency Requirement outlined in Section 3.10 Residency Requirement.
- c) Students must have successfully completed the requirements of the program in effect at the time of graduation unless the Dean or Associate Dean has approved alternative arrangements in writing prior to the student's commencement of the last semester of studies. The graduation requirements will include any changes made to advanced semesters while the student is "in progress" in a program but would not include changes in semesters that have already been completed.
- d) Students who interrupt their fulltime studies will be required to meet the program requirements in effect at the time of their return to the College. Students who have interrupted their studies will not be eligible to graduate from a program that is no longer offered by the College. (See also Section 3.7 Re-admission).
- e) Students who completed all program requirements but did not apply to graduate in their graduating term, may apply, via the applicable Academic School (K) or Campus Student Services (B, C) for their credential. Their record will be evaluated and if applicable, a credential will be conferred and dated accordingly.

10.2 Recognition Granted [rev. Sept. 2020]

St. Lawrence College assigns credentials as outlined in 1.1 for all certificates, diplomas, and College degrees, statements of achievement and acknowledgements of participation consistent with the Ontario Qualifications Framework issued by the Ministry of Colleges and Universities.

As a general principle, students completing the same terminal performance objectives shall receive the same credential. Subject to this principle, graduates of programs that lead to a separate and distinct career/occupational field, normally as defined by the National Organizational Classification (NOC), may be recognized by a diploma or certificate.

In recognition of the attainment of a clearly established professional specialization, Academic Council may approve the addition of a descriptor to official College correspondence and documentation.

10.3 Graduation Timelines [rev. Sept. 2020]

Students are usually required to complete their program within 200% of the normal program duration (See Section 10.1). Part-time postsecondary programs have a time limit for completion of 60 months (Some exceptions do apply). Contact individual Academic Departments for more information). Failure to complete a program within these timelines would require a student to apply for re-admission. Students would then have their courses evaluated for currency and would be subject to the program of studies and curriculum in place at the time of re-admission. For students who are resuming studies after a break of two or more academic semesters, the learning plan resulting from their course evaluation must be approved by the Dean or Associate Dean and Registrar. St. Lawrence College does not permit the backdating of diplomas.

10.4 Clearance for Graduation [rev. Sept. 2020]

The recommendation for clearance for graduation happens three times per year, corresponding with the end of each semester: Fall, Winter and Spring/Summer (as published annually in the College's academic calendar). Outside of these times, recommendations will be made only in exceptional circumstances.

10.5 Application to Graduate [rev. Sept. 2020]

Convocation recognizes all graduates of college degree, diploma and certificate programs at the campus where the program requirements were completed. Each graduate's name will appear in the convocation program. To graduate and participate in Convocation ceremonies, students must meet all program requirements and are required to self-identify by completing an Application to Graduate. Instructions are sent by email to all students regarding the application process.

10.6 Valedictorian [rev. Sept. 2020]

"Valedictorian" is an academic title conferred upon a high ranking student within a graduating class. The Valedictorian can be nominated by staff, faculty, fellow students, or they are able to nominate themselves. One Valedictorian may be selected for each Convocation ceremony.

The Valedictorian must:

- demonstrate the highest quality of work in their academic program
- contribute regularly to the College through committees, competitions or other College-sponsored activities
- participate in student organized events and activities
- display a positive attitude

10.7 Awarding of Posthumous Credentials [rev. Sept. 2020]

Background

The death of a student is a particularly tragic situation. Every student at St. Lawrence College is undertaking studies to fulfill a unique potential in their own particular area of academic interest. When their learning is unexpectedly cut short, the loss is always keenly felt by fellow students, staff and faculty, and of course the family and friends of the deceased. The awarding of a posthumous credential may help to ease the sense of loss and sadness of such an occasion for those left behind, while also recognizing and honouring the education that was achieved.

Eligibility Criteria

The College will consider granting a posthumous credential (certificate, diploma or College degree), provided the following:

- Student is enrolled in the final semester of their program and in the opinion of the program faculty, had a high likelihood of achieving the credential being sought.
- Exceptions may be made at the discretion of the Registrar and the Sr. Vice-President, Academic. The student's financial account with the College must be in good standing.

Process

The process is coordinated by the Registrar's Office. The College does not automatically act to award a posthumous credential in the event of a student's death. This process may be initiated by a College faculty or staff member, or by the deceased student's family.

Step 1 - Confirmation of eligibility per criteria above.

Step 2 - Confirmation of interest and desire on the part of the deceased student's family to accept the credential. Family may be contacted by either a program staff or faculty member or by the Registrar.

Step 3 - Credential is produced and where possible presented at the next regular convocation ceremony, accepted by a representative of the family. At the request of the family, the document may be presented privately at a time of their choosing.

Step 4 - Student's name would be included in the next Convocation program booklet and identified as posthumously awarded.

11. Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy

St. Lawrence College has a responsibility to ensure personal information about students is protected, and to facilitate timely public access to information or decision-making of a general nature. Details can be found at: <http://www.stlawrencecollege.ca/about/college-administration/fippa/>

12. Sexual Assault Policy and Protocol [rev. 2019]

This Policy applies to all members of the College community including: employees, governors, students, contractors, suppliers of services, individuals who are directly connected to any College initiatives, volunteers, and visitors.

Purpose and Intent of the Policy [rev. Sept. 2019]

All members of St. Lawrence College community have a right to a work and study in an environment that is free from any form of sexual violence. This document sets out our policy and response protocol to sexual violence and ensures that those who experience sexual violence are believed and their rights respected, that the College has a process of investigation that protects the rights of individuals and holds individuals who have committed an act of sexual violence accountable.

Policy Statement [rev. Sept. 2019]

Sexual assault and sexual violence are unacceptable and will not be tolerated. We are committed to challenging and preventing sexual violence and creating a safe space for anyone in our College community who has experienced sexual violence. The College is expected to be a safe and positive space where members of the College community feel able to work, learn and express themselves in an environment free from sexual violence.

All reported incidents of sexual violence will be investigated to the best of the administration's ability and in a manner that ensures due process. It is this policy's intention to make individuals feel comfortable about making a report in good faith about sexual violence that they have experienced or witnessed.

We recognize that sexual violence can occur between individuals regardless of sexual orientation, gender, and gender identity or relationship status as articulated in the Ontario Human Rights Code. We also recognize that individuals who have experienced sexual violence may experience emotional, academic or other difficulties.

Links to Other Policy:	Minister's Binding Policy Operating Procedure: 3.0 Programs Program Suspension and Cancellation St. Lawrence College Academic Policy Manual

St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources fully accessible to all persons. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request..

BACKGROUND

Definitions:

SEM Committee – Strategic Enrolment Management Committee

CET – College Executive Team

Program – a group of related courses leading to a diploma, certificate, honours degree or other document awarded by the Board of Governors

Suspended Program – a program into which the college has decided not to admit first year or beginning level students

Cancelled Program – a program the college is no longer offering and in which no students are enrolled

Sustainability Review—a process by which the parameters of a program are reviewed in consideration for recommending suspension of intake or cancellation.

Purpose:

The College's program mix is dynamic and made up of a changing group of programs designed to meet student demand, satisfy employer needs and respond to the requirements of industry and the economy. The sustainability of College programming occurs in the context of a continuum that includes new program development, curricular renewal of existing programs, and the discontinuation of programs that are no longer viable. This policy provides the framework for the discontinuation of a program that is required by budgetary factors, changing student interests or needs, changes in SLC's Strategic Mandate Agreement, and/or major shifts in the marketplace. It covers both routine program review based on multiple factors, and accelerated review based on low student applications for a specific intake. This policy includes the college's commitment to students if a program is suspended or cancelled.

Scope:

This policy applies to all programs offered by St. Lawrence College onsite, online and through partner institutions.

This policy does not preclude the cancelation of any one semester intake, nor the postponement of a new program launch, if applications for that particular semester intake are insufficient for financial viability.

The policy does not apply to Local Board Certificate programs.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. The decision to suspend or cancel a program is based on an assessment of a variety of program sustainability factors, including, but not limited to:
 - a. Student application and enrolment trends
 - b. Graduation rate trends
 - c. Student satisfaction trends
 - d. Graduate satisfaction trends
 - e. Graduate employment trends
 - f. Industry trends and directions
 - g. Program Advisory Committee feedback
 - h. College strategic directions
 - i. Program revenue and expenses
 - j. Program Team input
 - k. Campus viability considerations
 - l. Strategic Mandate Agreement
2. It is the responsibility of Dean, in consultation with the Sr. Vice-President, Academic, to annually identify programs that warrant a full examination to determine continued viability. This is typically done in May/June when program costing is released. The decision to recommend a program for Sustainability Review can be made due to any combination of factors listed above.
3. Additionally, it is the responsibility of the Dean, in consultation the Sr. Vice-President, Academic to identify any program, for which the application numbers are insufficient to reasonably result in a viable program intake prior to the 'equal consideration date for admission' date in a given year. An accelerated review decision should be made prior to letters of offer being issued to prospective students.
4. Sustainability Review of Programs may result in the following decisions:
 - a. Sustainable:
 - i. Continue without focused monitoring: sustainability review concludes that for one or more reasons the program should continue. Continue to monitor on a regular basis.
 - ii. Continue with focused monitoring: take care to incorporate recommendations identified during the sustainability review. The focused monitoring period will typically be for one year. The program is monitored and may be identified for suspension.

b. Suspend intake:

- i. Suspend intake while revising program: Work on revision of program for re-launch.
- ii. Suspend intake temporarily due to low application numbers: conduct a full sustainability review prior to any decision to cancel or revise the program.
- iii. Suspend intake and move toward cancelation: phase program out as current students complete their studies

c. Not sustainable—cancel program:

Programs deemed not sustainable may be discontinued to allow for investment in other program areas of strategic interest.

5. In order to avoid or reduce individual hardship resulting from the discontinuation of a program, St. Lawrence College undertakes:

- a. To phase-in any discontinuation in order to allow currently enrolled students in good standing to complete their program through the College;
- b. To give prospective students timely notice that action to discontinue the program has been initiated;
- c. To make every effort to offer students admission to alternative programs, as appropriate;
- d. To inform faculty members in the program as soon as possible when a decision to conduct a full program sustainability review is made;
- e. To inform faculty members of the program as soon as possible of the review outcomes.

MONITORING

It is the responsibility of the Senior Vice President, Academic and the Deans/Associate Deans to ensure adherence to the policy and to interpret the policy.

Owner:	Sr. Vice-President Academic
Approved by:	College Executive Team
Effective Date:	January 2018

Links to Other Policy:

St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources fully accessible to all persons. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

BACKGROUND

Consistent with the Canadian Council on Animal Care's (CCACs) Guidelines and Policies, it is the responsibility of the Animal Care Committee (ACC) to ensure that no live animals affiliated with the academic programs at St. Lawrence College are used or purchased without prior approval of an Animal Use Protocol (AUP).

The CCAC requires that the ACC ensure that all academic courses undergo a pedagogical merit review to evaluate if the use of live animals is essential for meeting the education objectives of the course(s).

Definitions:

Three Rs: The Three Rs tenet (Replacement, Reduction and Refinement) guides educators on the ethical use of animals in science as well as teaching. The concept originated from the scientific community and is now a widely accepted cornerstone of policies on animal-based science and teaching around the world.

Replacement refers to methods which avoid or replace the use of animals in an area where animals would otherwise have been used

Reduction refers to any strategy that will result in fewer animals being used

Refinement refers to the modification of husbandry or experimental procedures to minimize pain and distress

(<http://3rs.ccac.ca/en/about> 2017)

Animal Care Committee (ACC): The keystone of the Canadian system of oversight of the care and use of animals in science is the local institutional animal care committee (ACC) set up by each participating institution according to the CCAC policy statement on: terms of reference for animal care committees. Institutional ACCs are responsible for overseeing all aspects of animal care and use and for working with animal users, animal care personnel and the institutional administration. (CCAC, 2017)

Purpose:

This policy is intended to act as a guide to decision-making about the appropriate, ethical and safe use of live animals in the delivery of academic programs.

Scope:

This policy applies to all live animal-based teaching or training activities conducted by St. Lawrence College faculty and staff including activities on campus and at designated off-campus sites when the activity is related to the delivery of our academic programs.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. St. Lawrence College is committed to the safe and ethical use of animals in science and in delivery of our academic programs.
2. St. Lawrence College upholds a high standard of academic integrity through processes of continuous improvement and quality assurance.
3. St. Lawrence College adheres to the principles of the Three Rs to reduce the use of live animals and minimize the impact on live animals whenever possible while ensuring we provide appropriate experiences for students to meet the stated learning outcomes of our academic programs.
4. The goal of the pedagogical merit process is to determine if the live animal model proposed by the professor is the best learning model in support of the intended learning outcomes.
5. All teaching and training activities that require a live animal use protocol must undergo a pedagogical merit review.
6. The ACC has the final decision with regard to animal involvement in teaching and training protocols. The ACC will review the final protocol, the conclusions of the merit review process and determine if animal involvement is ethical and acceptable practice.

MONITORING

The policy will be reviewed following any change to the Canadian Council on Animal Care policy statement on pedagogical merit of live animal-based teaching and training and/or a minimum of every four years and for every new teaching and training course using live animals.

APPENDIX A PEDAGOGICAL MERIT REVIEW PROCESS

Appendix A – Pedagogical Merit Review Process

St. Lawrence College follows the Pedagogical Merit review Process Flowchart outlined by the CCAC illustrated in Figure 1. Explicit steps are as follows.

P1 Professors will identify course learning outcomes, assessment methods and learning activities in the course outline and learning plan. Course Outlines and learning plans will be submitted to the Associate Dean of Applied Science and Computing.

P2 Professors will complete the SLC live animal use pedagogical merit review form. (SLCPMR) outlining the requirement for use of live animals, and the assessment requirements.

P3 The Associate Dean of Applied Science and Computing will pass on all outlines, learning plans and protocols for courses with live animal use to the Pedagogical Merit Live Animal Use Review Committee. (PMRC). The PMRC consists of Two independent referees - a faculty member from the Vet Tech or VA program with knowledge of alternatives to live animal based teaching and the Associate Dean of Health Science/or School of Contemporary Teaching and Learning with knowledge of pedagogy.

The course outline and learning plan will be reviewed in conjunction with the Pedagogical Merit Review form as developed by the CCAC and the SLCPMR

P4 The reviewers will consider the following key aspects:

- Are the learning outcomes clear and specify the involvement of live animals?
- Do the learning outcomes specify the proportion of the outcome that must be achieved and/or how well the behavior must be performed (accuracy, speed, quality)?
- Are the composition, learning level and needs of the student group(s) compatible with the goals and objectives of the animal-based teaching/training?
- Is the timing of the inclusion of animals in the teaching/training suitable for the projected timing of the expected outcomes(s)?
- Is this the best learning method for the students?
- Are the criteria proposed for assessing the completed animal-based teaching/training suitable and will it contribute to optimization of this use of animals for the benefit of future student?

P5 The reviewers will complete their documentation and if they agree that the proposed use of live animals is justified and reasonable the Associate Dean will approve the detailed course outline and learning plan and indicate the approval to the course developer / professor.

P6 If the reviewers recommend changes, the Associate Dean will follow-up with the course developer / professor and provide feedback on what needs to be changed. The outline and learning plan must then be resubmitted for consideration before approval.

P7 All Decisions of the reviewers are documented in summary form and sent to the ACC Coordinator to be shared with the ACC on an annual basis.

PEDAGOGICAL MERIT REVIEW FORM

Sample Form

A number of elements factor into deciding if animal-based teaching or training has pedagogical merit. For the purposes of the policy, the goal of this review is to determine if the live animal model proposed by the instructor is the best learning model in support of intended learning outcomes. In other words, is the involvement of live animals essential, or can replacement alternatives, either absolute (non-animal model such as a mannequin or computer model) or relative (such as eggs, cell cultures, tissues, or animals that current expert peer advice and interpretation of scientific evidence indicate have a significantly lower potential for pain perception, such as some invertebrates), be used.

Please answer the following questions and document your conclusion. In order to perform the review, learning outcomes, learning assessment methods, and learning activities must be provided by the instructor.

St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources fully accessible to all persons. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

BACKGROUND

St. Lawrence College is committed to creating a welcoming, barrier-free, inclusive learning environment. This commitment applies to all aspects of learning: classroom, laboratory, online, and placement requirements, as well as attitudinal beliefs. The College affirms the rights of prospective and current students with disabilities to have equitable access to educational opportunities and, when necessary, provides appropriate academic accommodations, to the point of undue hardship.

Definitions:

Academic Accommodation (hereafter referred to only as "accommodation"):

- Educational practices, systems, and support services designed to equalize the opportunity of a person with a disability in meeting essential requirements of applying for or achieving the documented learning outcomes of a course or program
- Extends distinctly beyond a standard level of service provided for the general population
- Will be considered appropriate if it will provide an equitable opportunity to attain the same level of performance, or to enjoy the same level of educational benefits experienced by others

Interim Accommodation: An accommodation that is provided to a student who is waiting for documentation to verify a disability from a regulated health care practitioner. The period of time for which interim accommodations are provided depends on a number of factors, including the availability of health care practitioners in the community, the location of the student's health care practitioner and the time it takes for a diagnosis to be made.

Permanent Accommodation: An accommodation that is provided to a student who is expected to have functional limitations for the duration of the period of study based on documentation provided from a regulated health care practitioner.

Retroactive Accommodation: An accommodation that is provided to a student after an evaluation has taken place or a course is completed, as the result of identified functional limitations that existed at the time of the evaluation of which the student was previously unaware or that interfered with their ability to follow typical processes and procedures.

Temporary Accommodation: An accommodation that is provided to a student who has functional limitations for a limited period of time based on assessment and/or the documentation provided from a regulated health care practitioner, as required by Counselling & AccessAbility Services

Disability: As defined by the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (2005) and the Ontario Human Rights Code (1990), a disability is:

- a) Any degree of physical disability, infirmity, malformation or disfigurement that is caused by bodily injury, birth defect or illness
- b) A condition of mental impairment or a developmental disability
- c) A learning disability, or a dysfunction in one or more of the processes involved in understanding or using symbols or spoken language
- d) A mental disorder, or
- e) An injury or disability for which benefits were claimed or received under the insurance plan established under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act (1997).

Functional Limitations: identified area(s) of challenge, caused by a disability that may affect academic performance and are used to identify appropriate accommodations

Undue Hardship: Under the Ontario Human Rights Code (1990), the College, as a post-secondary educational institution, is required to accommodate students with disabilities to the point of undue hardship. In the test for undue hardship, three considerations apply:

- i. The cost of providing the accommodation;
- ii. The availability of outside sources of funding, if any; and
- iii. Health and safety requirements, if applicable.

The onus of proof to demonstrate undue hardship is the responsibility of the College and not the student requesting accommodation. Inconvenience, faculty and student morale, third party preferences, and collective agreements are not relevant in the test of undue hardship.

Purpose:

To outline definitions, responsibilities, and procedures that apply to the provision of academic accommodations for prospective and current students with disabilities that complies with the requirements of all relevant legislation.

