Brenden Clarey

Name:	Colin Chiniforoush	LinkedIn:	www.linkedin.com/in/colin-chiniforoush-52414a181	Expected Grad Year:	2020
Short Biography: I am a hardworking, fast, talkative person with a passion for creative thinking and movies. I really like coming up with ideas in a group from the foundation to the finishing touches. I am also addicted to great movies and T.V. shows, because I find that they tell a story that connects with a viewer in a special way. I really like creative and fun commercials that catch the attention of potential consumers. There are so many terrible commercials out there now and it's kind of a breath of fresh air when your see one that stands out and peaks your interest. I am currently studying at St. Lawrence College in Kingston. This is my final year, of three years and my experience here has been amazing. I am learning how to run a company and how to make the best choices for it such as advertisements and sales. I am learning what consumers want and what catches their interest, I think of it like the psychology of consumer marketing. There are so many interesting parts of my program and I am glad to learn all of them. I am currently bartending and managing at Sorrel restaurant in Toronto, Ontario. I started there when I was 14 years old as a busboy and as the years went on I slowly moved up the totem pole from busboy to food runner to bartender and finally manager. My co-worker and customers have given me the reputation of being funny, positive, and kind. I work very well in fast paced, high pressure situations and I am always on time. Along with my school work and job, I run the Instagram account of Sorrel restaurant with a co-worker. My co-worker takes professional photos of the food, ambiance and drinks to post on the account. We come up with the captions and lay out for the pictures together. If you are interested in working together, feel free to contact me!

Hello, I'm 19 years old, I am a detailed oriented, able to multi-task efficiently and willing and able to take responsibility. I have demonstrated these skills through working as a salesman for an organization called Unidem Sales. Through working in the sales industry, I have learned how to talk and relate to people in a composed and constructive way and have also learned to work within a team. I am a firm believer that anything is possible, if you put, you're mind to it. I'm a very disciplined individual, from past experiences playing high level hockey for many years. I listen well and I'm intrigued to learn new things. My passion for having fun and music has interested me in perusing a career as a club promoter for Ink Entertainment. I would like to complete the 3-year marketing course at St. Lawrence College and pursue my dreams. Feel free to contact me at: michael.heath@student.sl.on.ca

-------	---------------------	-----------	---	---------------------	------

I'm a second-year student at St. Lawrence College and my major is Business Marketing. Before studying in marketing SLC, I also earned a bachelor's degree of Illustration from OCAD University and certificates of cuisine and pastry from Le Cordon Bleu Ottawa.

I am a man with immense curiosity. Once I'm curious about a thing, I want to learn more about it, and that is why I keep learning. I was enthusiastic about the foodservice industry, so I trained my cooking skills in a professional culinary school. I knew that a successful chef is not someone who only knows how to cook in the kitchen, thus I learned Design and Business Marketing. With this knowledge, I am capable to cook delicious dishes, design good plating, and manage the restaurant well.

I believe I am ready to work in the foodservice industry. The next step for me is to put my knowledge into practice and acquire more experience.

The intersection between marketing and psychology has always been of interest to me. The social techniques used to persuade customers as well as understanding relevance in the market requires complete optimization of hard work. Whether I am connecting with customers or spending time in a group setting I take on a leadership role while at the same time making everyone feel comfortable and confident. It is important to bring ideas together while also keeping in mind the customer's needs. Currently, I am attending St. Lawrence College pursuing an advanced diploma in business marketing. Previously, my previous work experience includes working at A&W for a year and have also had the privilege to work at the Deli counter at Loblaws, also working as an office assistant at St. Lawrence College. These job opportunities taught me valuable skills such as customer service, cooperation, time management, and food preparation. Additionally, I constantly receive positive feedback from my professors and fellow peers. Outside of academics, I enjoy playing team sports such as basketball, soccer, tennis and golf. I also enjoy spending time with my friends and family, as they are very important to me.

After years of work experience, I have acquired and demonstrated strong Professional, Communication, Leadership and Teamwork skills just to mention a few. Throughout the years I have learned my strong suits and areas to actively working on.

Being born in India, raised by Grand Parents and relocating to Canada, I have learned to make the most out of everything, it has pushed me out of my comfort zone, made me adapt quickly and open up to new opportunities, not to mention create and maintain relationships easily.

My dream is to be independent and giving back to the community and those who once gave me everything. Regarding goals, I hope to obtain more work experiences in various aspects of PR, social media marketing to explore further my interests. It is very important to me to not close any doors as they could become amazing opportunities.

I am a second year Business Marketing student at St. Lawrence College, studying to become a sales professional. Hockey has always been my passion, and I would love to one day get the opportunity to work in the hockey equipment sales industry, or to become an entrepreneur, opening my own hockey specific synthetic ice training facility. Growing up as an athlete, sports have taught me a tremendous amount of valuable skills that directly translate to the world of business. Markets are competitive, and it takes hard work and dedication to achieve your goals. One of the biggest lessons I was taught through sports is how to deal with adversity. Knowing how to take a loss, and turning it into a learning experience for the future. In hockey, you can't win every game, after a loss it is directly back to the drawing board and hard work in practice to ensure the same mistakes aren't made. Business is the same. If you can't close a deal the first time around, it is important not to give up. It is a must have skill to be able to reflect on what happened, and find a way to move forward and learn from your mistake.

I believe that SUCCESS comes from hard work, discipline, and consistency. As an amateur competitive powerlifter, I apply these principles every day of my life and use them to inch closer to my ultimate goal of becoming a great powerlifter and gym owner.

In business, I plan to apply this same recipe for success to my future career in the Fitness & Health Industry. I am currently earning a Business Degree in Administration/Marketing at St. Lawrence College so that I can build a strong foundation, and in the meantime, I am hungry to gain valuable experience in an entry-level role.

Biography:

Hi! I'm William, a diligent creative who's passionate about animation, design, and well-told stories in media. I'm deeply interested in visual storytelling through film, TV, and advertising, and have a background in creative writing and character design. I believe that the stories we tell have the power to shape our culture, and it's a power that should be used responsibly.

I am currently studying Business Marketing at St. Lawrence College, where I'm learning how drastically creative choices can affect the success of a business, and how to design products with specific customers in mind. What makes a target audience respond? What personality do customers associate with a company's brand? I'm fascinated by these questions.

In my current position as a bartender at the Tir Nan Og Irish Pub and in my previous workplaces, I have a reputation for my positive attitude, strong work ethic, sense of responsibility, and determination to succeed. I'm known for showing up early and going the extra mile to achieve my goals.

In addition to my work and school assignments, I'm teaching myself the basics of Photoshop, animation software like Toon Boom Harmony, video editing, and screenwriting. I've developed and pitched two animated series to Frederator Studios, and continue to develop personal projects. However, I seek to apply creativity and good design principles in everything that I do.

Please feel free to contact me if you're interested in working together!

Short Biography:

I am an enthusiastic man with excellent customer relationship skills as well as sales. I have grown these skills throughout my life from work such as coaching and managing youth summer programs, tutoring, and as a front desk/ administrative staff member at a CrossFit Gym.

I am very flexible with it comes to work, adapting to whatever each day brings. I am comfortable assuming a leadership position and easily work cooperatively as a member of a team. I am careful in the selection of my words, and always attempt to bring a positive outlook to appropriate situations.

I graduated from Humber College with a Landscape Technician Honours Diploma, and decided to return to school for Marketing at St. Lawrence College to continue my learning and develop myself both personally and professionally. I hope to work in an environment that makes both its employees and people surrounding it happy.