Scope:

This policy applies to all qualified prospective and current students who self-identify as having a disability and are registered with Counselling & AccessAbility Services. It applies to all full-time or part-time programs/courses, in the classroom, laboratory, online, and/or on placement

POLICY STATEMENTSGuiding Principles:

1. The College is committed to creating an accessible learning environment and strives to eliminate attitudinal, academic, and physical barriers that hinder the academic success of students with disabilities.
2. The College is committed to treating all students with dignity and respect and promoting their full participation and inclusion within the College learning community.
3. The College affirms that academic accommodations for students with documented disabilities are a right, not a privilege
4. The College further affirms its commitment to the following principles:
 - Dignity – Treating students with disabilities as valued and as deserving of effective service as any other student, and ensuring they are free from the control or influence of others and permitted to make their own choices.
 - Individualization – Ensuring that each student with a disability is treated as a unique individual with unique accommodation needs.
 - Inclusion – Ensuring students with disabilities are provided with opportunities to benefit fully from the same services, provided in the same place and in the same or similar manner as all other students.
 - Full Participation – Ensuring that students with disabilities have the same or similar choices, options, and benefits as all other students

Policy Statements:

1. Students with disabilities are encouraged to self-identify with St. Lawrence College's Counselling & AccessAbility Services as early as possible to allow for the development and implementation of appropriate academic accommodations in a timely manner
2. In accordance with the Ontario Human Rights Commission, students are not required to provide a diagnosis to receive academic accommodations or other support services. Please note that there may be external funding sources that require the provision of a diagnosis
3. The academic accommodation process is an internal one; information about accommodations provided to students with disabilities does not appear on any official document provided by the College, such as the credential achieved (e.g. certificate, diploma, degree), transcripts, grade reports, recommendations for scholarships, agency bursaries, or references to other post-secondary institutions

4. The duty to accommodate does not require the College to fundamentally alter admission standards or essential program outcome requirements. To graduate with an academic credential from St. Lawrence College, all students must meet the academic standards set by the College
5. Academic accommodations do not alter the need for students to demonstrate essential skills and abilities, however, the manner in which they are demonstrated may be altered
6. Students with disabilities must meet all documented course learning outcomes and program requirements, which in some cases limits the types of accommodations that can be provided by the College to a student with a documented disability
7. In some circumstances, the functional limitations experienced by a student with a disability, or the related accommodations, may represent a potential risk to the health and safety of others. The College has an obligation to consider the health and safety of all students, College staff, and members of the public in assessing what accommodations can be provided to a student

Responsibilities:

Responsibilities of the Student:

- Register with Counselling and AccessAbility Services to request accommodations. Since all accommodation planning is individualized and collaborative, advance notice is important to allow for the development and implementation of appropriate academic accommodations in a timely manner
- Inform Counsellor/AccessAbility Advisor if placement accommodations are also being requested
- Meaningfully collaborate with the College at all steps of the accommodation process. Where a student does not collaborate with the College, for example, by not providing additional documentation from a regulated health care practitioner, the College may be unable to provide or continue to provide appropriate accommodations to the student
- Provide the necessary documentation from a regulated health care practitioner that verifies that the student has a disability and outlines the functional limitations associated with the disability. If needed, the College provides a form for this purpose (see Specific Links)
- Initiate discussions about accommodation needs with Counselling and AccessAbility Services staff members, and, with consent, faculty as needed, for academic accommodations
- Similarly, initiate discussions with Counselling and AccessAbility Services staff members, and, with consent, Program Coordinator or designate, for placement based accommodations
- Contact Counselling and AccessAbility Services immediately if a concern arises about the implementation of an accommodation.
- Seek guidance from Counselling and AccessAbility Services regarding possible appeal options if an accommodation concern is not resolved informally
- If requested by the College, participate in meetings with a view to developing the most appropriate accommodations that meet the student's accommodation needs, as well as the requirements of the program
- Provide updated documentation as requested by Counselling & AccessAbility Services.

- Notify Counselling & AccessAbility Services when the student would like the Accommodation Letter revised and/or renewed
- For students requiring placement accommodations, provide Worksite Placement Supervisor with copy of Placement Accommodation Letter

Responsibilities of Counselling and AccessAbility Services:

- Act as the primary support hub for students with disabilities. Provide information about the accommodation process and available support services
- Meaningfully consider all requests for accommodations (interim, permanent, retroactive, and temporary)
- Request and review documentation to support accommodation needs, as per College requirements
- Assess the student's need for accommodation based on supporting documentation of functional limitations and strengths, on input from the student, and on professional judgement. Similarly, these same criteria will be used to determine the type of accommodation (interim, permanent, retroactive, or temporary)
- Provide eligible students with an Accommodation Letter outlining the accommodation plan. Forward Accommodation Letters to faculty unless otherwise directed by the student
- For students requiring placement accommodations, provide student with a Placement Accommodation Letter. Forward Placement Accommodation Letter to College Placement Supervisor or designate unless otherwise directed by the student
- Facilitate access to specialized accessibility services, funding options, and other internal and external resources
- Act as a resource to faculty members on accommodation issues. Respond to faculty members' accommodation questions and address any concerns.
- Liaise with faculty members, administrators, Program Coordinators, and (if applicable) College Faculty Placement Supervisors, as needed. When it is identified that an accommodation interferes with a stated essential learning outcome, work towards an alternative accommodation (when possible) that is agreeable to all parties.
- Provide formal appeal information and support to students when informal negotiations fail to meet accommodation needs.
- Protect each student's right to privacy and confidentiality, including securely storing and maintaining students' disability-related information.

Responsibilities of College Faculty & Staff:

- Advise students of accommodation support services and how they can be accessed.
- Accept requests for accommodation in good faith and without prejudice. Recognize that the academic accommodation process is a right for students with disabilities, and that the College is legally required to accommodate to the point of undue hardship.

- Include information regarding students rights to accommodations on all course outlines, all placement-related course outlines and program placement handbooks
- Accommodate students with disabilities in accordance with the Accommodation Letter unless an accommodation interferes with a stated essential learning outcome, in which case, contact Counselling and AccessAbility Services immediately and participate in designing an alternative accommodation that is suitable to all parties, when possible.
- As needed, work collaboratively with students, Counselling and Accessibility Services staff, other college faculty and/or staff, placement sites and/or external partners to determine appropriate accommodations that meet essential academic and placement requirements and standards, and protect the dignity of the student
- Respect each student's right to privacy; do not ask students to provide information about the nature of their disability
- Respect each student's right to confidentiality; keep accommodation-related information secure and do not share this information with others without consent from the student

MONITORING

All areas of the College are accountable for ensuring that the principles of accessibility and equity outlined in this policy are upheld. However, it is the responsibility of the Vice-President of Student Services and Human Resources to ensure that this policy is reviewed every three years, and more often if required, to ensure adherence to developing law.

Cheating – includes, but is not limited to: the use or possession of an unauthorized aid(s) during any form of evaluation; giving or receiving any unauthorized assistance in any evaluation; collaborating on work when instructed to work independently; providing others with information or material for tests or assignments that would provide them an unfair advantage in a test or assignment; re-submitting work that was submitted and graded for another course/credit without explicit permission of the faculty involved.

Copyright Infringement – failure to comply with the laws regarding copyright, trademark and licensing agreements pertaining to the use of print materials, software, databases, etc. and/or failure to comply with the College's copyright policy.

Fabrication or Misrepresentation of research – improper research practice such as dishonest reporting of results; using research results of others without permission or acknowledgement; misrepresentation or selective reporting of research results or methods used.

Forging or Falsification of Information– forging, altering, falsifying or misrepresenting any document or electronic communication including an academic record, academic credential/qualification, medical note, letter of recommendation, etc. Changing or altering the work, lab data or grade(s) of another student, or changing grades or answers on an evaluation for purpose of regrading. This includes providing false or misleading materials to meet Admissions requirements.

Impersonation – misrepresentation of one’s identity through taking a test or assessment for another person or allowing someone to take a test or assessment for you.

Intentionally damaging the work of another – destroying or altering the work of another individual/group including the destruction, damage, theft, disposal or holding/hiding of library resources.

Plagiarism – is the misrepresentation of someone’s work as one’s own including words, images, ideas, designs, phrases, computer code or computations. Specific examples may include but are not limited to:

- Submitting work with misleading references, fabricated references, or data that do not reflect the sources you actually used
- Not giving credit for work that was done collaboratively

Procurement – buying, selling, and/or otherwise assisting to obtain a test, report, essay, assignment or other academic work for submission. Obtaining, distributing, receiving or sharing of test/exam questions in advance of its administration without permission from the professor Support Person—a person who attends a college meeting with a student, functioning as an observer, at the student’s request. Support persons are not entitled to speak on behalf of the student.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to:

1. Protect the integrity and reputation of St. Lawrence College's academic credentials by ensuring that grades accurately reflect actual student work.
2. Outline the responsibility of every member of the college community to be familiar with the policies, procedures and expectations to uphold academic integrity and conduct themselves in an honest and trustworthy manner.
3. Foster a culture of academic integrity through education, trust and respect.
4. Identify that academic misconduct will be taken very seriously and clarify the disciplinary action that will be taken in response to acts of academic misconduct.

Scope:

This policy applies to all members of the St. Lawrence College community including applicants, students and employees and includes all activities and interactions related to any academic environments including classes, labs, online, library and test centers, placement/co-op/clinical work, research and learning management system. The policy also applies to all students of the Laurentian University programs offered at St. Lawrence College up to the point of suspension or expulsion, at which point the policies of Laurentian are followed.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. All members of the St. Lawrence College community are responsible for upholding the highest standards of academic integrity. Individuals and groups must act to uphold the values of fairness, honesty, trust, respect and responsibility. This includes being vigilant regarding their respective roles and responsibilities when academic misconduct occurs.
2. The College recognizes that the concepts of academic integrity vary across different cultures and it will make available training on Western definitions and concepts of academic integrity which students are expected to follow. The College is committed to supporting students to develop acceptable standards of academic integrity as part of the fundamental aspects of the learning process. In turn, students are expected to only claim credit for their own ideas, writing, projects and creations. Students will give due recognition when using the work of others and will not attempt to gain unfair academic advantage in any graded or ungraded academic work.
3. The College is committed to supporting faculty to teach and promote acceptable standards of academic integrity by providing training and resources to teach skills and reduce the opportunities for academic misconduct to occur in written work, tests and other forms of evaluations. Faculty members are encouraged to make efforts to limit opportunities for academic misconduct and to be vigilant and responsive to any signs of possible misconduct and respond in accordance with this policy and the related procedures.
4. Suspected incidents of academic misconduct by any student (or applicant) will be investigated thoroughly and resolved in accordance with principles of procedural fairness. Specifically, anyone accused of misconduct has a right to (1) know the details of the case against them; (2) have the fair opportunity to be heard and respond to the allegations; (3) bring a support person to meetings; and (4) receive a written summary of the decision.

5. Confirmed incidents of academic misconduct will be subject to applicable sanctions that will be applied in accordance with the severity and frequency of the offence as per this policy's corresponding procedures.
6. The Academic Integrity Policy is available widely and communicated to students in a number of different ways. A lack of awareness of the Academic Integrity Policy and/or procedure is not an acceptable explanation for misconduct.
7. To support academic integrity and honesty at St. Lawrence College all work submitted by students may be reviewed for authenticity and originality utilizing software tools and/or third party services. In submitting their work, students consent to their submission undergoing such review and being retained in a database.

APPENDIX A AND ATTACHMENTS

Procedures:

1. Faculty identifies or is informed of a possible academic misconduct and communicates via email with the student that an academic offence incident has likely occurred. This email will invite the student to meet to discuss the situation. This email should be sent within three days of discovering the potential infraction.
2. The student has three business days to respond from the date the faculty communication was sent. If the student fails to respond or refuses to meet, the faculty member will forward the material to the Associate Dean, as outlined in Point 5.
3. The faculty member meets with the student to discuss the incident. This conversation should include an explanation of why this incident appears to involve misconduct. As well, the faculty member will advise the student of the proposed sanction and the outcome.
4. If the faculty member determines that there has been no intentional or deliberate misconduct, the matter is dismissed and the meeting serves as an advisement to the student.
5. If the faculty member determines that academic misconduct has occurred, the faculty member electronically completes the Academic Misconduct Report Form including contextual information and a proposed sanction (i.e. Additional Information). The faculty member will also assign a temporary grade, as per the proposed sanction, subject to review by the Associate Dean. The faculty member emails the form to the Associate Dean. This temporary grade cannot be appealed until the Academic Misconduct review process has been completed.

6. The Associate Dean reviews the materials submitted by the professor to determine misconduct. In the case of misconduct, the Associate Dean electronically completes Part I of the Academic Misconduct Form and emails it to the Registrar's Office to review for an offence history. If no misconduct, the Associate Dean will review the temporary grade and make changes, as necessary.
7. The Registrar's Office reviews the student's record, identifies any offence history, and provides any details of previous offences (including sanctions given) on Part II of the form. This form is returned to the Associate Dean for completion.
8. The Associate Dean reviews the offence history and determines the applicable sanction. The Associate Dean invites the student to meet to discuss the offence and the outcome. If the student brings new information to that meeting, the Associate Dean can revise the outcome and/or investigate further, as needed. If the student declines a meeting, the Associate Dean can consider the matter closed and move on to Point 9.
9. The Associate Dean completes Part III of the report, digitally signing and emailing copies to the student, the faculty member, and the Registrar's Office.

P1 Immediate Response to Suspected Academic Misconduct

All members of the college, including students, have a duty to uphold academic integrity and report suspected incidents of misconduct. Any witness to an incident of academic misconduct is responsible for reporting the incident to the course faculty member, program coordinator or Associate Dean.

If a faculty member and/or other college representative has good reason to suspect academic misconduct, they will refer to the Academic Integrity Policy in discussion with the student, identify the suspected infraction of the policy and may retain any materials such as unauthorized aids, examination, suspect assignment, etc. to assist in further investigation as needed.

If the misconduct is detected during a formal assessment, the faculty/college representative may ask the student to leave the test/exam room immediately and collect any work completed to that point.

P2 Investigation of Academic Misconduct

Suspected incidence(s) of academic dishonesty will be addressed within 5 working days.

If there is suspicion of academic dishonesty, without conscious or deliberate intent, the college representative—in most cases a faculty member—will communicate with the student as soon as possible and advise the student of the expectations to uphold academic integrity.

If a faculty member and/or other college representative believes there is evidence that academic misconduct requiring a formal response has occurred, they will collect any relevant evidence/material, and carry out the appropriate sanction. The summarized details of the incident will be recorded using the Academic Misconduct Form (see Attachment A) and submitted to the appropriate Associate Dean.

If there is reasonable evidence to indicate that academic misconduct has occurred, the student has the right to be informed of the allegations of academic misconduct and to be heard by the decision-maker before any final decision is made. If sanctions are being considered, the student will be given the full particulars of the allegation and any related evidence and be given an opportunity to meet with the decision-maker so they may fully respond to the allegations and provide any additional evidence which the student may have which may exonerate the student before a final decision is made. The student(s) have a right to bring someone to any meetings for their personal support.

A decision based on the facts should be reached concerning any sanctions within 5 business days following investigation of the incident.

If it is concluded that no academic misconduct has occurred, the decision should be communicated in writing to the student.

If during the course of the investigation, the decision maker determines that an allegation of misconduct was false and was made with malicious intent, the person who brought forward the allegation may be subject to sanctions.

Decisions regarding sanctions will be determined in accordance with procedure P3.

P3 Sanctions

A first occurrence of minor misconduct, or an incident which is thought to have been committed without conscious or deliberate intent, may be dealt with by way of an advisement/verbal warning. In such situations, the faculty member or other college official should take care to determine that the student(s) fully understand(s) what constitutes academic misconduct at St. Lawrence College. Subsequent occurrences of academic misconduct by the student will be interpreted as conscious, deliberate acts and are subject to the sanctions outlined in this policy.

In subsequent incidents, where a student(s) has been found to have breached the Academic Integrity Policy by engaging in academic misconduct, the College may impose one or more of the following sanctions.

Sanctions for academic misconduct will be appropriate to the nature and seriousness of the offence and in consideration of the student's offence history. Minor offences, such as lack of proper citations in a paper, and first time offences warrant less severe sanctions than if the offence is a major infraction of academic integrity such as stealing a test or submitting someone else's work as their own. Repeated offences will result in an escalation of sanctions. Sanctions can be determined by different levels of authority. Course level sanctions are normally imposed by the appropriate faculty member in consultation with academic management or other staff. All other sanctions are normally imposed by the appropriate Associate Dean in consultation with faculty. Any decision to suspend or expel a student requires consultation with the Sr. Vice President Academic or designate.

Sanctions may include one or a combination of the following:

- Advisement
Review the policy and advise the student of the expectations to uphold academic integrity when there is a strong suspicion of academic misconduct.
- Written Warning
Provide a written warning or reprimand when academic misconduct of a minor nature has taken place and it is a first offence.
- Resubmission
Resubmission of an assignment or an alternative assignment can be required. The faculty member or Associate Dean can limit the grade that can be achieved for a resubmitted or alternate assignment.
- Academic Integrity Training
Requirement for student to complete training or work with student service providers to develop strategies to maintain academic integrity.
- Failing Grade for piece of work
Assign a grade of zero for the assignment, test or other academic work with no opportunity to resubmit. Depending on the value of the evaluation component, this action could result in a failing grade for the course.
- Failing Grade for course
Assign a grade of zero for the course in which the offence was committed.
- Behavioural Contract
A signed agreement between a student and the College which specifies the conditions which must be met and adhered to by the student to return to class, placement or academic activity.
- Suspension from the College†
 - Short-term suspension of 1-5 business days from program of study. Student may have to adhere to specific conditions to return.
 - Long-term suspension for remainder of semester and up to one year. This sanction will usually result in automatic failing grades in courses where there was academic misconduct and no fees will be refunded for that semester. The opportunity to receive a "W" (Withdrawn) will be forfeited. Student may have to adhere to specific conditions to return.
- Expulsion from the College†
Immediate termination of the student's contractual relationship with the College which excludes the student from all college programs, courses and activities. An automatic failing (F or no grade) grade of zero (0%) will be reflected on the student's transcript for all courses in which the student is registered and no fees will be refunded. A permanent negative service indicator will be placed on the student's internal record with a notation for the reason for expulsion. "Required to Withdraw" will be permanently noted on the student's transcript.

Students who have been expelled from the College as a result of academic misconduct will not be allowed to re-apply or be re-admitted to any St. Lawrence College program or course for a period of three years.

Criminal Acts - some forms of academic misconduct (e.g. theft and impersonation) may constitute criminal acts which are liable to criminal prosecution independent of and in addition to possible sanction under this policy.

† Suspension and Expulsion are carried out by the AD/CD, but require consultation with the Sr. Vice President Academic or designate.

*Students of Laurentian University programs follow the SLC academic integrity policy first, up to the point of suspension or expulsion at which point they follow the LU policy.

P4 Appealing a Decision/Sanction

Decisions made under this policy may be appealed by the student following the Academic Appeal Policy and procedures. If the decision or sanction was made by the faculty member, the appeal process starts at Step 1. If the decision/sanction was made by the Associate Dean, the appeal process starts at Step 2 with a designate of the Senior Vice-President Academic.

P5 Record of Offences

The student will be provided a copy of the Academic Integrity Misconduct form (see Attachment A) which will serve as written notice of the decision, the specific sanction if any, the potential consequences of any repeated offences and the right to appeal the decision.

After the opportunity for appeal has elapsed, the Associate Dean is responsible for submitting a copy of the Academic Integrity Misconduct form to the Registrar's Office where a centralized Academic Integrity Misconduct file will be maintained and used to verify whether a student has a previous record of academic misconduct. All incidents of academic misconduct, including those that resulted in an advisement or written warning must be reported to the Registrar's Office.

Investigations that determine there was no evidence of academic misconduct will not be reported to the Registrar's Office. Repeated acts of academic misconduct are subject to escalating sanctions. The record of offences is permanent.

The Registrar's Office will prepare a statistical report annually, summarizing information on the number and types of offences reported in the Academic Misconduct Forms submitted by Associate Deans.

Effective Date:	September 2022

Links to Other Policy:

St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources fully accessible to all persons. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

BACKGROUND

Definitions:

Academic Appeal Committee: The Director of Wellness, Accessibility & Student Success, or designate, will choose a Level Three Appeal Committee, as needed to provide an independent, internal review of academic appeal decisions in order to ensure that College policy and procedures have been followed, and that fairness has been achieved in arriving at the decision in question. The Appeal Committee acts within the limits of the College's mandate and existing policy

Assigned Dean: At Level Two, Formal Appeal, a Dean, Associate Dean, or designate from outside the student's Academic School and Academic portfolio will be chosen to hear the appeal.

Day / Business Day: For the purpose of this policy, "day" means any day that includes Monday to Friday, excluding holidays, as defined in the St. Lawrence College academic calendar.

Dean: An academic administrator who oversees the student's program of study. For the purpose of this document, "Dean" may refer to a Dean, an Associate Dean, or a Campus Dean who oversees the Academic School the student belongs to.

Faculty Member: For the purposes of this document, the faculty member may be a professor, a placement supervisor, or a preceptor, that is an employee or agent of the College.

Student: For the purpose of the Academic Appeal Policy, a student is anyone who is currently enrolled in a program or course of study or who was enrolled in the previous semester. This includes students enrolled in OntarioLearn courses and students registered in partnership programs between other post-secondary schools and St. Lawrence College.

Support Person: While not required, a support person may be chosen by a student involved in an appeal. The support person will not be permitted to advocate for or speak on behalf of the student. The use of an interpreter or accessibility support person is permitted and treated as separate and apart from the role of a support person.

Written Notification: Personal communication to the student of an academic decision may take the form of a hard copy or electronic form (includes a transcript, college email, Blackboard or other course management program posting).

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to outline the expectations of the student, faculty and staff with respect to the steps that must be taken should a student feel an academic decision was not fair or accurate. Academic appeals provide a mechanism for reasonable review of academic decisions. Students at St. Lawrence College have the right to a positive, enriching learning environment where learning outcomes are impartially assessed using evidence-based teaching methodology and where academic decisions are made in a manner that is free of bias, prejudice, unfairness or other inappropriate personal or systemic influences.

St. Lawrence College is responsible for maintaining standards that promote academic integrity and student success. The St. Lawrence College Academic Appeals Policy is based upon the concept of collegiality and seeks to find common ground and build consensus leading to a mutually satisfactory resolution. Should a student perceive that their learning experience or an academic decision has not been fair or accurate, the faculty and staff share a common interest in resolving the dispute in a professional, transparent, and timely manner through the academic appeal process outlined in this policy.

A student may appeal an academic decision when the grounds for appeal outlined in this policy are met.

Scope:

This policy applies to all students registered with St. Lawrence College including OntarioLearn students and students registered in partnership programs between Laurentian University and St. Lawrence College. Concerns related to the provision of academic accommodations are not covered through this policy; students with questions, concerns or complaints regarding their academic accommodations should consult with Student Wellness & Accessibility. Matters relating to non-academic misconduct are addressed under the College's Student Code of Conduct policy. In some cases, there may be multiple proceedings, if appropriate.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. There are three primary grounds for appeal under which a student may launch an appeal:
 - Merit of work (e.g., An assessment which may have been unfairly graded, Academic Misconduct allegation)

- Personal or compassionate reasons (e.g., Unforeseen significant event or circumstance which affected the ability of the student to meet course requirements); and
 - Course outline and/or testing discrepancy (e.g., Management of course shows significant departure from course outline)
2. All appeals must adhere to at least one of the following criteria:
- Individual academic decisions only (i.e., not final grades);
 - Academic decisions which have no numeric grade (i.e., Requirements Met/Requirements Not Met); and/or
 - Academic decisions pertaining to probation or withdrawal.
3. The academic appeal process at St. Lawrence College includes three levels:
- Level One – Faculty Decision Review
 - Level Two – Formal Academic Appeal
 - Level Three – Procedural Appeal

Level One, Faculty Decision Review

The Level One, Faculty Decision Review, is an initial, less formal process involving direct dialogue between the student and the faculty member who issued the grade. The student is responsible for initiating this process within five (5) business days of receiving Written Notification of the grade. Level One is intended to allow for constructive dialogue between the parties to attempt to resolve the issue under consideration. With the agreement of both parties, a member of the Student Rights & Responsibilities Office (SRRO) will attend this meeting to support the resolution process.

Level Two, Formal Academic Appeal

If there is no agreeable resolution at Level One, the student may initiate the Level Two, Formal Academic Appeal by indicating their intent to move forward to the SRRO. The SRRO reviews the appeal to ensure it meets criteria, and if so, the student pays an administrative fee and an Assigned Dean is appointed to hear the appeal. Level Two is a structured, formal process where an Assigned Dean: reviews all documentation submitted by the student and faculty member; reviews all relevant documentation including program manual, policies, course outline, placement guides, clinical handbooks, or any other relevant documents; hears rationale from both parties; consults with the program Dean and attempts to identify a resolution (See Appendix A for detailed procedures).

A student may request a rehearing at Level Two if new documentation or information becomes available that, through no fault of the student, was not available at the time that the Level Two appeal was heard. An appeal can be re-opened under this condition as long as the student is still active in the program in which the appeal originated.

Level Three, Procedural Appeal

Decisions at Level Two are binding unless the student believes a procedural error has occurred in the appeal process which warrants a third level review. Level Three appeals are reviewed by the SRRO for eligibility. In most cases, the appeal process is complete at Level Two, however a Level Three appeal may be initiated when one of the following conditions are met:

- A substantial procedural error occurred during the Level Two, Formal Academic Appeal Process.
- The sanctions imposed through an academic decision, and upheld at Level Two, are perceived to be unreasonable or substantially disproportionate to the circumstances or offence.

Level Three appeals are heard by an Academic Appeal Committee. The Committee is responsible for reviewing, and providing a judgement on, whether College policy and procedures were followed, and reasonably applied, in arriving at an academic decision. Decisions rendered by the Academic Appeal Committee are final.

4. Whenever possible, the Academic Appeal Procedure hearings will take place on the campus from which the appeal originated. Parties involved in the appeal reserve the right to utilize telephone or video conferencing such as Microsoft Teams.
5. It is the responsibility of the student, faculty and Dean to initiate each phase of the appeal process within established timelines as outlined in Appendix A, Procedures. If the student does not initiate a step within the stated timelines, the appeal will be considered abandoned. If a faculty member or Dean does not follow stated timelines, a student may progress to a Level Three – Procedural Appeal. Formal timelines may be extended with agreement from all parties.
6. If a matter under appeal is being heard through another internal review mechanism or is taken to an agency outside the College for resolution, the College may suspend the Academic Appeal Procedure. If necessary, an appeal can be continued at the conclusion of the other process, if the student is not satisfied with the resolution.
7. A student is allowed to have a support person present at any level of the appeal process. The support person will not be permitted to advocate for or speak on behalf of the student. The use of an interpreter or accessibility support person is permitted and treated as separate and apart from the role of a support person.
8. If a student is launching an appeal due to medical or disability-related accommodations, the appeal will be suspended and referred to Student Wellness & Accessibility for review. All medical documentation should be received and stored within Student Wellness & Accessibility.
9. Group appeals may be pursued by students who participated in a group assignment/assessment and received the same grade. All group members must agree to pursue the appeal and sign the appeal form.

Appeals launched by one member of a group project without the consensus of all members will not be accepted. A group appeal may be made following the same process as an individual appeal.

10. While an appeal is in process, the student may continue in the course, program of study or placement and clinical unless prohibited by the Dean in cases where there are issues of liability, safety or the learning of others may be at risk.
11. Students and faculty may access the Student Rights & Responsibilities Office at any point in the appeal process for guidance. The role of the SRRO is to provide unbiased guidance on process. The SRRO will not advocate on either faculty or students' behalf.
12. Once an appeal is granted and the student accepts the resolution, the appeal process is complete. The student may decline a Level One alternate resolution proposed by the faculty and opt to move to Level Two, Formal Appeal.
13. If a student accepts an appeal outcome and completes a re-assessment or supplemental test (for example) and performs poorly, they cannot launch a new appeal, nor appeal the outcome.
14. If a Level One appeal is granted, while there is no guarantee of successful outcome, the approach to resolution determined between faculty and student must be unbiased, intrinsically equitable and cannot result in academic disadvantage.
15. Supporting documentation should accompany appeal submissions
16. See AC832 Procedures for additional information.

MONITORING

Student Affairs and the Student Rights & Responsibilities Office will be responsible for evaluating the effectiveness of this policy and its implementation.

To initiate an appeal, a student must first submit an Academic Appeal Form (available on SLC.me and the St. Lawrence College Website) to the faculty member and schedule a Faculty Decision Review meeting with the faculty member who issued the grade. The appeal must be launched within five (5) days of receiving Written Notification of the grade. - iii. This meeting must occur within five (5) days of the student contacting the professor. Timelines may be extended with the agreement of both parties.
The student must submit the completed Academic Appeal Form and relevant documentation prior to this meeting. It is the student's responsibility to substantiate their grounds for appeal following the guidelines in the Academic Appeal Policy.
It is expected that both parties will make reasonable efforts to resolve the concern at this step. If requested by either party, a member of the SRRO can be present as a neutral facilitator.
- iv. Following the meeting, the faculty member will complete Section A of the Academic Appeal Form (Faculty Decision Review) and return it to the student via email within three (3) days, copying the SRRO for tracking purposes. Arrangements for any supplemental assessments and timelines should be made and agreed upon between the faculty and student and outlined clearly in the faculty's response.

- v. If the approach to Level One resolution determined between faculty and student is re-evaluation of an existing submission, the Program Associate Dean will assign an impartial faculty with subject matter expertise to complete the re-evaluation. All student identifiers and the previous grade and evaluation feedback will be redacted from the document prior to re-evaluation.

B. Level Two – Formal Academic Appeal

- i. If a resolution is not achieved through the Level One - Faculty Decision Review, the student may pursue Level Two, Formal Academic Appeal. The student must contact the SRRO Office within two (2) days of the faculty member's decision to discuss eligibility to move forward in the appeal process to Level Two, the Formal Academic Appeal.
- ii. The SRRO will review the appeal, supporting documentation, and the Academic Appeal Form completed by the faculty member. The SRRO will determine whether the appeal meets the criteria to proceed.

If the appeal meets criteria, the student must electronically sign Section B of the Academic Appeal Form and pay the $25 administrative fee.
- iii. In order to avoid perceived, or actual, bias in the Level Two hearing, the SRRO will identify and coordinate the Assigned Dean from outside the student's Academic School to hear the appeal. The SRRO will notify the program Dean and relevant stakeholders of the progression of the appeal.
- iv. The SRRO will send the appeal package to the Assigned Dean for review and will coordinate a hearing with the student and Assigned Dean. The hearing must take place within five (5) days of the student submitting the Level Two appeal documentation.

The Assigned Dean will approach professors, staff, students, placement supervisors, preceptors, or others who can contribute information to assist in the decision making or resolution of the appeal. The Assigned Dean may meet with others either separately or as a group, to hear and discuss the appeal.

The Assigned Dean will review all submitted documentation by the student, as well as the program manual, policies, course outline, placement guides, clinical handbooks, or any other relevant documents that will help inform their decision.
- v. Following the Level Two hearing, the Assigned Dean will complete Section B of the Academic Appeal Form with their response to the appeal within three (3) days of the hearing.
- vi. The response is distributed to the student, the SRRO, the program Dean and the faculty member.

If the academic appeal is granted, the appeal process is complete, and the administrative fee will be refunded.

C. Level Three – Procedural Appeal

- i. If the appeal is denied and the student feels they meet criteria to move forward, they have two (2) days after receiving the response from the Assigned Dean to initiate a Level Three procedural appeal by indicating their intention to the Student Rights & Responsibilities Office and electronically signing Section C of the Academic Appeal Form.

A Level Three appeal can only be initiated if the following conditions are met:

- A substantial procedural error occurred during the Level Two, Formal Appeal.
- The sanctions imposed through an academic decision, and upheld at Level Two, are perceived to be unreasonable or substantially disproportionate to the circumstances or offence.

The Committee has no jurisdiction where the sole question raised in an appeal turns on the exercise of academic judgement of a student's work or performance by a faculty member.

- ii. The SRRO will ensure the appeal is eligible to move forward and submit the appeal package to the Director of Wellness, Accessibility & Student Success, or designate, and the program Dean and Assigned Dean from the Level Two Hearing.
- iii. The Director of Wellness, Accessibility & Student Success, or designate, will choose a Level Three Appeal Committee, as needed. The Committee will be made up of one faculty member, two administrative academic members (at least one Dean) and one student. Committee members must not have been involved previously with any aspect of the student's appeal and must not be from the same Academic School as the student. The Dean chosen for the Committee will act as the Committee Chair. The Committee will provide an independent, internal review of the decisions and procedures of the Level One and Level Two meetings.
- iv. The Procedural Appeal Hearing must occur within ten (10) days of the notification of the student's submitted request to move to Level Three of the Appeal Procedure. The Director of Wellness, Accessibility & Student Success, or designate will distribute all relevant material to the Appeal Committee members in advance of the hearing. The student, the Assigned Dean, and the SRRO attend the Level Three hearing. The faculty member may also be invited to attend at the discretion of the Chair.
- v. If the student wishes to have a support person in attendance, they must advise the SRRO within 24 hours of the hearing and provide the identity of that person. This support person may not speak on behalf of the student.
- vi. Level Three Hearing Procedures
 - a. In advance of the hearing, the Committee will be provided all documentation that has been reviewed at Level One and Two of the appeal process. The student launching the Level Three appeal may challenge for cause the neutrality of any member of the Committee scheduled to hear their appeal. If the challenge is upheld, the member shall be replaced by another Committee member.
 - b. Subject to the rulings of the Committee, the following procedures should be followed.
 - The student may make an opening statement.
 - The student may call and examine witnesses.

- The Assigned Dean may cross-examine any of the witnesses called by the student, including, where appropriate, the student.
 - The Assigned Dean may make an opening statement.
 - The Assigned Dean may call and examine witnesses.
 - The student may cross-examine any of the Assigned Dean's witnesses.
 - The Committee will break to formulate questions.
 - The Chair will ask questions to either party on behalf of the Committee.
 - The student may make a closing statement.
 - The Assigned Dean may make a closing statement.
 - The Student may respond to any matters arising out of the Assigned Dean's statement to which they not yet spoken.
 - The Committee may impose reasonable time limits for the hearing of witnesses and statements.
- c. If, after a hearing, the Committee requires further information in order to reach a decision, it may either ask that the additional information be supplied at a further hearing or, without a hearing. Both the student and Assigned Dean must be given the opportunity of commenting on the new information before the committee reaches a final decision.
- d. In rendering a decision, the Committee may:
- Reverse the decision and grant such academic standing to the appellant as the committee thinks fit in the circumstances;
 - Quash the decision and send the matter back to the Assigned Dean to be dealt with in accordance with proper policy and procedures; or
 - Uphold the decision of the Assigned Dean.
- vii. Within three (3) days of the Appeal hearing, the Appeal Committee Chair will distribute the written decision using Section C of the Appeal form, to the student, the faculty member, the SRRO, the program Dean, Assigned Dean, the Director, Wellness, Accessibility & Student Success or designate, and the Sr. Vice President Academic.
- viii. The decision of the Academic Appeal Committee is final and binding.

D. Appeal Procedures for Partnership Degrees or Continuing Education Programs

- i. For students registered in partnership programs between Laurentian University and St. Lawrence College, appeals are heard at students' home institution, including Academic Integrity appeals. If the appeal process is being contested by the student, the LU Registrar will be notified by the College Registrar and the appeal process will be examined by LU and a final decision rendered by the LU Registrar. All cases of Academic Integrity will be dealt with by following the LU Senate Approved Academic Integrity Policy at the student's home institution (Campus) in consultation with LU.

- ii. Appeals for OntarioLearn courses require inter-institutional vetting so timelines may be extended. These appeals will be managed by the Program Officer, Distance Education at St. Lawrence College.

AC833: Recording of Learning Experiences

Policy Title:	Recording of Learning Experiences
Policy Number:	AC833
Owner:	Director, Wellness, Accessibility & Student Success
Approved by:	College Executive Team
Effective Date:	September, 2020

St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources fully accessible to all persons. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

BACKGROUND

Definitions:

LER – Learning Experience Recording

AV/PRA – Audio and/or Video/Photo Recording Agreement

Purpose:

The audio and/or video recording of learning experiences (e.g., lectures, learning activities, discussions, labs, simulations, and other course related activity) is governed by this Recording of Learning Experiences Policy of St. Lawrence College.

Scope:

In keeping with the province of Ontario's Human Rights Code (OHRC) and Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), the College's Recording of Learning Experiences Policy balances the needs of students with and without disabilities with the rights of the professors, while maintaining the privacy of students.

St. Lawrence College recognizes that in certain circumstances, students may need to record learning experiences to support their learning. Audio recording of learning experiences allows students the opportunity to focus attention on the content being presented rather than on the mechanics of writing and/or the multiple other cognitive processes required to access and retain information. Additionally, this accommodation supports students' ability to review material they may have missed, or not understood, when initially presented in class.

The College recognizes that faculty and students may have concerns about confidentiality and data protection with the recording of learning experiences; as such, students will record in a manner that ensures the privacy of other students and adheres to recording expectations and the Student Code of Conduct. Faculty must inform the class that learning experiences may be recorded while respecting the confidentiality of the student with this accommodation and/or approval to record. All students can benefit from audio recording of learning experiences and faculty are encouraged to create recordings as part of a Universal Design for Learning approach.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. For students with disabilities, Student Wellness & Accessibility will determine if recording is an appropriate academic accommodation with respect to each individual student's disability-related documentation. Details relating to supported LER will be contained in the student's Accommodation Letter provided to faculty. Prior to the student recording any learning experience, discussion, lab, etc., the Audio and/or Video/Photo Recording Agreement (AV/PRA) must be signed by the student with a copy retained in Student Wellness & Accessibility. Receipt of the Accommodation Letter by faculty provides notification of recording, as well as confirmation that the AV/PRA has been reviewed and signed by the student.
2. The student recordings shall be destroyed at the end of the semester unless otherwise agreed to with the professor and documented on the AV/PRA.
3. The student may not in any manner, partial or whole, re-publish or share the recordings without the professor's written permission.
4. As soon as it is known that a student will be recording the learning experience, the professor will notify the other students in the class without identifying the student who is making the recording. In accordance with the principles of a Universal Design for Learning approach, it is also recommended that all Course Syllabi denote that academic learning activities may be recorded.
5. For both students with and without a disability, professors reserve the right to spontaneously or with advance notice, prohibit the student recording of personal student information. For example, if the learning experience within a nursing course has students engaged in personal and/or sensitive discussions, the professor can request that recording be stopped for this discussion. However, in such circumstances, the professor will make every effort to ensure students receive a brief written summary of what was stated that excludes personal information. This is to support students whose disability may exclude them from perceiving, processing and/or accessing all the details and information shared in the learning experience. The summary should aim to convey the essence of what was relevant to the learning for the activity.

6. LERs are to be used by the student solely for their personal learning use. The college strictly prohibits the distribution of the recordings in any manner. Under no circumstances will the LERs be used in the evaluation of the professors or students. Any violation of the LER policy may be referred to the Student Code of Conduct process for review.
7. Professors have the authority to record and disseminate activity that occurs within their own classes for legitimate pedagogical and/or assessment purposes. This may include, but is not limited to, the evaluation of students' and/or professor performance. The professor will notify students in the course outline that they will be recorded, and in no case shall the professor recording proceed without notifying the students in advance that they are to be recorded.
8. Students without a disability may also request to record learning experiences. Given that all students can benefit from audio recording of learning experiences, faculty are encouraged to consider recording requests unrelated to disability as part of a Universal Design for Learning approach. In these scenarios, the professor and student must discuss and agree to the recording. The AV/PRA must also be signed by the student and provided to the professor in these instances, with each party keeping a copy of the form.

MONITORING

This policy shall be reviewed annually each spring as to issues and concerns raised by faculty and or students throughout the academic calendar year.

“Student-athlete” refers to a St. Lawrence College student that is on a roster for a varsity team.

“Varsity” and “Athletics” terms are used synonymously to describe a sport, governed by the OCAA. There are three categories of sports. 1) Tournament based sports, which for St. Lawrence College are cross-country, golf, badminton; 2) League based sports which St. Lawrence College participates in men’s and women’s rugby, outdoor soccer and basketball; 3) Extramural club sports which include cricket, men’s and women’s hockey.

“Transferred student-athletes” are those that have transferred from another post-secondary institution to St. Lawrence College.

Purpose:

St. Lawrence College has adopted this policy to ensure students, staff and faculty clearly understand the academic expectations required of student-athletes. St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources fully accessible to all persons. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

BACKGROUND

Definitions:

Conditional Academic Standing – when students do not maintain the required semester GPA and structured supports are put in place for the student.

Full-Time Student – a student enrolled in courses from their Program of Study with a course load equivalent to at least 70% of the normal course credits or two-thirds of the normal course load (calculated on number of courses) for each semester of their Program of Study. Students with a permanent disability accommodated on an approved reduced course load are deemed to be a Full-Time Student, provided they maintain a minimum of 40% caseload. Please note that full-time status may be defined differently for the purposes of financial aid.

Good Academic Standing – students must maintain a specified semester GPA

Program of Study – a group of related courses that conforms to the levels of learning articulated in the Credentials Framework and leads to the awarding of a credential.

Progression – movement from one to level to the next within a Program of Study culminating in graduation.

Purpose:

St. Lawrence College is committed to supporting the success of our students. The purpose of this policy is to outline the requirements for students to progress through the levels of their Program of Study and ultimately graduate with an Ontario College credential or degree from St. Lawrence College.

Scope:

This policy applies to all St. Lawrence College students and includes all St. Lawrence College courses and programs.

POLICY STATEMENTS1. Progression

- In order to move from one level to the next within a Program of Study, a student must complete their current semester with either Good Academic Standing or Conditional Academic Standing. This does not override any pre-requisite or co-requisite conditions for courses that may still need to be satisfied. Additional progression requirements for specific programs are identified in the Program Manual, Course Outline and Learning Plan.

2. Good Academic Standing

- For certificates, diplomas, Ontario College advanced diplomas and Ontario College graduate certificates, to be in Good Academic Standing, students must maintain a semester GPA of 1.51 or higher (Please reference Student Athlete Status for required GPAs)
- For degrees, to be in Good Academic Standing, students must maintain a semester GPA of 1.7
- Any exceptions to the above are noted in Appendix A

3. Conditional Academic Standing

- Students not maintaining Good Academic Standing will transition to Conditional Academic Standing.
- Students will be notified of their Conditional Academic Standing for the duration of their next registered academic semester and will be connected to resources to support their successful progression in their Program of Study.
- To return to Good Academic Standing students must maintain a semester GPA or higher as indicated in Section 1: Good Academic Standing.
- Students unable to return to Good Academic Standing will have their academic progress and options reviewed by the applicable Dean/Associate Dean to determine if they will remain in a Conditional Academic Standing or be academically withdrawn from the program or counselled to consider other ways of continuing their education.
- Students have the right to appeal an academic withdrawal decision that are based on the College's Student Academic Appeal process and grounds for appeal. As per the Academic Appeal policy, the appeal will be reviewed by an academic administrator from outside their School or Faculty.
- Students with Conditional Academic Standing may have additional conditions that have to be met to continue in their Program of Study, including specific requirements to access academic and non-academic supports and resources. Any additional requirements will be determined by the Dean/Associate Dean and provided to the student in writing.

- If performance is unsatisfactory at the end of the probationary period, students may be withdrawn from the program or counselled to consider other ways of continuing their education.

4. Academic Withdrawal

- An academic withdrawal requires that a student be removed from their Program of Study for two academic semesters.
- To be re-admitted, students need to re-apply to the program as per the academic policy (See INSERT correct policy number for Re-admission) after meeting with the applicable Dean/Associate Dean to provide documentation that demonstrates the student's commitment to maintaining Good Academic Standing.
- It is important to note that the re-admission process for Level 1 entry is different than re-admission to an upper year of a program.
- Re-application decisions are made by the Registrar's Office in consultation with the Dean/Associate Dean.
- Students that are academically withdrawn are eligible to enroll in courses through Continuing Education or other courses or programs where they meet the admission requirements. Applicable transfer credits will be reviewed.

5. Non-Academic Involuntary Withdrawal

- A student may be withdrawn from a course, a program or from the College for "just cause" according to the Non-Academic Involuntary Withdrawal policy.

6. Re-Admission

- A student at St. Lawrence College who interrupts their studies (either through voluntary or mandatory withdrawal) and has not graduated within 200% of the normal program duration (see Graduation and Convocation policy) is subject to the current admission requirements for the program in question and the order of priority of admission applicable to the program. See APPENDIX B for program specific re-admission policies where applicable.

7. Course Attempts

- Unless otherwise stated, students may attempt a course three times. After the second failed attempt in a course, a student and their respective Student Success Facilitator and/or Program Coordinator will prepare a learning contract outlining what needs to be done to support success in the third attempt. Any exceptions to this will be noted in the Course Outline.

- Where possible, the student will be permitted to re-take the course with a different faculty member or to identify a course from another institution to be used as a transfer credit at their own expense.
- Inability to achieve the minimum grade in a course required for progression in, or graduation from, a program within the three permitted attempts will result in a withdrawal from the program.
- Withdrawal from a course on or before the approved date to withdraw without academic penalty will not be considered an attempt.
- Successful completion of all courses in the program is required for a student to be eligible to graduate. Should a student not be able to complete a course because they have exhausted the number of available attempts, they will not be eligible to graduate. In the case of repeated courses, the highest grade will be calculated into the program GPA. All grades and courses will be recorded on the student's transcript and included in their term and cumulative GPAs.

8. Additional Courses

- Full-time students will be required to pay fees for each course taken in excess of the normal full-time load for the current term of their program and for any non-credit course(s) they wish to take. Courses may include additional material fees (varies per course) and/or online course fees.

Appendix A: Progression Policies for Full-Time Students by Program

Autism and Behavioural Science [rev. Sept. 2015]

Students must achieve a final grade of 60% (C- grade) or higher in each course, in order to advance in the program and to graduate.

Honours Bachelor of Behavioural Psychology (HBBP) [rev. Sept. 2017]

Term-based Grade Point Averages (term GPA) are used to determine each student's eligibility to progress through the program as a full-time student. Any student who does not meet the minimum term GPA for continuance will not be eligible to progress as a full-time student but can take part-time courses if the pre-requisites are met and space is available. In order to progress to the next semester or to graduate the following is required:

1. Minimum overall acceptable achievement (ie across all degree requirements including the breadth and discipline-related requirements) not lower than a 1.7 term GPA (60–62%).
2. Minimum overall acceptable achievement in all PSYC/BEHA courses (ie discipline-related requirements) not lower than a 1.7 term GPA (60-62%).

In Semesters 3 and 6, students complete several courses before beginning a practicum. A term GPA will be also be calculated using the final course grades leading up to each practicum to determine if a student is eligible for practicum. A term GPA of 1.7 is required to be eligible for practicum.

A student may be deemed unsafe in a practice course and may be removed from a practice course for this reason.*

Program of Study

To register in any course, a student must meet all pre-requisites and co-requisites. If a student does not meet this requirement the student will be withdrawn by the registrar from the course.

A student who fails a nursing practice course and/or who has been absent from the BScN program or from a nursing practice course for one semester or more will be required to take the Resumption of clinical practice course, and must be successful in this course in order to continue in any subsequent nursing practice course.

Students must successfully pass all required courses in one semester to progress to the required courses in the subsequent semester.

Completion of Course Work

In addition to achieving a minimum of 65% overall for all core courses and 60% overall for non-core, elective courses, submission of all required course work/assignments is required in order to be considered for course credit. Lateness:

Late assignments are not normally accepted. If accepted, assignments are penalized by 10% per day or part thereof for up to 5 days and includes weekends. After that date, a late assignment will be assigned a grade of zero. Submissions of all late assignments will be documented in the student academic file by the course professor. All assignments must be submitted to complete the course, therefore regardless of a zero grade, the assignment must still be submitted as per the assignment outline.

In the event of exceptional circumstances, (eg. a death in the family), a student may submit a written request for an assignment extension 5-7 days in advance of the due date. When a student is ill, he/she must report to the Health Services, the family physician or nurse practitioner to obtain documentation prior to contacting the course professor regarding an extension for assignments.

Poor Form:

Students can lose up to 25% of the assignment total possible mark for poor form and writing style that does not meet APA requirements, whether or not marks are specifically assigned to writing format in the assignment. The exact amount is at the discretion of the course professor. If students require format writing assistance they are to seek help from the Centre for Academic Excellence. Course professors are to be consulted about assignment content. The assignment content and format accuracy are the student's responsibility.

Vacation and Examination

Students are expected to write tests and exams when scheduled. If exceptional circumstances arise (see student BScN Handbook for details) such as, a serious illness that the student cannot present for the exam or adequately prepare for the exam (substantiated by a medical note), a death in a student's immediate family, or a legal obligation such as Jury duty, etc., the Course Professor must be notified prior to the exam date where possible. Vacations planned outside of reading weeks or during the academic semester and posted entire exam period will not be supported nor considered. Early departures that affect tests or exams will not be considered as exceptional circumstances.

There is NO supplemental / re-write examination or work offered within the BScN program.

Placement for All Programs [rev. Sept. 2020]

In a program that requires placement for graduation, students who fail a placement may be permitted to repeat the same placement course once, if space permits. If a student fails that same placement for the second time, they will be required to withdraw from the program for a period of two semesters and will adhere to conditions to return. These conditions, which are determined by the Associate Dean or Dean for the program, may include, but are not limited to, repetition of identified courses, or completion of new course(s). When conditions have been met, and the student has completed the two semester withdrawal period, they may be permitted to make one more attempt at successfully completing the placement. If the student fails a placement for a third time, they will be required to withdraw from the program. This policy includes courses taken through Distance and/or Continuing Education. Students should be aware that the 200% rule for completion of the program is in effect. For re-admission policies, see Section 3.7 Re-Admission.

The following programs are exceptions:

Learning plans are developed by the faculty/instructor assigned to teach the course section, using the SLC-approved template and approved by the Dean/AD.

Course Outline - At the beginning of each course, St. Lawrence College students are provided with a current course outline. The course outline is consistent for all offerings of the course across the College for the given academic year. The course outline forms the basis for a contract between students, faculty, and the College.

The course outline provides a framework of understanding for the course structure, learning outcomes, learning experiences, required resources, assignment requirements, and the evaluation methods that will be used to measure student achievement relative to the required course learning outcomes. When a course is a required core course within a larger program, the document also communicates the program standards, or learning outcomes, established for the program of study. (5.1 Academic Policy Manual)

Purpose:

To clarify the purpose and required practices related to the use of the Learning Plan.

Scope:

Informs that SLC has a required Learning Plan Template.

Outlines the purpose of the Learning Plan.

2. Learning plans are intended to support preparation for learning, effective time management, and successful completion of assessments.
3. At the beginning of each course, St. Lawrence College students are provided with a learning plan specific to the course section in which they are enrolled.
4. Faculty/instructors post both the approved and signed course outline and Learning Plan to the LMS.
5. The Learning Plan template is updated annually by PPDR and SCTL and available on the SCTL website.
6. Procedures for effective development and review of a Learning Plan are outlined in supporting documents that are developed and distributed by SCTL and PPDR.
7. Learning Plans are reviewed and approved by the Associate Dean responsible for the course offering. Associate Deans may meet with faculty/instructors as part of this approval process. Approval is indicated on the Learning Plan by the Associate Dean's signature.

St. Lawrence College (SLC) is committed to making our resources fully accessible to all persons. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

BACKGROUND

DEFINITIONS:

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Educational practices, systems, and support services designed to equalize the opportunity of a person with a disability in meeting essential requirements and learning outcomes of a course or program, applicable to all aspects of learning, including classroom, laboratory, online, and placement requirements, as well as attitudinal beliefs (See Policy AC820). Where accommodations are required within a Placement Agency, the onus is on the Placement Agency to implement. Placement Agencies, however, also have discretion on student placement acceptances.

College Student Placement Manual

The College Student Placement Manual is a document that provides information outlining processes for placement and necessary pre-placement information or procedures related to preparing and participating in placements. Where Programs have a Program Manual, necessary placement information can be used and reproduced within a “Placement Information Section” for the student’s information and easy access.

Ministry of Colleges and Universities (MCU)

Is the organization that regulates the unpaid placement responsibilities of the College and provides safety insurance coverage for the student

Placement

Can be any experiential learning activity (e.g., clinical placement, field placements, internships) that is generally unpaid and is required or optional as part of an SLC approved Program. This includes a formal assessment component and successful completion of the placement. Placements must be authorized by the Placement Agency and take place as a non-classroom activity, usually off Campus or on-line or as a hybrid model.

Placement Agency

The term used to indicate “the employer, agency, workplace, facility, business or organization” that has agreed to accept a student(s) for the purposes of experiential learning as defined above under Placement.

Pre-placement Requirements

The term is used to identify a multitude of specific placement requirements that students are responsible for completing and supplying to the College, prior to commencing placement. They include but are not limited to police checks, immunizations, training modules or specific Placement Agency requirements.

Workplace Insurance College and University Students Unpaid Work Placements Guidelines

A document used to inform the College of the Workplace Safety Insurance Board (WSIB) and Ministry of Colleges and Universities (MCU) student eligibility for safety insurance coverage. This is specifically for unpaid placements and outlines how to confirm student placement insurance eligibility and report all accidents to MCU and WSIB.

Program Handbooks, Program Manuals and Program Guides

Program handbooks/manuals and guides are provided by individual programs. They outline specific processes for the program, including those involving placement that are specific to the individual program.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure student placement opportunities are provided to students in a timely, equitable and accessible manner. Specific processes to support placement are shared via the College Student Placement Manual and each program will identify their individual placement practices in a consistent manner, as outlined in the program specific manual(s) and necessary course outlines.

SCOPE

This policy pertains to all students, faculty members, Placement Program employees, Associate Deans/Deans, Campus Health, College Services and others involved in or supporting the pre-placement requirements and ongoing delivery of placement to facilitate real world learning outcomes for students.

POLICY STATEMENTS

Accommodation Required for Placement

The College is committed to creating a welcoming, barrier-free, inclusive learning environment. Policy AC820 - Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities, outlines the definitions, responsibilities, and procedures that apply to the provision of academic accommodations for prospective and current students with disabilities, and applies to all full-time or part-time programs and courses, in the classroom, laboratory, online, and/or on placement.

Student Wellness & Accessibility will work collaboratively with students, college faculty and/or staff, placement sites, and/or external partners to determine appropriate accommodations that meet essential academic and placement requirements and standards. Given that implementation of accommodation is the responsibility of the Placement Agency, there may be agency discretion on placement acceptance and participation.

For physical accommodation due to an injury at placement, please refer to the College Student Placement Manual.

Additional Placement Requirements

The College will provide the student with written updates to placement changes using their appropriate platform and share current information as it is made available.

Criminal Record Check (CRC) and/or Vulnerable Sector Check (VSC)

The College will ensure that students completing pre-placement requirements in certain programs or with certain agencies, will be notified of the requirement and that each student will obtain and secure a copy of the CRC and or VSC to the College. Students are responsible to inform their Associate Dean or designate of any incidents or occurrences that could affect obtaining or maintaining a clear Vulnerability Sector Check and/or Criminal Records Check.

The College has an obligation to update the Placement Agency when a student cannot provide or ceases to provide and maintain a clear Vulnerable Sector or Police Check. The College will NOT disclose the circumstances giving rise to the change in status without a signed consent form. The Placement Agency will only be advised that the document cannot be produced.

Costs Associated with Placement

The College will notify students of costs associated with pre-placement requirements, unless explicitly noted in their Course Outline or within their Letter of Offer, Program Website or Blackboard Placement Hub. AC901: Bachelor of Science - Nursing (Honours) – BScN Clinical Practice

Policy Title:	Bachelor of Science - Nursing (Honours) - BScN Clinical Practice
Policy Number:	AC901
Owner:	Sr. Vice President Academic
Effective Date:	September 2021
Reference:
Links to Other Policy:	BScN Uniform Policy

St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources fully accessible to all persons. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

BACKGROUND

Purpose:

The St. Lawrence Bachelor of Science - Nursing (Honours) program includes mandatory clinical practice, which takes place in a variety of health care agencies within the region. This policy speaks to the complexities of this essential element of education in nursing science. The policy ensures that clinical practice opportunities continue to be available to students; that students learn the work-place requirements of this regulated profession; and that students, clients and clinical practice host institutions are working within the high standard of care and safety required in health care settings.

Scope:

This policy applies to the Clinical Practice components of the program, for all students studying in the Bachelor of Science - Nursing (Honours) program at St. Lawrence College. It is expected that, in conjunction with the requirements of this policy, students will also comply with the requirements of the St. Lawrence College BScN Uniform Policy.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. All clinical hours within long-term care, acute care and community-based settings are mandatory within the BScN program.
2. Planned absence from clinical hours must be pre-authorized with the course professor (or clinical course lead) at the start of the semester or as soon as the need for absence is known. With course professor authorization, all missed clinical hours will require successful completion prior to earning credit in the associated course. Considerations for pre-authorized absences include participation in varsity sports and clinical-related learning opportunities.

3. Expectations for BScN Students in Clinical Practice

- Students are ultimately responsible for their own learning and must be able to perform to the expected level clinically.
- It is the student's responsibility to identify and document a learning plan to achieve the clinical objectives.
- All evaluation components must reflect a passing score for the student to be successful.
- Each student will participate in a midterm and formal written final clinical evaluation that outlines his/her strengths and weaknesses/challenges as well as his/her standing in the clinical area. Additional clinical evaluations can be initiated by either the student or the clinical educator as required during the clinical rotation.
- To earn a passing clinical grade, a student must achieve a satisfactory rating on each of the indicators of clinical performance by the end of his/her clinical rotation. Failure to achieve a satisfactory performance in any area of the clinical evaluation will result in a failure.
- Failure to achieve a satisfactory performance in any area of the clinical evaluation will require the student to repeat the clinical course as well as the associated laboratory and the classroom course (co-requisites).
- Completed clinical evaluation forms become a part of the permanent student record.
- Signing the evaluation does not indicate that the student agrees with the content but that the student has read the clinical educator/faculty advisor evaluation and was able to discuss the content of the evaluation with the clinical educator/faculty advisor
- Clinical educators/clinical advisors are responsible for documenting clinical learning on the student's clinical evaluation form. If the clinical educator/faculty advisor assesses the student as not demonstrating safe, accountable and responsible nursing practice, the course professor and the coordinator will be consulted. A student may be asked to withdraw from the program, if they are not making satisfactory progress and/or is failing to meet the criteria for performance in professional areas.

Note: It is the responsibility of faculty to protect clients and students. Therefore, faculty may exclude students from the clinical area due to illness, injuries, or lack of preparation for practice, inappropriate professional behaviour and/or appearance or any situation deemed unsafe. If the student is absent or excluded for a reason other than illness or injury, the faculty may not be obligated to schedule clinical make-up time for that student.

1. Return to Clinical Practice Setting

- On return to the clinical setting, the student may be required to submit a learning plan to the clinical educator and course professor containing the specific strategies such as supplemental lab practice, to achieve all clinical expectations.

2. Attendance in Nursing Laboratories

- Nursing laboratory attendance is mandatory for all students.
- In the event of absence due to illness, the student may be required to submit a learning plan to the lab instructor outlining how the student will demonstrate missed laboratory content.
- Absences may make it impossible for a course professor to assess a student's competence adequately for the clinical setting, and therefore result in a course failure for the student.
- All missed nursing laboratory hours MUST be made up. Missed nursing labs are completed with a cost to the student. These fees can be found below as an appendix.

3. 4th Year Class Clinical placements

- Student must complete hours in both acute and non-acute placements to graduate, in the final year. Therefore, if acute care hours are completed in Clinical Practice VII, non-acute placement hours are completed in Clinical Practice VIII or vice versa.
- The expectation is that any student requesting a high acuity area (e.g. ICU, ER) for consolidation will have completed the critical care elective prior to the placement's commencement.
- Those requesting a perioperative placement for consolidation will have be required to complete the Perioperative Nursing course through AORN and the required SLC labs as part of the placement. Placement opportunities in these areas are limited, therefore preference will be given to those who have successfully completed the elective (though completing the elective does not guarantee that the student will be placed in one of these areas). Placement is based on availability, completion of the elective, suitability for the area, strong clinical performance and GPA.

4. Out of Town Clinical Placement

- BScN students may apply for an out-of-town clinical placement in 4th yr. The application for an out-of-town placement must be submitted by the stated due date. Review of out-of-town clinical placement applications is by a committee. The committee decision to accept or deny a student request for an out-of-town clinical placement is final and communicated to the student by the BScN Program Yr. 4 Coordinator.
- All communication with the potential placement agencies regarding (in-town or out-of-town placements) must be done through the School of Nursing (Placement Coordinator & Faculty). Students are not to contact any agency directly to request a placement; doing so, will forfeit placement at that agency.

MONITORING

It is the responsibility of the Senior Vice President, Academic and the Deans/Associate Deans to ensure adherence to the policy and to interpret the policy.

Procedures:

P1 Attendance in Clinical Practice

- Students who have missed 1 or 2 shifts due to illness, compassionate reasons, or extenuating circumstances:
 - i. These hours must be made up in a clinical placement. The course professor will consult with the student's Clinical Instructor, Faculty Advisor to determine the student's progress and learning needs relative to the course objectives and will also consult with the School of Nursing Associate Dean in deciding the clinical make-up requirements. The Course Professor (clinical course lead) will then contact the appropriate Coordinator with the number of hours the student must replace.
 - ii. Every effort will be made to have the clinical hours take place in the unit the student was placed, however, if this is not possible, students will have to complete extra hours of orientation if they will be placed in a setting they have not yet been to. Missed clinical time may occur in the evenings or on weekends, therefore, flexibility is required. Students who are absent for clinical shifts will be charged clinical make-up fees (missed clinical time due to a clinical instructor's absence is not subject to clinical make-up fees)
- Students who miss a 3rd shift:
 - i. Professors assess each student's case on an individual basis. The course professor will consult with the clinical instructor on the student's progress. The 3rd shift missed clinical hours may be completed through one or a combination of the following: an assignment, attendance at a conference or training workshop, a case study and debriefing on one or more client case(s), presentation on a clinical case or other topic relevant to the course objectives, simulation, or clinical placement. Students are responsible for financing any costs related to the above.

- ii. For absences, due to a disability-related reason, with respect to attendance in Clinical Practice and make up of clinical hours, each individual circumstance shall be determined on a case-by-case basis.
- iii. Clinical make-up fees are found below and are posted on the BScN portal. Clinical make-up fees are charged to the student's account.
- iv. Any student who missed more than 3 clinical shifts in a rotation will be required to withdraw from the course.
- v. Any student who misses a make-up clinical time will be required to withdraw from the course.

P2 Fee payments for Rescheduled/Make-up Clinical and Lab

- Each student who misses their lab and/or clinical will be charged a flat rate per day, specifics are outlined in the student handbook.

P3 Out of Town Clinical Placement

To request an Out-of-Town clinical placement, the BScN student must:

- have a minimum cumulative average of 75% (GPA of 7.0) in all required nursing and science courses in the program to date;
- be in good academic standing including successfully completing all Year III program requirements;
- demonstrate above average ratings across all clinical evaluations to date;
- remain an active member of the classroom group and commit to meet attendance expectations as indicated in both the academic calendar and course calendars;
- demonstrate safe, ethical, and professional practice as outlined by St. Lawrence College Policy and Procedures and Student Code of Conduct and nursing practice and policy expectations of the host clinical agency;
- be willing to accept the clinical placement secured by the program; and
- have internet access outside of their clinical practice environment.

The School of Baccalaureate Nursing reserves the right to approve or deny an out-of-town clinical placement request. Clinical placement decisions depend on human resources, the learning needs of the student, and contracts with clinical agencies. Communication with potential placement agencies is exclusively through the School of Baccalaureate Nursing.

3. If inclement weather causes the cancellation of in-person classes during the workday/evening when people are already on campus and in classes or labs, the Associate Deans and Deans will ensure students and faculty on campus are made aware of the decision to cancel in-person classes and campus activities and will circulate throughout the building to ensure awareness and dismiss classes. Class cancellations do not affect employee obligations and all staff are expected to report to, or remain at work, unless absence is approved or directed by their Manager. Administration will ensure no student, faculty/staff is stranded on campus without means of transportation. Managers will remain on site until released by the incident management team or person in charge of the campus/department.
4. Weather conditions can vary significantly across regions and in-person class cancellation in one location does not necessitate the cancellation of activities in another region that may not be affected. Please note the following:
 - Faculty, staff and students having responsibilities in work sites managed by other agencies and/or businesses should meet the responsibilities of the job/placement, if possible.
 - If the Placement Agency is closed or services are cancelled, students should contact their College Placement Representative to notify them and receive instruction on any required make-up time or supplemental assignments.
 - College Placement Representative's must consult the Associate Dean or Dean before cancelling clinical/placement sessions.
 - Students are still covered by insurance if they participate in a placement/clinical shift even if in-person classes are cancelled on campus.
 - Students and employees must take due care and precautions to plan ahead for safe travelling, such as equip vehicles for winter travel, plan extra travel time and monitor weather/road conditions.
5. If classes are running but because of conditions at their residential location an employee feels they would face undue hardship to travel to the college, employees must communicate with their immediate manager by phone or email as soon as possible. The same applies to employees who would like to leave their college location while it is still operating. Employees may be released on an individual basis, with approval by their manager. In these circumstances, the employee and immediate manager will discuss the requirement to make up time away from work, including a number of options, depending on the nature of their work, such as:
 - Ability/appropriateness to work from home

- Ability to use overtime or time in lieu
- Ability to book a vacation day or day without pay
- Make up the missed time within a specified period of time

The manager must be consulted before an option is chosen as the manager has the final approval on the option to be used. The option and arrangements must be documented with a copy to the employee, manager and Human Resources.

6. If classes are running and a student indicates they cannot come to class because of conditions at their residential location, safety must come first and no student should be penalized for missing class. Students must notify the professor as soon as possible.
7. Dual Credit Classes – If a faculty member will be absent from a dual credit class, they must contact the Secondary School Liaison and the Manager, Dual Credit Operations giving as much notice as possible (preferably a minimum of 2 hours prior to the start of class).

St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources fully accessible to all persons. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

BACKGROUND

Definitions:

General Education Course: A general education course is a diploma-level course that addresses non-vocational content in a program of study. Most General Education courses are chosen as electives, but occasionally a General Education course is mandated for all students in a program to complete. General Education courses must meet the requirements of the MTCU Framework for Programs of Instruction, 2009.

Themes: General Education courses must comply with at least one of the five general education themes detailed in the Framework: Art in Society; Civic Life; Social and Cultural Understanding; Personal Understanding; Science and Technology

Degree Breadth: Degree breadth courses are elective courses offered in college degree programs. Breadth requirements in degree programs are established by the Postsecondary Education Quality Assessment Board (PEQAB). Degree-breadth courses are distinguished as lower- or upper-level.

Purpose:

To outline the definitions, responsibilities, and procedures related to the development and delivery of General Education and Degree Breadth courses, subject to provincial guidelines and quality assurance frameworks.

Scope:

This policy applies to all General Education courses delivered in diploma-level programs and to Degree Breadth courses delivered as electives in degree programs. Distinctions between the two—in terms of governing frameworks and requirements—are noted where necessary.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. General Education and Degree Breadth courses expose students to disciplines outside their main field of study. These courses aim to increase students' awareness of and engagement with the society and culture in which they live and work.
2. General Education courses must comply with one of the five general education themes, be a minimum of 3 credits in weight, and require no prerequisites. General Education courses are identified by a GENE course code.
3. Minimum requirements for General Education courses are determined by the Ontario Credentials Framework.
4. General Education courses will be offered using a combination of required and elective processes. General Education compliance will be reviewed in the five-year program review process.
5. Non-GENE courses that meet the five themes, have a minimum 3-credit weight (or equivalent), and contain non-vocational content for a given program may be considered as transfer credits for General Education courses.
6. Degree Breadth courses will be developed and delivered in degree programs in compliance with standards outlined by the Postsecondary Education Quality Assessment Board (PEQAB).
7. Degree Breadth courses enhance essential skills, including critical thinking, quantitative and qualitative reasoning, and communication. These courses focus on subject areas within the Humanities, Sciences, and Social Sciences.
8. Degree programs will include both lower-level (foundational) and upper-level (application) breadth courses.
9. General Education and Degree Breadth courses will be monitored and reviewed by the General Education and Degree Breadth Committee to ensure compliance with standards and a sufficient variety of offerings. The committee will maintain a list of approved General Education courses and review proposals for new offerings. The committee will also monitor Degree Breadth courses offered using SLC and/or partner institution curricula to ensure variety and compliance.

MONITORING

It is the responsibility of the Senior Vice President, Academic and the Deans/Associate Deans to ensure adherence to the policy and to interpret the policy.

BACKGROUND

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to:

Ensure that all St. Lawrence BScN students participating in clinical placements and working in professional settings are appropriately attired for the expectations of the nursing profession. The dress code ensures the safety of both the caregiver and the client; promotes mobility and comfort; reduces the risk of cross infection; projects a professional image; complies with the policies of the clinical area; and allows identification for security purposes.

Scope:

This policy applies to all students studying in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program at St. Lawrence College while participating in Acute and Non-Acute clinical settings.

POLICY STATEMENTS

- The dress code as outlined in this policy is MANDATORY FOR ALL STUDENTS YEAR I, YEAR II, YEAR III AND YEAR IV of the St. Lawrence College BScN program.
- The BScN program has adopted a navy-blue uniform for acute care clinical placements (years 1-3) and casual business dress or uniforms (depending on the placement) for non-acute placements. Students must have an additional uniform (of a colour other than navy blue) for nursing laboratory sessions and/or 4th year acute care clinical placement and according to agency policy.
- Students who are not dressed appropriately will be sent home from the clinical area and will be required to make up the missed time with a fee (See BScN portal for cost).

MONITORING

It is the responsibility of the Senior Vice President, Academic and the Deans/Associate Deans to ensure adherence to the policy and to interpret the policy.

Procedure and Protocol

The following specifics are required elements of the Uniform Policy

Acute and Non-Acute Clinical Dress Policies

- Clinical uniforms are not to be worn outside the clinical setting. Students will change into uniform at the clinical placement agency and abide by the policies of the agency.
- Clearly visible identification tags must be worn during all clinical experiences (i.e., acute and non-acute/community). The identification tag requires the student's name and educational institution.
- If wearing long sleeves, the sleeves must move with ease over the forearm, to allow for thorough hand washing.
- Scented products may not be used (e.g. soaps, aftershave, deodorants, perfume, hairspray, powder etc.) due to environmental sensitivities. Products with offensive odours, such as cigarette smoke, must be avoided.

Acute Clinical Setting Dress Policies

Uniform:

- All students are expected to wear navy blue scrub tops and scrub pants (Years 1-3).
- Clinical attire must be professional in appearance and should be laundered and ironed.
- Appropriate fit. Clothing should not be low cut at the neck or tight across the chest and hips. There will be no exposure of the midriff and lower back.
- Undergarments should not be visible at any time. Sleeves in tops worn for direct patient care must be no longer than 3/4 length.
- Lanyards are not permitted.
- Clinical attire must not be worn outside of the clinical setting.
- For specific guidelines related to appropriate attire, consult the student handbook.

Non-Acute Community Setting Dress Policies

- While on clinical placement in community, including family home visits, students may wear casual business attire. Jeans, cargo pants and leggings are not permitted.
- All clothing must be professional in nature with the midriff, shoulders, and lower back covered.

Note: Additional requirements may be requested by acute and non-acute clinical settings, for which compliance is required.

Study for Credit

Study for credit is defined as students undertaking study at institutions outside of Canada for credit(s) to be applied to their Program of Study at St. Lawrence College. This includes undertaking placements for credit where the placement will meet the requirements of the Program of Study at St. Lawrence College.

Non-Credit International Study

Non-credit international study includes study abroad undertaken by students or student groups that does not result in credits being obtained that will be applied to their program of study at St. Lawrence College. This category includes short term international experience trips, short term exchange programs and may include semester or year studies as an exchange student.

Purpose:

St. Lawrence College encourages students to undertake study abroad. The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance to students or student groups (including faculty participants) on the procedures required to undertake studies outside of Canada. Specifics of study opportunities can be found by contacting the St. Lawrence College International Office. A planning checklist to assist students in preparing for study abroad is at Appendix A.

Scope:

This policy includes all formats of study abroad from short term visits to full semester and one year exchange studies. This policy does not apply to graduates who articulate to higher credentials at institutions outside of Canada. This policy is closely linked to the Safety Abroad Policy and all students travelling abroad must complete the requirements of the Safety Abroad Policy, including completion of a risk assessment, ensuring that they have sufficient insurance and immunizations and completion of the International Travel Waiver form.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. Academic Eligibility for Study Abroad

While acknowledging that all study abroad programs and overseas institutions have their own criteria for admissions, St. Lawrence College students are held to current institutional standards before being allowed to study abroad for credit or to go on placements for credit outside of Canada. The minimum cumulative grade average required for SLC students wishing to study abroad is (65% or GPA 2.0). A student with a lower grade must obtain permission from his/her academic Dean or Associate Dean before he or she will be approved for study abroad.

2. The Study Abroad Application

SLC students wishing to study abroad must complete a Study Abroad Application at least two months prior to departure. Students who fail to submit a properly completed Study Abroad Application by the deadline will not be permitted to study abroad. The Study Abroad Application will require a signature from the Dean/Associate Dean or his/her designate. The study abroad application may be found at Appendix B.

3. Students Under Academic or Code of Conduct Sanctions

A student who is on academic or code of conduct probation or does not meet academic continuation requirements will not be permitted to study abroad during the period the sanction is in effect, regardless of the student's acceptance in a program. Students who have been dismissed for any code of conduct reason or any academic reason must complete at least one semester with no further infractions prior to being eligible to study abroad. Students may not apply to study abroad programs while suspended from St. Lawrence.

4. Insurance and Immunization Requirements

Insurance and immunization requirements can be found in the Safety Abroad Policy.

5. Contacts in Case of Emergency

While you are abroad, your first contact should always be the College Security Services at 613-544-5400 ext. 5555 who will work to meet your needs immediately. They will contact SLC's on-call staff while coordinating services with SLC. If you will be studying abroad for a semester or longer it is recommended that you contact the Canadian Embassy, High Commission or local Consulate to provide them with your contact information and duration of stay.

6. Safety Abroad Policy

Anyone travelling abroad on a St. Lawrence College approved activity must comply with the Safety Abroad Policy. All international travelers must complete a risk assessment and complete and sign the International Travel Waiver form as per the Safety Abroad Policy.

7. International Student Identification Card

St. Lawrence College recommends that students attending study abroad programs obtain an International Student Identification Card (ISIC). The ISIC must be purchased in Canada and should be valid throughout the dates of the program. The ID number of the ISIC should be submitted to the SLC International Office prior to departure. Please email your name, card/policy number, and expiration date to international@sl.on.ca or send us the ISIC form via email attachment or mail.

The ISIC will allow you to enter many museums free or for reduced fees, and will often entitle you to travel discounts.

8. Financial Assistance

Financial aid programs normally available to St. Lawrence College students continue to be available for exchange programs. In addition, there is a Study Abroad Opportunities Bursary available. The application form is at Appendix C. Enquiries may be directed to the Financial Aid office.

9. Behavior and Program Participation

As a participant in any SLC-approved or administered study abroad program, each student is a representative of St. Lawrence College and of Canada and should deport himself or herself in a manner that reflects favourably on both. In addition to regular classes, the program may include planned lectures and field trips central to the educational experience. All students are expected to participate willingly in such activities in addition to attending the regular classes. St. Lawrence College gives discretion to the sponsoring institution to discipline a student or dismiss him or her from the program for behaviour detrimental to the program and the student. A dismissed student will not receive a refund of any tuition or fees paid.

10. Course Credit Approvals

All courses taken for credit while abroad on a SLC-administered or SLC-approved program must be approved in advance by the program coordinator of the appropriate academic department at SLC before academic credit will be granted by the Registrar. In order for a course to be accepted as a transfer credit the student must achieve a minimum grade of 60%/C- for college courses, or the passing grade for the St. Lawrence College course, whichever is higher. For St. Lawrence College Degree Programs the minimum acceptable grade or level of achievement to qualify for transfer credit is 67% for core courses and 60% for non-core/breadth courses in college degree programs. Performance designations other than letter or percentage (number) grades are not acceptable for transfer credit, such as in the case of work experience, co-op or internship, unless the equivalent SLC course is graded the same. Students must complete the Application for International Transfer Credit form and have it signed by the appropriate program Coordinator (Appendix D)

11. Course Load – Exchange Students

Exchange students must undertake the minimum number of courses for credit that would make them full time students at the institution in which they are studying. Students are encouraged to take courses that can be used for credit in their program, but they may undertake courses during their studies abroad that will not be for credit at St. Lawrence College as part of their full course load at the international institution.

BACKGROUND

Definitions:

GAC means Global Affairs Canada. The risk rating system devised by GAC will be used to assess whether or not staff and students should engage in SLC activities in various regions of the world

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to set standards to enable safe work and study experiences abroad. This will be done by:

- providing a process for approval of international travel for SLC activities;
- providing tools to enable the assessment of any risks associated with individual destinations for SLC activities;
- enabling SLC to better respond to emergency situations; and
- establishing risk management resources to enable employee or student travelers to be informed of and manage the risks associated with travelling abroad.

Scope:

This policy is applicable to any St. Lawrence College employee or student who travels outside Canada for an approved St. Lawrence College activity. These activities may include short or long term study abroad, exchange studies, placements, staff and faculty exchange activities, staff and faculty professional development activities or regular employee duties such as international recruiting.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. Travel Planning and Responsibilities

The SLC International Office will provide resources and support services aimed at facilitating safe travel experiences for employee and student travelers including pre-departure checklists, advising workshops and resource materials.

All employee and student travelers have the primary responsibility to prepare themselves in advance of the international travel, to research and be aware of the risks involved in their planned trip. They must ensure that they are physically and mentally prepared for the travel, ensure they have appropriate medical and other insurance for the travel and conduct themselves in a safe manner while travelling. They must bring any concerns they may have to the attention of the Director/Dean/Associate Dean and/or activity sponsor at the place of travel as well as the SLC International Office as soon as possible after the concern arises. To assist with planning, a planning checklist for employees is attached as Appendix A. Student travelers will find planning guidance and authorization forms in the Study Abroad policy.

St. Lawrence College has no control over international events, and will not be responsible to refund any costs or losses, including the loss of timely academic progress, associated with student travel or the cancellation of student travel.

2. Travel Risk Rating

Global Affairs Canada (GAC) Rating	Definitions	Equivalent SLC Risk Level
Exercise normal security precautions	There are no significant security concerns. GAC advises to exercise normal security precautions in this country or region.	Level 1
Exercise high degree of caution	There are identifiable security concerns and travelers should be alert and vigilant to their surroundings. GAC advises to exercise a high degree of caution in this country – or in specified regions of this country.	Level 2
Avoid non-essential travel	There is a specific security concern, and travelers should reconsider their need to travel at this time. GAC advises against non-essential travel to this country – or specified regions of this country. Travelers without essential reasons to be in this country or specified regions should leave.	Level 3

Avoid all travel	There is an extreme risk to personal safety, and Canadians should not travel at this time. GAC advises against all travel to this country – or specified regions of this country. Canadians in this country or specified regions should leave.	Level 4

<http://travel.gc.ca/travelling/advisories>

3. Travel Authorization

Employees and students may travel for SLC activities to locations with a GAC travel advisory of Level 1 or Level 2 provided that they comply with the conditions and requirements within this policy. Travel must be authorized by the Director/Dean/Associate Dean with the endorsement of the Dean of International Education (or his delegate). International travel authorization for students is covered by the Study Abroad Policy. International travel for employees will be authorized by completion of the Travel Abroad Application Form at Appendix B.

St. Lawrence College will not authorize travel to a country or region of a country with a Level 3 or a Level 4 for students or with a Level 4 for employee travel unless exceptional circumstances exist. Special authorizations will only be granted in exceptional circumstances and must be approved the College Executive Committee on the recommendation of the Incident Management Team.

4. Revocation of Authorization

Notwithstanding a decision to authorize travel, this authorization may be revoked as a result of safety concerns. Such determination must be made in writing by the Director/Dean/Associate Dean and sent to the employee or student, the activity sponsor, the program coordinator (if appropriate) and the SLC International Office.

Should the GAC Travel Advisory Risk Rating of a country or region of a country be increased while employees or students are participating in SLC activities, the SLC International Office will advise the Director/Dean/Associate Dean of all employees and students registered in the St. Lawrence College Safety Abroad Registry within the at-risk region. In this situation employees and students are required to follow the direction of the Director/Dean/Associate Dean and activity sponsor, and may be required to leave the region or country. Students who refuse to follow the instructions of the college will be considered to be on unauthorized travel.

5. Unauthorized Student Travel

When St. Lawrence College has not authorized student travel for a college activity, or when such authorization has been revoked as a result of a safety concern, then if the student continues the travel, he or she will be considered to be travelling as a private citizen and may not claim to be travelling for a SLC activity. This means that no SLC resources can be used or sponsorship provided in support of unauthorized student travel or activity.

In the event that the college becomes aware of such unauthorized travel the appropriate Dean/Associate Dean may take the following measures:

- Suspend or cancel the college activity or the student's participation in the college learning activity
- Suspend or cancel any funding to the student from sources controlled by the college

Subject to applicable laws and with consideration for the college's legal obligation to protect the individual's right to privacy regarding the personal and academic information in its possession, the college may:

- Advise third parties of the student's situation (for example government agencies, or the parents, guardians or next of kin to the student)
- Advise third parties that the student is not travelling under the auspices of St. Lawrence College or with authorization of the college
- With the approval of the appropriate Dean, withdraw the student from registration in, or place the student on leave from, any course or program related to the travel
- With the approval of the appropriate Dean, decline to award academic credit for activities undertaken while travelling
- Impose other restrictions as the appropriate Dean/Associate Dean feels are warranted by the situation

6. Risk Assessment

There are two risk assessment forms attached. Appendix C is a risk assessment form to be used for destinations that are at a travel risk rating of Level 1 or Level 2. Appendix D is a risk assessment form to be used for destinations that are at a travel risk rating of 3 or 4. Everyone travelling abroad must understand the potential risk inherent in their travel and must complete and sign the International Travel Waiver at Appendix E.

7. Changes in Risk Rating

Should an activity risk rating change from Levels 1 or 2 to level 3 or 4 prior to or during the period of travel, the Incident Management Team will be convened to review the risk rating and the activity and to recommend to the College Executive Committee whether the activity should continue, be cancelled (if prior to departure) or if St. Lawrence College employees and/or students should be repatriated prior to the scheduled end of the activity.

8. Immunizations

Employees are to ensure that they have received the immunizations recommended for the destination country and any countries visited enroute. Anyone travelling should consult their family doctor or a foreign travel immunization clinic two to three months prior to departure. The Kingston Travel Vaccination Clinic is located at the Portsmouth Medical Clinic 902, Portsmouth Ave. Kingston.

9. Insurance

Medical insurance:

SLC Employees: Employees must have medical insurance in order to travel abroad. Employees that have extended health care coverage with Sun Life Financial through their employment benefits with the College are covered for emergency medical situations while travelling outside of Canada (Some exclusions apply). This also applies to the eligible dependents of these employees. Employees that have this coverage should obtain a travel card through their online account with Sun Life Financial before travelling. Details on this coverage can be obtained from the HR&OD department of the College. Employees that do not have extended health care coverage can obtain insurance through the college international student insurance provider or through a provider of their choice. Employees may inquire at the SLC international office.

Students: Students must have medical insurance in order to travel abroad. Insurance can be purchased through the college international student insurance provider. Students may inquire at the SLC International office. If students procure insurance from another provider they should still refer to the international office to ensure that they are purchasing sufficient coverage for things like emergency transportation, medical and dental coverage, hospitalization, repatriation and prescription drugs.

Motor vehicle insurance: St. Lawrence College discourages students from operating motor vehicles abroad, but recommends that those employees or students who plan to operate a motor vehicle obtain liability and collision insurance that will cover them in the applicable foreign countries.

Property insurance: St. Lawrence College also recommends that staff and students insure their personal effects from loss or theft while abroad, since out-of-pocket replacement expenses for laptops, iPods, digital cameras, etc. can be quite costly. The college does not accept liability for loss of personal effects while abroad.

10. Emergencies

Should an emergency situation occur while employees or students are outside of Canada on an authorized St. Lawrence College activity, an Incident Management Team will be convened to direct the college resources to assisting college members in need of assistance. Good communications are essential, yet during emergencies communications tend to be difficult and often conflicting. Therefore, the IMT will develop a generic communication protocol prior to any emergency occurring and this protocol will guide communications during an actual emergency.

11. Contacts in Case of Emergency

While you are abroad, your first contact should always be the College Security Services at 613-544-5400 ext. 5555 who will work to meet your needs immediately. They will contact SLC's on-call staff while coordinating services with SLC.

12. Staff Personal Travel

St. Lawrence College employees travelling outside Canada are encouraged to register their travel with the St. Lawrence College Travel Abroad Registry as well as with the GAC Registration of Canadian Abroad (<http://travel.gc.ca/travelling/registration>). Advice may be obtained from members of the SLC International office on specifics of your travel destination on an as-available basis. Staff of the International office have travelled to most destinations and will be happy to share their knowledge. This is not a travel agency service, but is more related to safety, culture and gaining the most from your international travel experience.

Rare	Only occur in exceptional circumstances	1
Unlikely	Could occur in exceptional circumstances	2
Possible	Might occur at some time	3
Likely	Will probably occur in most circumstances	4
Almost Certain	Expected to occur in most circumstances	5

B: Risk Evaluation (Measures of Consequence)
Insignificant	No injuries, low financial loss	1
Minor	First aid treatment, medium financial loss	2
Moderate	Medical treatment required, high financial loss	3
Major	Extensive injuries, major financial loss	4
Catastrophic	Death, huge financial loss	5

C: Risk Management Effectiveness
Weak	Plan is missing or inadequate. Unlikely to mitigate risk effectively.	1

DEFINITIONS

- Research - An undertaking intended to extend knowledge through a disciplined inquiry and/or systematic investigation

PURPOSE

The purpose of this College's policy is to:

1. State the organizational authority under which the SLC-REB is established and empowered;
2. State reporting and administrative support;
3. State the management of the SLC-REB;
4. State the purpose of the SLC-REB;

This includes student course-based research (assigned for pedagogical or training purposes) that involves human participants (referred to as participants) and external researchers that wish to recruit participants or access resources at SLC.

The scope of the SLC-REB's oversight is limited to those activities defined in the TCPS as "research" involving "human participants."

POLICY STATEMENTS

The SLC-REB will maintain and follow all written policies and procedures consistent with federal and provincial regulations, good clinical practice, and ethics guidelines when reviewing proposed research.

1. Statement of Organizational Authority

- 1.1 The President and CEO invested in the SLC-REB the authority to review research involving human participants or human biological materials from living or deceased individuals, conducted within the jurisdiction or under the auspices of the College, in accordance with College policies, the Tri-Council Policy Statement: Ethical Conduct of Research Involving Humans (TCPS) and the Tri-Agency Framework: Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR Framework).
- 1.2 The SLC-REB is established and empowered under the authority of St. Lawrence College. St. Lawrence College requires that all research involving participants be reviewed and approved by the SLC-REB prior to initiation of any research related activities.
- 1.3 St. Lawrence College maintains an arms-length relationship with the SLC-REB. While the SLC-REB is accountable to the SLC President and CEO through the Senior Vice-President, Academic, of St. Lawrence College for ensuring that the correct processes are followed for ethics review, it is independent in its decision-making. The administration of the College may not override negative SLC-REB decisions reached on grounds of non-compliance with research ethics. Similarly, the SLC-REB may not override SLC decisions to not allow certain research within its jurisdiction, even if the SLC-REB has found the research ethically acceptable.

2. Reporting and Administrative Support

2.1 Reporting

The Research Services Officer reports to the Director, Innovations and Business Engagement. An annual report on the operation of the SLC-REB is submitted to St. Lawrence College through the Senior Vice-President, Academic.

2.2 Administration of the SLC-REB

St. Lawrence College is responsible for providing sufficient and ongoing financial and administrative resources to ensure that the SLC-REB can fulfill its mandate.

2.2.1 Administrative Support

The work involved in the ethical review process shall be distributed appropriately among faculty members, staff, researchers, and administrators.

The Senior Vice-President, Academic, will rely on the Research Services Office in providing administrative support to the SLC-REB including:

- Distribution of forms and materials necessary for submission of research proposals to the SLC-REB,
- Collection of submissions and distribution of applications to SLC-REB members,
- Keeping minutes of SLC-REB meetings,
- Storing submissions and related materials in a secure location,
- Supporting the SLC-REB in its educational activities,

- Other duties related to the support of the SLC-REB in carrying out its mandate.

Deans will provide support to the SLC-REB, with respect to:

- Educational activities,
- Ensuring that researchers requiring ethical review are submitting their projects to the SLC-REB,
- Advising their faculty members about the need to comply with the Tri-Council Policy Statement: Ethical Conduct of Research Involving Humans.

Individual Schools are expected to support and train students so that student research projects are ethical, and may be efficiently reviewed by the SLC-REB. Schools should establish a mechanism to screen student applications for ethical review prior to submission to the SLC-REB. The SLC-REB may return applications to the school if they do not conform to the requirements of the TCPS. It is advisable that curriculum committees consider incorporating training in the ethical review process into the academic programs where it is needed.

3. Management of the SLC-REB

Individual members of the SLC-REB must be qualified through training, experience and expertise to ascertain the acceptability of proposed research in terms of ethical principles, and applicable regulations, guidelines and standards pertaining to human participant protection.

To promote complete and adequate review of the type of research commonly reviewed by the SLC-REB, the SLC-REB must include appropriate diversity; therefore, selection of members must include a consideration of professional expertise (including both scientific and non-scientific) to assess the research submitted for review. Important considerations are also race, sex, cultural backgrounds, clinical and research experience, organizational affiliation, and sensitivity to such issues as broad representation from organizations served by the SLC-REB.

- take any actions considered reasonably necessary, and consistent with policies and procedures, to ensure the protection of the rights, safety, and well-being of participants in research conducted under the SLC-REB's jurisdiction.

7. Reconsideration of SLC-REB Decisions

Researchers have the right to request, and the SLC-REB has an obligation to provide, reconsideration of decisions affecting a research project.

- When the SLC-REB is considering a negative decision, it shall provide the researcher with all the reasons for the decision and give the researcher an opportunity to reply before making a final decision.
- SLC may not override SLC-REB decisions reached on grounds of ethics without a formal appeal mechanism.

8. Appeals

Researchers must apply to the Senior Vice-President, Academic, to appeal a negative SLC-REB decision within two months of the date of the decision.

- A copy of the appeal letter should also be sent to the SLC-REB Chair.
- The College shall use a duly constituted REB at Georgian College as its Appeal Board.
- Noncompliance with the current version of the TCPS is a reason for refusing to grant an appeal.
- Appeals may be granted only on procedural grounds or when there is a significant disagreement over an interpretation of the TCPS.

PREAMBLE

St. Lawrence College champions applied research activities that will serve to enhance academic professional growth, student learning, innovation and economic development. The College recognizes that teaching and applied research will flourish in a climate of academic freedom.

Since the conditions for proper teaching and applied research differ depending on the discipline, it is the duty of individual investigators to assume responsibility for the intellectual and ethical quality of their work.

The College has developed this policy to communicate expectations, increase awareness of integrity issues, and encourage scholars (be they students, faculty or staff) to assume personal responsibility for their actions. The College expects all researchers to adhere to this policy.

BACKGROUND

On April 11th, 2008, then SLC President and CEO, Chris Whitaker, signed the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Federal Granting Agency (Agency), specifically, the Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council (NSERC). By signing the MOU, the President and CEO committed the College and its researchers (regardless of whether their research is Agency funded or not) to complying with the most current versions of the Tri-Agency policies: the Tri-Agency Framework: Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR Framework) and the Tri-Council Policy Statement: Ethical Conduct of Research Involving Humans (TCPS).

DEFINITIONS

- Allegation: A declaration, statement, or assertion communicated in writing to an institution or Agency to the effect that there has been, or continues to be, a breach of one or more Agency policies or modes of behavior, the validity of which has not been established.
- Breach: A breach of the RCR Framework is the failure to comply with any Agency policy throughout the life cycle of a research project – from application for funding, to the conduct of the research and the dissemination of research results. It includes all activities related to the research, including the management of Agency funds. For examples of breaches.
- Complainant: An individual or representative from an organization who has notified an institution or Agency of a potential breach.
- Conflict of interest: A conflict of interest may arise when activities or situations place an individual in a real, potential or perceived conflict between the duties or responsibilities related to research, and personal, institutional or other interests. These interests include, but are not limited to, business, commercial or financial interests pertaining to the individual, their family members, friends, or their former, current or prospective professional associates.

- Inquiry: The process of reviewing an allegation to determine whether the allegation is responsible, the particular policy or policies that may have been breached, and whether an investigation is warranted based on the information provided in the allegation.
- Investigation: A systematic process, conducted by an institution's investigation committee, of examining an allegation, collecting and examining the evidence related to the allegation, and making a decision as to whether a breach of a policy(ies) has occurred.
- Research: An undertaking intended to extend knowledge through a disciplined inquiry or systematic investigation.¹
- Respondent: An individual who is identified in an allegation as having possibly breached Agency and/or institutional policy.
- Serious breach: In determining whether a breach is serious, the Agency will consider the extent to which the breach jeopardizes the safety of the public or brings the conduct of research into disrepute. This determination will be based on an assessment of the nature of the breach, the level of experience of the researcher, whether there is a pattern of breaches by the researcher, and other factors as appropriate. Examples of serious breaches may include:
 - recruiting human participants into a study with significant risks or harms without Research Ethics Board approval, or not following approved protocols;
 - using animals in a study with significant risks or harms without Animal Care Committee approval, or not following approved protocols;
 - deliberate misuse of research grant funds for personal benefit not related to research;
 - knowingly publishing research results based on fabricated data;
 - obtaining grant/award funds from the Agencies by misrepresenting one's credentials, qualifications and/or research contributions in an application.

¹ Research is an undertaking intended to extend knowledge through a disciplined inquiry and/or systematic investigation. The conduct of research in the context of this RCR Framework includes applying for and managing Agency funds, performing research, and disseminating results (based on the 2nd edition of the Tri-Council Policy Statement: Ethical Conduct of Research Involving Humans [TCPS2]).

PURPOSE

The purpose of this College's policy is to:

1. Promote scholarly integrity among researchers;
2. Proscribe activities that breach generally acceptable standards of scholarly conduct; and
3. Provide a process for dealing with allegations of scholarly misconduct.

SCOPE:

This policy applies to all researchers conducting research under the auspices St. Lawrence College, irrespective of the source of financial support (if any) or the location of the project. It applies to all allegations and complaints of misconduct in research and scholarship against any non-student member of the College community including faculty, staff, research assistants, and visiting researchers, irrespective of the present source of their salary or stipend. Allegations against students are governed by the procedures dealing with Academic Honesty and Integrity found in the SLC Academic Policy Manual.

SECTION A. POLICY STATEMENTS

The College holds researchers responsible for conducting their research in strict observance of ethical standards according to the most current versions of Tri-Agency Framework: Responsible Conduct of Research and the Tri-Council Policy Statement: Ethical Conduct of Research Involving Humans, as well as the following modes of behavior.

Researchers shall:

1. Employ scholarly and scientific rigour and integrity in obtaining, recording and analyzing data, retaining data, and in reporting and publishing results;
2. Recognize the substantive contributions of all collaborators;
3. Use archival material in accordance with the rules of the archival source;
4. Ensure that authorship of published work includes all persons who have materially contributed to, and share responsibility for, the contents of the publication, and only those persons;
5. Obtain the written permission of the author before using new information, concepts or data originally obtained through access to confidential manuscripts or applications for funds for research or training that may have been seen as a result of processes such as peer review;
6. Seek and obtain the required certificates and approvals before engaging in any research involving human participants, animals, or biohazardous materials.
7. Comply fully with the approved research protocols in the performance of the research;
8. Comply with SLC financial policies and funding agencies' or sponsors' administration of funds requirements as they apply to grant and contract research, ensuring good stewardship of financial resources;
9. Report in writing to the College any material financial conflict of interest in a company that contracts with the College to undertake research, particularly research involving the company's products. Material financial interest includes ownership, substantial stock holding, directorship, significant honoraria or consulting fees, but does not include minor stock holding in a large, publicly traded company; and,

10. Report in writing to sponsors, this and other colleges, journals or funding agencies, any material conflict of interest, financial or other, that might influence their decision on whether the individual should be asked to review manuscripts or application, test products or be permitted to undertake work sponsored from outside sources.

Researchers shall not:

1. Be dishonest or deceitful;
2. Fabricate or falsify data or results;
3. Plagiarize or use unpublished work of other researchers and scholars without permission and without due acknowledgment;

A breach in research integrity and scholarship includes, but is not limited to, any deviation from the modes of behaviour listed above or as outlined in the Tri-Agency Framework: Responsible Conduct of Research and the Tri-Council Policy Statement: Ethical Conduct of Research Involving Humans. The College investigates allegations of scholarly misconduct in a timely, impartial, and accountable manner. The College will take appropriate action when it finds that scholarly misconduct or a breach has occurred, including any necessary steps to preserve evidence.

If it is found that there is a continuum of behaviours ranging from incompetence to harmful negligence, from carelessness to deliberate dishonesty, then the Senior Vice-President, Academic, acting on behalf of the President and CEO of St. Lawrence College, is authorized to take the necessary disciplinary actions against the researcher(s) (including dismissal and legal actions) to rectify any harm done.

1. Promotion of Integrity in Research and Scholarship

- 1.1 SLC has developed Institutional Guidelines (see Section B below) for researchers on supervision of research personnel, data gathering, storage and retention, and authorship, including student contributors.
- 1.2 The College recognizes that integrity in research and scholarship is best encouraged by developing awareness among all involved of the need for the highest standards of integrity, accountability and responsibility.
- 1.3 Deans and Associate Deans shall provide an environment conducive to this goal and actively promote this policy and the Institutional Guidelines, in particular to new faculty members, research staff, and research trainees.

2. Allegations

- 2.1 All allegations shall be forwarded to the Senior Vice-President, Academic.
- 2.2 Where a Respondent is the Senior Vice-President, Academic, all allegations shall in respect of all Respondents be forwarded to the SLC President and CEO who shall then be responsible for ensuring that these procedures are followed with such variations as are necessary.

3. Responsibilities of the Senior Vice-President, Academic

- 3.1 The Senior Vice-President, Academic, may delegate any function specified in these procedures but is ultimately responsible for ensuring that the procedures are complied with, and that all allegations and complaints are properly investigated, documented and disposed. However, where the Senior Vice-President, Academic, personally formulates the complaint in writing, another Senior Vice-President from the College shall be responsible for ensuring compliance with this provision.

St. Lawrence College

Research Integrity Policy [CR502]

4. Authority of the Senior Vice-President, Academic

The Senior Vice-President, Academic, has the authority to:

- i. close down facilities used for research;
- ii. protect the administration of College and outside funds involved in the research;
- iii. obtain and retain relevant documentation (e.g., lab notes, computer disks, hard drives) related to an investigation;
- iv. request that members of the College Community appear before a Preliminary Inquiry Committee or a Research Integrity Investigation Committee and answer the Committee's questions or supply materials to it.

5. Formal Complaint Procedures

Formal procedures for the investigation of allegations of a breach of research integrity or scholarly misconduct are essential to assure the protection of the rights of all those involved in the case until the basis of the allegations can be examined and a resolution of the problem can be determined.

- 5.1 Instances of alleged breaches in research may be resolvable through informal consultation; departments are encouraged to establish mechanisms for such informal resolution. It is acknowledged that there may be a power imbalance in the relationship between the parties (e.g., between a student and a supervisor) that might prevent this. If the complaint is not carried beyond this stage, the College shall maintain no written record of the names of the parties or of the precise particulars of the allegation.
- 5.2 On receipt of an allegation of a possible breach in research or scholarly misconduct, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall determine if it is possible to formulate a complaint in writing. Such a complaint may be formulated by any person who has reviewed the relevant documentation, including the Senior Vice-President, Academic. If for any reason a complaint in writing cannot be formulated, then no further steps shall be taken against the Respondent under these procedures.

Research Integrity Policy [CR502]

Attachment:

- 5.3 Anonymous allegations will not normally be considered; however if compelling evidence is received anonymously by the VP Academic, the investigation process may be initiated.
- 5.4 All complaints of breaches or scholarly misconduct must be put in writing.
- 5.5 A complaint shall identify the complainant and provide sufficient information to enable the Respondent to understand the alleged breach or scholarly misconduct that is under investigation. Complainant's identity will be kept confidential unless that person has explicitly agreed to waive confidentiality.
- 5.6 Whereas the Senior Vice-President, Academic, determines it necessary for a proper evaluation or resolution of the complaint to be achieved that the complainant or any person who supports the complaint be identified, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, or the designee, will obtain in writing explicit consent to reveal the identity of the complainant and/or party.
- 5.7 As soon as possible after a complaint has been formulated in writing, and in any event within ten days of receipt of an allegation, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall create a Preliminary Inquiry Committee (PIC) consisting of three members to conduct the inquiry into the allegation(s).
- 5.8 The Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall forthwith upon sending a complaint to a PIC send a copy of the complaint to the Respondent. The letter to the Respondent shall also include the composition of the PIC. The Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall also send a letter to any person who is identified in the complaint to inform them of the preliminary inquiry.
- 5.9 Any objection by the Complainant or the Respondent to the composition of the PIC and its ability to conduct an impartial inquiry shall be made to the Senior Vice-President, Academic, within seven days. The disposition of any such objection by the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall be final.

6. Preliminary Inquiry Committee

6.1 The Preliminary Inquiry Committee (PIC) shall consist of:

- three experienced members from the SLC Community with the requisite expertise to address the issues involved to conduct the initial inquiry;
- all at arms-length from both the person(s) alleging misconduct and the Respondent; and
- the PIC shall elect one of its members as Chair.

6.2 The PIC shall proceed informally and in complete confidentiality to determine whether or not the complaint warrants an investigation.

6.3 The PIC shall advise the Respondent in sufficient detail of the evidence being considered by the PIC and shall invite the Respondent, accompanied by an advisor if the Respondent so desires, to meet with it and respond to that evidence orally and/or in writing.

6.4 Prior to receiving evidence from any person not already identified in the complaint in writing, the PIC shall obtain written consent from any person that it deems necessary in the interests of achieving a resolution to reveal that person's identity to the Respondent.

6.5 Within thirty days of being appointed, the PIC shall complete its inquiry and shall determine whether or not it finds that the complaint warrants an investigation.

6.6 The PIC's inquiry findings:

- Shall be reported in writing to the Senior Vice-President, Academic;
- Shall provide the Senior Vice-President, Academic, with the information used to reach its decision, which the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall convey to any subsequent Research Integrity Investigation Committee; and

Attachment:

- 6.6 If the complaint is not found to be a serious breach (e.g., carelessness would not warrant an investigation), the PIC may recommend to the Senior Vice-President, Academic, a way to resolve the complaint.
- 6.7 If the PIC reports that the complaint does not warrant an investigation, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall advise the Respondent and any person identified in the complaint that the complaint is dismissed.

7. Research Integrity Investigation Committee

- 7.1 Upon being advised by the PIC that there is a complaint warranting an investigation, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall within 10 days appoint a Research Integrity Investigation Committee (RIIC) to conduct the investigation.
- 7.2 The Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall inform in writing the Respondent, the Complainant, and any person identified in the complaint, of their rights and the ensuing investigation by the RIIC.
- 7.3 Any objection to the composition of the RIIC and its ability to conduct an impartial inquiry shall be made to the Senior Vice-President, Academic, within seven days. The disposition of any such objection by the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall be final.
- 7.4 The RIIC shall forthwith thereafter communicate with the Complainant, the Respondent, and any person identified in the complaint of the composition of that RIIC and its process of investigation.
- 7.5 The Research Integrity Investigation Committee shall consist of:
- three experienced members who did not serve on the PIC to conduct the initial inquiry;
 - at least one external to SLC, with the requisite expertise to address the issues involved;

Research Integrity Policy [CR502]

Attachment:

- all at arms-length from both the person(s) alleging misconduct and the Respondent; and
- the RIIC shall elect one of its members as Chair.

7.6 In cases of collaborative research involving other institutions, it may be desirable to conduct either parallel investigations or a joint investigation, with appropriate changes to the procedures outlined below. Whichever method is chosen, SLC will cooperate fully with other institutions.

7.7 The RIIC has the authority to see any College documents and question any students or members of faculty and staff during its investigation.

7.8 The RIIC may seek impartial expert opinions, as necessary and appropriate, to ensure the investigation is thorough and authoritative.

7.9 The RIIC shall review all scholarly activity with which the Respondent has been involved during the period of time considered pertinent in relation to the allegation, including any abstracts, papers or other methods of scholarly communication. A special audit of accounts may also be performed on the sponsored research accounts of the Respondent.

7.1.0 The RIIC shall ensure that it is cognizant of all real or apparent conflicts of interest on the part of those involved in the inquiry, including both the Respondent and those making the allegations.

7.1.1 The RIIC shall provide the opportunity for a person who made an allegation leading to the complaint, accompanied by an advisor, if desired, to address it in speech or in writing.

7.1.2 The RIIC shall advise the Respondent in sufficient detail of the evidence being considered by the RIIC and shall invite the Respondent, accompanied by an advisor if the Respondent so desires, to meet with it and respond fully to that evidence orally and/or in writing.

7.1.3 Within sixty days (60) of determining that an investigation is warranted, the RIIC shall complete its investigation and submit its written report to the Senior Vice-President,

St. Lawrence College

Research Integrity Policy [CR502]

Academic. The report shall detail the full allegation(s), the investigative steps taken by the RIIC, including the individuals with whom it communicated and what their evidence was, its finding of whether or not scholarly misconduct occurred, and, if so, its extent and seriousness, and any remedial action it is recommending. For example:

- withdrawing all pending relevant publications;
- notifying editors of publications in which the involved research was reported;
- ensuring that the school(s) involved is informed about appropriate practices for promoting the proper conduct of research.

7.1.4 The Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall, upon receipt of the report, forthwith as appropriate:

- a) Advise the Respondent and any person identified to the Respondent that the complaint is dismissed;
- b) Advise the Respondent and any person identified to the Respondent that the complaint is substantiated as misconduct which can appropriately be dealt with under the existing disciplinary powers of the Senior Vice-President, Academic;
- c) Advise the Respondent and any person identified to the Respondent that the complaint is substantiated as a gross misconduct in research and scholarship. This means that the conduct is judged to be deliberate or reckless, going beyond negligence, and of sufficient gravity to justify the initiation of dismissal proceedings. The Senior Vice-President, Academic, will then refer the matter to the SLC President and CEO for further proceedings in accordance with College employment policies for Academic Staff.

7.1.5 Where the complaint is not substantiated, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, in consultation with the Respondent and the RIIC, shall take all reasonable steps to repair any damage that the Respondent's reputation for scholarly integrity may have suffered by virtue of the complaint.

7.1.6 Whatever the outcome, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall also take all reasonable steps to mitigate the consequences of the process for individuals who have been unintentionally adversely affected by it.

8. Materials from the PIC and the RIIC

- 8.1 The Chairs of both committees shall keep copies of all material, records and notes of interviews with individuals involved in a secure and confidential manner and hand them over to the Senior Vice-President, Academic, along with their committee reports. The reports and related materials shall be stored for a period of seven years in a secure location at the College.
- 8.2 No person shall make any use of the reports or any part of the related materials save for the purposes of these procedures or for related purposes respecting terms and conditions of employment.

9. Appeals

- 9.1 A Respondent whose appointment is covered by the SLC Collective Agreement may appeal in accordance with that Agreement.
- 9.2 For other Respondents, appeals shall be made to the SLC President and CEO who will form an Appeal Committee (AC) to hear the appeal. The President and CEO's decision on the appeal is final and binding.

10. Notification of Funding Agencies

- 10.1 When a Preliminary Inquiry Committee has completed its inquiry and reports to the Senior Vice-President, Academic, that an investigation is warranted, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall inform any granting agency or sponsor of the research and scholarship in question of this finding if either:
 - i The granting agency or sponsor requests this information; or
 - ii When all reporting of such findings are required by the granting agency's or sponsor's policies as they existed at the time of the signing of the grant or sponsorship.

10.2 When the Research Integrity Investigation Committee has completed its investigation and reports its conclusions to the Senior Vice-President, Academic, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall inform any granting agency or sponsor, that has already been informed under the clause 10.1 (above), of the conclusion of the investigation.

10.3 Furthermore, where the RIIC decision is that a serious breach or a gross misconduct is substantiated, the Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall within 30 days provide the RIIC report and decision regarding discipline/remedies to the appropriate granting agency or sponsor, and may inform other stakeholders in the interests of protecting the integrity of research and scholarship.

11. Institutional Responsibility

Whenever a RIIC concludes that a serious breach or gross misconduct is substantiated, appropriate arrangements shall be made to ensure that all other research and scholarship previously undertaken by the Respondent at this College is evaluated to determine its integrity.

12. Good Faith

In all proceedings leading to and following a final decision, the College will undertake to assure that those making an allegation in good faith and without demonstrably malicious intent are protected from reprisals or harassment. False allegations made purposefully will give lead to discipline for the individual making the allegation by the College.

13. Reporting to the Academic Council

13.1 The Senior Vice-President, Academic, shall provide an annual report summarizing the facts of cases of serious breaches or scholarly misconduct and their disposition to the Academic Council.

13.2 A copy of this report shall also be forwarded to the granting agencies.

SECTION B. INSTITUTIONAL GUIDELINES

1. Supervision of Research Personnel

The Principal Investigator (PI) has ultimate responsibility for a research project, funded or unfunded, and for careful supervision which considers the best interest of the research project, the research team, the institution, the research sponsor, the academic community, and the public. Accordingly, the PI(s) must:

- a. Provide effective and appropriate supervision of all aspects of the project;
- b. Ensure effective communication and continuous supervision of all aspects of the project, and an appropriate ratio of research personnel, especially students, to the Principal Investigator(s);
- c. Review, edit, and approve the design of the research and the processes of acquiring, recording, examining, interpreting, and storing data;
- d. Edit all research reports prior to publication;
- e. Provide each new member of the research team with applicable governmental and institutional requirements for the conduct of studies involving human participants, animals, radioactive or other hazardous substances or recombinant DNA, the College's Policies and Guidelines for the Ethical Conduct of Research, and any other information directly relevant to the research activity;
- f. Clarify the relationship among members of the research team which may include a Memorandum of Understanding outlining roles and responsibilities;
- g. Hold regular collegial discussions among all personnel in a research team in order to contribute to the scholarly efforts of members, monitor progress, and provide informal review.

Research Integrity Policy [CR502]

Attachment:

2. Data Collection, Transmission, Storage, and Retention

The PI is responsible for the collection, management and retention of research data. The management of accurately recorded and retrievable results is essential to any research project. Accordingly:

- PIs should adopt an orderly system of data organization and should communicate the chosen system to all members of a research team and to the appropriate administrative personnel, where applicable;
- All research data shall be appropriately recorded in a manner that allows verification of its authenticity and accuracy;
- If research data contains sensitive, confidential, or private information, then it must be appropriately safeguarded to ensure its protection;
- If research data contains sensitive, confidential, or private information and it is to be transported on a mobile device (USB key, laptop, external hard drive, cellular phone, recording device, etc.) the data must be encrypted and the mobile device must be password protected;
- If research data contains sensitive, confidential, or private information and it is transmitted digitally, it must be encrypted;
- Research data shall be retained for a period of time that is either determined by the research discipline, research purpose, or kind of data involved, or stipulated by a funding agency, sponsor, regulation, journal, professional standard (e.g., Canada Revenue Agency and the Tri-Agency require a minimum of 7 years; Health Canada requires 25 years for registered clinical trials; most hospitals and some professions require 10 years; while most publications require only 5 years).
- The PI is responsible for knowing the data retention period requirements for their research project and for ensuring the secure, long term, storage of their research data.

St. Lawrence College

Attachment:

3. Access

The PI will determine (usually in agreement with the research team) who on the research team will have access to the research data. Those identified must be listed on a research project's approved ethics application.

- 3.1 The PI may also share the research data for the sole purpose of aiding the research project with anyone who has signed a Confidentiality Agreement.
- 3.2 The PI may share the research data with another researcher for the purpose of a secondary use of it as long as the P.I. complies with the Tri-Council Policy Statement: Ethical Conduct of Research Involving Humans requirements concerning the secondary use of data.
- 3.3 Where a Data Sharing Agreement is signed by the PI, (e.g., community-based participatory research project with a First-Nation community, sponsored research) ownership and control of the research data may be shared or retained by the original owner or sponsor;
- 3.4 The PI shall permit monitoring and auditing by the College, a sponsor, and inspection by the appropriate regulatory authorities.
- 3.5 Where necessary to ensure needed and appropriate access, for example, to facilitate a response to an allegation of research misconduct, the College has the option to take custody of the data in a manner specified by the Senior Vice-President, Academic.

4. Data Access Disputes

- 4.1 If a dispute arises concerning a researcher's access to data, an initial effort to resolve the dispute will be made to the Chair of the St. Lawrence College Research Ethics Board.
- 4.2 Any subsequent appeals will be forwarded to the Senior Vice-President, Academic, or their designee.

Research Integrity Policy [CR502]

5. Transfer in the Event a Researcher Leaves St. Lawrence College

- 5.1 When individuals involved in research projects at SLC leave the College, they may take copies of research data for projects on which they have worked. Original data, however, must be retained at SLC by the PI.
- 5.2 If a PI leaves SLC, and a project is to be moved to another institution, ownership of the data may be transferred with the approval of the Senior Vice-President, Academic, and with a written Institutional Authorization Agreement from the PI's new institution that guarantees: 1) its acceptance of custodial responsibilities for the data, and 2) St. Lawrence College's access to the data, should that become necessary.

6. Authorship

The attribution of authorship in all research publications must accurately reflect the intellectual contributions of all members of a research team.

6.1 Eligibility

- a. The co-authors of a publication are all those persons who have made significant intellectual contributions to the results. An administrative relationship to the investigation does not by itself qualify a person for co-authorship. Authorship decisions should not be affected by whether participants were paid for their contributions, or by their employment status. The author who submits a manuscript or report for publication is responsible for including all appropriate co-authors, for sending each co-author a draft copy of the manuscript for comment, and for obtaining consent on co-authorship, including the order of names.
- b. Purely formal association with a research project, such as the directorship of a laboratory or an administrative position in a School, does not constitute authorship, but may be recognized in an acknowledgement. General supervision of the research group, technical help, data collection, or critical reviews of manuscripts or reports prior to publication are not sufficient for authorship, but may be acknowledged in a separate paragraph. There shall be no honorary co-authorship. Authorship must be based entirely on significant intellectual, professional or immediate supervisory contribution. Other contributions should be indicated in a footnote or in an Acknowledgements section.

6.2 Student Contributors

- a. In student/professor collaborations as co-authors of a joint publication, both should:
 - i. Make a significant scholarly contribution that is creative and intellectual in nature;
 - ii. Be integral to the completion of the paper or report.
- b. A student should be granted due prominence on the list of co-authors for any multiple authored article or report that is based primarily on the student's own work, according to the commonly accepted practice in the field.

6.3 Resolution of Conflict

In the event of a conflict between co-authors on technical content, number of co-authors, or order of names in co-authorship, every attempt should be made to resolve the matter informally. If unavoidable, mediation by the Senior Vice-President, Academic, may be required. In case the conflict cannot be resolved, the conflict must be reported to the Academic Council.

MONITORING

St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources usable by all people, whatever their abilities or disabilities. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

Background

Definitions:

Student-of-Concern: any student for whom their physical, psychological or other condition and their associated behaviour is such that they may be, or have become, a risk or threat to themselves, others, the educational process, and/or the St. Lawrence College community in general.

Purpose:

St. Lawrence College is committed to providing a positive and safe learning environment. The College has the right and responsibility to address the behaviour of a student-of-concern in order to ensure the student is fit for academic life and/or to protect that student and/or other members of the College or local community from risks or significant impact posed by their behaviour, whether or not a violation under the Student Code of Conduct has occurred.

Scope:

This policy applies to all St. Lawrence College students and to all learning and community experiences associated with St. Lawrence College which students participate in. This includes, but is not limited to: classroom participation; on-campus interactions; interactions within College Residence; placements; co-curricular and volunteer activities; practicums; etc...).

Policy Statements

1. When the behaviour of a student gives rise to a threat or risk of harm to the student (themselves) or to others, poses significant threat or risk to property, causes significant disruption to or interference with the educational process, interferes with the lawful and proper activities or functions of the institution, its staff and/or members of the campus community, including the Residence community, or suggests that the student is unable to engage in the basic required activities to obtain an education, the institution will respond in a manner deemed appropriate to the situation which may include involuntarily withdrawal of a student.

2. A student has a right to procedural fairness. Any time there is an impact on a student's status at the College, based on concerns that are brought forward as a result of this process, procedural fairness will include:
 - the right to be made aware of and given an opportunity to respond to, correct or contradict information available, in person and/or in writing;
 - the right to have a decision reviewed based on the conditions outlined in the Decision Review for Non-Academic Involuntary Withdrawal Procedures; and
 - the right to request an advisor or support person be present at any meeting, if desired.

This process will make every reasonable effort to involve and support the student in order to enable them to continue their studies.

3. If a student refuses or is unable to manage identified physical, psychological and/or other conditions, or to cooperate with the College's reasonable efforts to evaluate health conditions, the student may be involuntarily withdrawn from the College.
4. The College acknowledges that it has a duty to accommodate a student with a learning, psychological or physical disability, in accordance with provincial law and College policy. Accommodation of students with disabilities should be made in accordance with the following principles: respect for dignity, individualized accommodation, and inclusion and full participation. The College acknowledges its duty to accommodate up to the point of undue hardship, and does so while recognizing its obligation to protect the health and safety of individuals and the College community. The student seeking accommodation has a corresponding responsibility to make full disclosure of the functional limitations of their disability and to cooperate with the College in making appropriate accommodation for them, including advising College officials of the need for accommodation, cooperating with College officials in the accommodation process and providing medical or other requested information relating to the disability and the required accommodation.

APPENDIX A

Roles and Responsibilities

1. If an employee or stakeholder of the College identifies a student-of-concern, the individual will alert security in cases of imminent threat and proceed with notifying the Behavioural Intervention Team (BIT).
2. The BIT is to facilitate coordinated response and provide recommendations on follow-up and/or support to the student-of-concern.
3. The decision to involuntarily withdraw a student for non-academic reasons will be made by the Vice President, Student Services, on the recommendation of the BIT. Authority for communicating this decision can be delegated to the Director, Student Services.

APPENDIX B

Procedural Considerations

1. The College may impose interim measures while a review of the student's case is ongoing and an appropriate response is being formulated. Interim measures may include preventing or limiting a student from being on-campus or participating in some or all College-related activities.
2. In addressing situations involving a student-of-concern, and in applying this policy, the College will provide a response appropriate to address the situation. Responses may include, but are not limited to:
 - an offer of appropriate support or referral;
 - a support agreement;
 - a behaviour contract;
 - Wellness agreement;
 - referral of the case through the St. Lawrence College Behavioural Intervention Team (BIT);
 - immediate interim measures, including interim suspension or interim restrictions on the student's access to campus or participation in academic or campus life;
 - development of a modified academic learning plan for the student;
 - voluntary withdrawal, which allows for a student and support person to be actively involved in setting the terms of withdrawal and return. Where possible, this option will be provided to the student before an Involuntary Withdrawal is initiated; or
 - involuntary withdrawal: In some circumstances, withdrawing a student may be the most effective and appropriate course of action to address the situation.
3. Prior to requiring involuntary withdrawal the College will make every reasonable effort to support the student to enable them to continue their studies

4. If a student is being withdrawn, the College will notify the student of its decision in writing. If applicable, this will include the earliest date by which the student may apply for re-admission, the process for applying for re-admission, and any conditions for re-admission, and/or on-going conditions if re-admitted. Such conditions may include but are not limited to a medical, psychological or psychiatric report confirming fitness to participate in academic and campus life, in addition to evidence supporting that any other conditions imposed have been fulfilled. The College acknowledges that each situation will be determined on an individual basis, and any additional conditions (including but not limited to a behavioural contract, wellness agreement and/or requirement to meet with specific College staff), will be communicated to the student in question. The resulting term grades for a student being withdrawn will be determined on a case-by-case basis considering, in part, the point in the term that the student is being withdrawn. Fee refunds will be considered in exceptional circumstances, on a case-by-case basis, considering, in part, any medical documentation and the circumstances leading to the withdrawal.
5. In circumstances where a student residing in a St. Lawrence College Residence is deemed to be a risk or threat to themselves or other students, the Director, Student Services in conjunction with the Director of Residence Services, may impose, as an interim measure, an immediate and indefinite withdrawal from residence. An indefinite withdrawal requires the student to leave residence until a determination has been made about the next steps for responding. After consultation with the BIT and/or the Director, Student Services, Residence Services will advise the student whether the withdrawal is lifted or converted to an eviction from Residence, along with any special conditions.
6. The student is allowed to have a support person assist them during this process.
7. A review of any decision made under this policy will follow the review process as outlined in the Decision Review for Non-Academic Involuntary Withdrawal Procedure.

APPENDIX C

Privacy and Confidentiality Considerations

St. Lawrence College personnel strive to protect the personal information of its students, and to exercise discretion at all times. If it is not necessary, personal information will not be shared. However, as outlined by the Privacy Commissioner in the “Emergency Disclosure of Personal Information by Universities, Colleges and other Educational Institutions” [excerpt]:

“In emergency situations, privacy laws in Ontario do not prohibit universities, colleges or other educational institutions from responsibly disclosing a student’s personal information, including information about their mental, emotional, or other health conditions, to parents or others who may be able to help in a crisis.”

Ontario’s Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (Ontario FIPPA)

Ontario PHIPA also permits disclosure “for the purpose of contacting a relative, friend or potential substitute decision-maker of the individual, if the individual is injured, incapacitated or ill and unable to give consent personally.”

Ontario FIPPA contains similar emergency disclosure provisions that allow student residence advisors, school counsellors, and other personnel to disclose a student’s information, without consent, where they become aware of compelling circumstances affecting the health or safety of an individual or others. This includes serious mental health concerns or threats of violence.

APPENDIX D

Decision Review for Non-Academic Involuntary Withdrawal Procedure

Purpose:

St. Lawrence College strives to foster a community of care wherein students are supported to succeed personally and academically. Occasionally circumstances interfere with an individual’s ability to accomplish this, impacting their own learning and, at times, the learning environment of those around them. The College has the right and responsibility to address the behaviour of a student-of-concern in order to ensure the student is fit for academic life and/or to protect that student and/or other members of the College or local community from risks or significant impact posed by their behaviour, whether or not a violation under the Student Code of Conduct has occurred. The student has the right to have a decision reviewed as outlined in this procedure.

Definitions:

None

Procedures:

1. Students must submit a request for review in writing to the Vice President, Student Services, within ten (10) business days of confirmed receipt of the decision.
2. The Vice President, Student Services or designate will determine if the request for review is accepted and confirm the decision in writing within seven (7) business days after confirmed receipt of the written review request.
3. A decision to deny a review is final and the student will have exhausted all available means of review at St. Lawrence College.
4. If the review is granted, the Vice-President, Student Services will determine the appropriate administrative officer to do so, and the student will be informed of the process.
5. Filing or receiving a request for review does not suspend the decision under review.

6. If the Office of Safety and Security deems a student a risk to self or others, the student will not be permitted on campus, with the exception of any designated meetings, until the review process is completed.
7. Where possible, students may resume regular or modified participation in their academic pursuits during a review process on approval of the Vice-President, Student Services or designate.
8. When a review is conducted, the decision of that process is final and the student will have exhausted all available means of review at St. Lawrence College.

Appendix 5: SLC Service Animal Policy [dev. 2019]

CR303: Service Animal Policy

Policy Title:	Service Animal Policy
Policy Number:	CR303
Owner:	Student Services
Approved by:	CLT
Effective Date:	May 2019
Reference:	N/A
Links to Other Policy:	N/A

St. Lawrence College is committed to making our resources usable by all people, whatever their abilities or disabilities. This document will be made available in alternative format upon request.

Background

As per the Ontario Human Rights Code and the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, St. Lawrence College has a duty to accommodate a person with a disability accompanied by a guide/signal dog or a service animal. Accommodations for service animals will be implemented on a case-by-case basis based on medical documentation verifying the need for a service animal, or in the case of guide dogs as defined by the Blind Persons' Rights Act, by providing the appropriate identification cards. Accommodation Letters with respect to the use of a service animal will be issued by the College.

Definitions:

Service Animal An animal is a service animal for a person with a disability,

- (a) if it is readily apparent that the animal is used by the person for reasons relating to their disability; or
- (b) if the person provides medical documentation from a physician or other regulated health professional confirming that the person requires the animal for reasons relating to a disability along with functional limitation information related to the disability.

Partner A person with a disability who uses a service animal.

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to provide the College community with guidelines for the use of service animals on St. Lawrence College Campuses.

Scope:

This policy applies to the College community, which includes students, staff, volunteers and visitors and the general public.

Policy Statements

1. The College enforces a no-animal/no-pet policy in its residence halls and Campus facilities. Exceptions are made on a case-by-case basis for service animals and as noted in policy statement #2. Where the need for a service animal is not readily apparent, accommodated exceptions for animals are based on functional limitations outlined in medical documentation confirming the requirement for the service animal.
2. Animals used in College labs (i.e. Veterinary Assistant / Technology programs, etc...), College learning enterprises (i.e. Scruffy Dog Salon) or for approved college events involving animals (i.e. Therapy Tails) are exempt from this policy; animals used for these purposes will have their on-campus presence solely limited to the times and locations of said approved purpose or event.
3. The College reserves the right to enforce all relevant rules for the use of service animals, through the Student Code of Conduct and applicable laws. The College also reserves the right to revoke permission granted for the Campus presence of any animal ('excluded / exclusion') whose partner fails to follow the requirements set forth in this policy and associated procedures.
4. A service animal may be excluded when any one of the following conditions exists:
 - The animal is disruptive and the partner is not effectively controlling it.
 - The animal's presence, behaviour or actions pose an unreasonable or direct threat to property or the health or safety of others. Risk may not be remote or speculative, such as thinking an animal might bite someone or will annoy others. Allergies or a fear of animals are generally not sufficient conditions to exclude service animals.
 - When another law specifically states that animals must be excluded or the animal is excluded by operation of another law.
 - When the partner acts in violation of the Service Animal Policy.

If the service animal is to be excluded for any of the above reasons, the partner must be given the option of participating in an activity or receiving services without the animal on the premises. If the animal has been excluded because of disruptive behaviour, the partner must be allowed to participate in the activity with the service animal once the animal's behaviour is demonstrated and confirmed to be under control. Multiple incidents of disruptive behaviour may result in the animal being permanently excluded from College property.

Appendix A and Attachments

1. Requirements of a Service Animal and Its Partner

- Service animals must be accompanied and controlled at all times by their partner.
- Service animals in training must be appropriately marked.
- Service animals should wear specialized equipment such as a backpack, harness or special collar identifying them as a service animal, but this is not a legal requirement.
- The partner must remain in close proximity to the service animal, unless the partner is in an area where the animal is not allowed; at such times the animal must be crated.
- Where appropriate for the type of service animal (i.e. service dogs), the animal should be responsive to voice commands at all times and be under the full control of the partner.
- Service animals must be housetrained.
- The service animal must be restrained on a leash (no more than 5 feet) or harness at all times unless the animal is confined to a crate.
- Barking, growling, biting or any aggressive behaviour by a service animal will not be tolerated or permitted and will result in exclusion.
- Service animals must not be disruptive to others. This includes, but is not limited to, interaction with others, disturbing the personal belongings of others, engaging in personal grooming in public settings, blocking an aisle, passageway for fire and/or emergency exits.
- The partner is responsible for any damage caused by their service animal.
- The partner must clean up after the animal on Campus property including the sanitary disposal of animal wastes.
- Individual departments of the College such as Veterinary Assistant / Technology, Biotechnology, Culinary, Medical Laboratory Science and the College Residences may require additional regulations / procedures / specialized contracts for service animals to ensure the health and safety of their respective areas.
- In order for service dogs, which are not trained as guide dogs or signal dogs, to be in campus buildings, including College Residences, they must have recent (within two years) “Canine Good Neighbour Program” certification, or certification under a comparable program recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club.

2. Care of a Service Animal on Campus

- The partner is responsible for providing water, food and timely bathroom and exercise breaks each day and for generally adhering to appropriate standards of care for the animal.
- When the service animal is left alone on Campus, the partner must provide an appropriately-sized, well-ventilated crate / cage for the animal and make appropriate arrangements through their Academic School, College Residences and/or Counselling and AccessAbility Services for the container during these periods.
- The partner is responsible for the health of the animal and must provide verification to Counselling and AccessAbility Services from a licensed veterinarian that all necessary vaccinations (including deworming and tick and flea treatment) appropriate for that type of service animal are current.
- It is the responsibility of the partner to ensure their animal is kept clean, well-groomed and odour free. The partner must arrange for any cleaning necessary due to the presence of the animal.
- The partner is responsible for seeking prompt veterinarian attention for their animal if it is displaying any signs of illness.

3. Maintaining an inclusive environment for Service Animals and Partners

- A service animal should be allowed to accompany their partner in areas of the campus as specified in their approved Accommodation Letters.
- Maintain a respectful distance from service animals. It is not appropriate to touch, feed or startle service animals as this might distract it from its work / function.
- Ensure that the person using a service animal is included and not isolated from others.

4. Conflicting / Competing Disability Accommodations

- There may be circumstances where a partner's accompaniment by a service animal has to be balanced with the health and safety needs of other students or other College community members. Students with medical condition(s) affected by a service animal should contact Counselling and AccessAbility Services if they have a health or safety concern about exposure to the animal. The student raising the issue will be asked to provide medical documentation that identifies the condition(s) allowing a determination to be made as to whether the condition is disabling and whether there is a need for an accommodation. Staff should follow the same process by speaking directly with their Manager.

5. Approval Processes for Service Animals

- If the need for a service animal can be readily identified, no additional information about the student's medical needs or the need for accommodation is required. For example, a blind person with a guide dog does not need to verify her/his disability or need for the dog, however in the case of guide dogs as defined by the Blind Persons' Rights Act, they may be asked to provide the appropriate identification cards for the guide dog.
- In situations where the need for a service animal is not readily apparent, the partner must provide medical documentation from a regulated health care provider, such as a physician, psychologist, psychiatrist or other regulated health professional, that clearly outlines the functional impairment that requires the use of a service animal, how the service animal supports the partner's functional impairment and other related information. Any medical related needs for a service animal to be on Campus, including outside of a person's personal living space in Campus Residence buildings, must be clearly articulated through medical documentation. Medical documentation is to be submitted to Counselling and AccessAbility Services.

- Documentation confirming up to date vaccinations and an ongoing wellness program with a veterinarian must also be submitted for service animals along with current municipal licensing documentation.
- Once documentation is received and approved by Counselling and AccessAbility Services, the partner will be required to complete, and sign, a "Contract for Service Animal and Partner".
- The type of animal that can be brought into College Residences must also be vetted and approved by the Director of Residence Services in addition to Counselling and AccessAbility Services. Each case will be handled on a case by case basis.
- For employees requesting approval for an on-campus service animal, Human Resources is the Campus authority who considers requests and provides approval. Human Resources will evaluate the request using documentation of the disability from the employee and determine if the animal is a reasonable accommodation. The employee will also be required to complete the "Contract for Service Animal and Partner".
- If a partner obtains a new / different service animal to be used under the provisions of this procedure, the animal must be registered and approved by Counselling and AccessAbility Services, and where applicable, College Residence or Human Resources.

6. Dispute Resolutions Process

- In the event of a disagreement about the appropriateness of an accommodation, service quality, or an animal exclusion, a student should confer with Counselling and AccessAbility Services.
- An employee with a disagreement should confer with Human Resources and if the concern is not resolved, may contact the Vice President, Human Resources.
